A NEW SKELETAL MUSCLE RELAXANT

ROBAXIN[®]

(METHOCARBAMOL)

ROBAXIN, a unique chemical formulation, synthesized in the Robins Research Laboratories and subjected to intensive clinical study for over five years, presents the physician with an entirely new agent for the relaxation of skeletal muscle.

By means of specific action on the internuncial neurons of the spinal chord, ROBAXIN provides sustained repression of the multisynaptic reflexes without demonstrable effect on the monosynaptic reflexes.

ROBAXIN is highly potent, long acting and the clinical evidence shows a low incidence of side effects. In ordinary dosage it does not reduce normal muscle strength or reflex activity.

INDICATIONS

Acute back pain due to muscle spasm secondary to sprain, trauma or nerve irritation. Muscle spasm secondary to disc lesions and post-operative orthopaedic procedures. Bursitis, Torticollis and related conditions.

SUPPLIED as tablets (white, scored) each 0.5 G. in bottles of 50. Prescribable on N.H.S. form E.C.10.

'Inversine' and 'Saluric' introduce a New Era in the treatment of Hypertension

'INVERSINE'
(Mecamylamine Hydrochloride)
The ganglion blocking agent completely and consistently effective upon oral administration.

'SALURIC'
(Chlorothiazide)
The oral diuretic agent which also possesses hypotensive properties.

'SALURIC', already universally accepted as the only oral diuretic as effective as mersalyl, possesses the unique and additional property of hypotensive activity. Frequently it may be possible to control blood pressure with 'SALURIC' alone or with the addition of only a sedative or mild hypotensive agent. But when ganglion blocking agents are required in addition, the dosage and administration of these is greatly simplified.

LONGER LIFE FOR HYPERTENSIVES

'INVERSINE' and 'SALURIC' concurrently, provide: Smaller dosage of 'INVERSINE': Smoother control of blood pressure • Freedom from, or diminution in, side-effects usually associated with ganglion blockade.

How supplied:

'INVERSINE': 10 mg. tablets (white, quarter-scored); 2.5 mg. tablets (yellow, half-scored).

'SALURIC': 0.5 G. tablets (half-scored).

'Inversine' and 'Saluric' are not supplied in a combined tablet.

'INVERSINE' and 'SALURIC' were discovered and developed in the Merck Sharp & Dohme Research Laboratories, and are manufactured in England exclusively by the Merck Sharp & Dohme Organisation. 'Inversine' and 'Saluric' are Registered Trade Marks.

sodium polyhydroxyaluminium monocarbonate hexitol complex has all the effectiveness of the best liquid antacid with the convenience of a tablet

All this from Bayer—and at very low cost

Latest comprehensive antacid study* states :—

"The commonly available antacids have been tested by these techniques and appraised against these criteria.

- Carbonates, bicarbonates, and preparations containing them, e.g., Mixture of Magnesium Trisilicate, B.P.C., raise the pH too far and may cause classical alkalosis.
- Magnesium trisilicate, aluminium glycinate, aluminium phosphate, and certain antacids containing milk solids do not raise the pH adequately.
- Aluminium hydroxide gel controls pH at the desired level but shows marked variation in speed of action and, being a liquid preparation, is inconvenient in use while its palatability is not always acceptable. It may lose two-thirds or more of its reactivity when prepared in tablet form.

A new substance—a sodium polyhydroxyaluminium monocarbonate hexitol complex—is described. This appears to meet adequately all the criteria. It loses no antacid activity on drying and tableting but still reacts about 2½ times as rapidly as the best Dried Aluminium Hydroxide Gel tested and over four times as rapidly as most samples."

An ill-judged approach to a powerfully sprung swing-door can be productive of a variety of minor trauma, a sprained thumb or finger perhaps being among the more common.

Asian influenza

new outbreaks foreseen

In the opinion of the W.H.O. Expert Committee on respiratory virus diseases, 'Asian' virus is likely to be the predominant type in influenza outbreaks during the next few years. In dealing with Asian influenza the Committee have indicated the value of preventative inoculation. From a clinical point of view, this is particularly important for expectant mothers and other special groups and has been proved to offer 60-70% effective protection.

Influenza Virus A (Asian) Vaccine is available for immediate supply by Parke-Davis

This material is the original vaccine developed in the Wright-Fleming Institute of Microbiology using Influenza Virus A/Singapore/1/57, as supplied to Ministry of Health requirements.

... and though there are many—perhaps too many—analgesics available to the practitioner, the balanced properties of Hypon make it a tablet far more effective than most. Extensive tests show that Hypon has the power not only to relieve pain but to do so very rapidly. Constipation, so often encountered following the administration of codeine is effectively counteracted by the addition of phenolphthalein. Caffeine offsets the depressing effects of aspirin and phenacetin. Hypon is invaluable where prolonged administration is called for (chronic rheumatic conditions for instance). Furthermore, the antipyretic properties of Hypon tablets are of particular value in the treatment of the febrile states of influenza, tonsillitis...

This special shampoo owes much of its success to the Medical Profession

Just about four years ago, Sebbix shampoo was introduced to the medical profession with marked success. Almost at once, doctors began to recommend Sebbix as a safe, sure means of controlling pityriasis capitis. Not until it had earned professional acceptance was Sebbix offered to the general public; and only then was it widely and carefully advertised. Today, Sebbix is a respected name in many households, and doctors continue to advise their patients to use this special shampoo—without the need of prescription. As a product which requires no prescription, Sebbix shampoo offers remarkable value both to private and N.H.S. patients. A point worth remembering.

