DEMETHYLCHLORTETRACYCLINE

the foremost tetracycline of today

Of all the antibacterial agents used in the past in the fight against chronic bronchitis, the tetracyclines unquestionably rank the highest in the opinion of a growing number of doctors. Today, the newest of the tetracyclines — LEDERMYCIN demethylchlortetracycline—is rapidly taking pride of place among this group of drugs because of the many immediate advantages it exhibits over earlier tetracycline derivatives. More and more doctors are recognising LEDERMYCIN as the most active tetracycline yet. Logic therefore points to the use of LEDERMYCIN in chronic bronchitis as in all conditions where a tetracycline is called for.

DEEP SKIN PENETRATION IN ARTHRITIS AND RHEUMATISM

NICOTINIC, SALICYLIC AND p-AMINOBENZOIC ACIDS in Ester form

IN CASES of soft-tissue rheumatism, and arthritic disorders, many doctors are tending more and more to regard Transvasin as an indispensable adjuvant to treatment.

For Transvasin is composed of the esters of nicotinic, salicylic and p-aminobenzoic acids. These esters readily pass the skin barrier in therapeutic quantities, and so enable an effective concentration of drugs to be built up where they are needed.*

Transvasin not only induces vasodilatation of the skin with a superficial erythema, but also brings about a deep hyperaemia of the underlying tissues. It is non-irritant and can be safely used on delicate skins.

It is now being widely prescribed, with successful clinical results. Since a very small quantity is sufficient for each application, the cost of treatment is extremely low.

It would appear that antibiotics have now been accepted as a treatment for bronchitis. However, antibiotics alone may not be enough. Though undoubtedly improving the patient's health in the long run, they do not always offer the immediate symptomatic relief so necessary to his comfort and general well-being.*

complete therapy

Franol eases the patient's breathing by dilating the bronchioles and reducing mucous congestion. It encourages patient co-operation by freeing him from distressing symptoms and helping him to get unbroken rest at night.

Since its introduction, the prescribing of Franol for the relief of bronchitis and asthma has increased every year. More and more doctors regard Franol as an effective auxiliary in antibiotic treatment of bronchitis.

Nebrinal is a balanced combination of muscle-relaxant mephenesin and intermediate-acting pentobarbitone, presented in the form of specially designed 'timed-release' tablets to provide 'tapered' dosage.

The outer layer of the tablet rapidly releases about two-thirds of the two drugs to induce relaxation and sleep; the balance of the drugs is released from the inner core 3 to 4 hours later to sustain relaxed sleep on a reduced dosage.

The amount of barbiturate to be inactivated at any one time is thus kept low.

NARPHEN is a new, potent analgesic with 3 to 10 times the pain-relieving power of morphine. Being a true analgesic, sedation, hypnosis and narcosis are markedly less than with morphine or pethidine.

Narphen is valuable for relieving severe and persistent pain when to impair consciousness or mental clarity would be undesirable. With Narphen, degrees of sedation and hypnosis can be controlled separately, irrespective of the depth of pain.

Narphen has fewer and less serious side-effects than morphine. It causes less hypotension and respiratory depression. Nausea, vomiting and constipation are rare.

When you examine
TAMPAX
please note...

How well it is adapted to individual needs

Please note also—

How easy it is for your patients to insert.

How flat Tampax expands to fit the vaginal canal.

How gentle its contact with the vaginal epithelium.

How positive its wick action in absorbing the flux.

How dainty it is for your patients to remove.

For different patients—or on different days—the two sizes of Tampax meet the varying requirements incident to even normal menstruation.

“Super Tampax”, with its 13 cc. absorptive capacity, is especially indicated for the woman with profuse discharge, or for those days when extra protection may be desired.

“Regular Tampax’s” absorptive capacity of 10 cc. adapts it for the average woman with normal flow, for whom it usually serves during the entire period.

For ready insertion, these two sizes are compressed to a cross section diameter of $\frac{9}{16}$ " and $\frac{1}{2}$ " respectively, and supplied in individual (one-time) applicators. In situ, the unique, flat expansion of their fine surgical cotton conforms them to the flat cross section of the collapsed vagina. Positive wick action prevents any blocking of the flow, and disintegration is safely precluded by an exclusive central stitching. By the moisture-proof cord, dainty removal is facilitated.

Have you compared the two sizes of Tampax?

Professional samples and literature will gladly be supplied by Medical Department, Tampax Limited, Havant, Hants.

NULACIN "has revolutionized the treatment of duodenal ulcer"

"This new method of the administration of antacids (Nulacin) has revolutionized the treatment of duodenal ulcer... milk drip is no longer part of our therapeutic stock in trade."

PROG. SOC. MED., December, 1958, 51, 1063

NULACIN tablets, when allowed to dissolve slowly in the mouth, provide intragastric milk-alkali drip therapy safely and effectively for both the bed-ridden and ambulant patient. They may be relied on to provide a treatment for peptic ulcer as well as other conditions associated with gastric hyperacidity.

Nulacin tablets have no B.P. equivalent. The Basic N.H.S. price of the 25 tablet tube is 2/-.

PYCAMISAN B.D.

New PAS+INAH
presentation for twice-daily
dosage

These 5 advantages make T.B. treatment easier for both doctor and patient

- a smaller cachet, which is easier to swallow.
- a safer cachet, because it is wet-sealed, so that patients cannot tip out the contents with consequent risk of wastage or making themselves feel sick.
- twice-daily dosage, which means there is no midday dose to 'forget.'
- one day's supply in each tube, marked 'morning' and 'evening' to tell the patient when his next dose is due.
- new technique for swallowing cachets, described in a leaflet in each box (extra supplies available on request).

Because of these advantages, the patient is more likely to understand and stick to this simple regimen with PYCAMISAN B.D. PYCAMISAN B.D. is an addition to the present Pycamisan range, but its popularity may make it possible to reduce the range.

PYCAMISAN B.D. cachets each contain 1.5 G. Sodium PAS B.P. and 37.5 mg. Isoniazid B.P.

They are wrapped in polythene tubes of eight, providing a total daily dosage of 12 G. PAS and 300 mg. INAH, and are available in boxes of 240 (one month's supply) and 480 (two month's supply).

In tins of