Sebbix Shampoo eliminates dandruff

Of all the applications of DIAMOX acetazolamide, few are more welcomed in clinical practice than is its value in epilepsy. Freedom from epileptic seizures has been observed in numerous cases of grand and petit mal following treatment with DIAMOX. The drug has shown an unusually beneficial effect on resistant cases of petit mal. It is effective when used alone and of particular value when used in combination with the usual anticonvulsants. Highly versatile, DIAMOX has long been recognised for its value in other conditions including cardiac oedema, glaucoma, premenstrual tension, toxæmias and oedema of pregnancy, drug-induced oedema, etc.

THE PROBLEM

To obtain high blood levels of theophylline easily . . .

THE SOLUTION

Oral 'Theodrox' . . .

THE RESULT

A full Therapeutic response . . .

For oral aminophylline therapy to be fully effective it is necessary to give a dose sufficient to produce high blood theophylline levels. However, because of gastric irritation vomiting often results. Alternative therapy with enteric coated tablets or suppositories is unreliable, and parenteral aminophylline is inconvenient.

The combination of dried aluminium hydroxide gel and aminophylline in 'Theodrox' ensures full therapeutic response with the minimum of gastric upset. Reproducible blood levels comparable with those obtained from intramuscular injection can be obtained.

WANDER

THE NEW CONCEPT FOR RELIEF OF THE COMMON COLD

Relief in minutes—lasts for hours

An orally administered decongestant has much better distribution to the mucous membranes of the respiratory tract than nasal sprays, drops and inhalants, and this "affords opportunity for shrinkage in areas that could not be approached by sprays, drops or actual topical application."*

'TRIOMINIC' "dries" and decongests nasal passages, combats allergic symptoms—with little likelihood of rebound congestion or pathological changes in the nasal mucosa, and without the risk of local overtreatment or "nose drop addiction." Especially valuable for night-time cough caused by postnasal drip.

An advance in the therapy of diabetes

Rastinon tablets, developed by Farbwerke Hoechst AG., of Frankfurt/M., under the research No. D860, have now an established place in the therapy of diabetes mellitus. The large volume of clinical work and the number of papers published, reflect the world-wide interest in Rastinon. This work clearly shows that for the suitable patient Rastinon tablets provide a form of therapy which is Simple, safe, effective and economical

Rastinon is not a "sulphonamide drug," has no anti-bacterial action and does not produce crystalluria. No cases of dyshaemopoiesis or other serious side-effects have been reported among the many thousands of patients satisfactorily controlled for more than two years.

The suitability of a patient for treatment with Rastinon tablets is readily assessed in the diabetic clinic and once stabilised no difficulties have been experienced in controlling the patient. An acute intercurrent infection may necessitate a temporary return to insulin therapy.

DOSAGE

Once stabilised, from one to three tablets a day are normally all that is required to replace the insulin with its concomitant syringe, needles, swabs, and often nursing assistance as well. During the period of stabilisation it has been found that generally from four to eight tablets on the first day, three to six on the second and three to five on the third are sufficient.

The daily amount should be divided into two or three doses and taken during or after meals with a little fluid. Higher doses are not usually more effective and are not recommended as they may occasionally cause hypoglycaemic reactions. The normal regime of urine examination and dietary control remains necessary.

To lessen the possibility of the patient taking a tablet other than Rastinon in error, each tablet is engraved with the name Rastinon and the trade mark of the originators.

PACKS

Bottles of 100 and 500 tablets—each tablet contains 0.5 G. N-Butyl-N'-toluene-p-sulphonylurea (tolbutamide). The basic cost to the N.H.S. of a week's treatment is on average between 3/6d. and 5/3d.

Better relief for Arthritics—minimum side effects

In salicylate therapy BUFFERIN (Antacid Analgesic) has these two special advantages. It is faster-acting—twice as fast as ordinary aspirin. It is better-tolerated—even in large doses, as for arthritis.

According to a British survey, as many as 42% of arthritics are intolerant to aspirin. And in a blind trial among arthritics with a proved intolerance to aspirin, 70% had no gastric symptoms after taking large doses of BUFFERIN over periods of 4 to 16 months. (1)

In clinical tests, it was shown that BUFFERIN raises the salicylate blood level of humans more than 20% higher in ten minutes than ordinary aspirin does in twenty minutes.

Hence the importance of BUFFERIN in all salicylate therapy. Only BUFFERIN contains the antacid agents which:—

- ★reduce gastric upset to a negligible minimum (2) (3);
- ★actually speed the pain-relieving ingredient into the bloodstream (4) (5).

It acts faster. It is better tolerated. It contains no sodium.

for Sacro-iliac Strain a narrow belt alone is not enough . . .

That is why Spencer Designers incorporate an easily-adjustable pelvic binder (see inset below) inside each Spencer created for sacro-iliac strain.

A narrow belt alone will not provide adequate continuous immobilization of the sacro-iliac joints, because such a belt will not stay in place. With ordinary body movements, any narrow belt alone will ride up and dig in at the back, thus causing faulty posture that increases the disability. That is why every Spencer Sacro-iliac Support is a "belt within a support" designed to the necessary heights and lengths to bridge the lumbar curve and co-relate abdominal and back support. Thus improvement in posture—essential to relief in sacro-iliac strain—is attained and maintained.

Every Spencer—for abdomen, back, breasts—is individually designed, cut and made for each patient.
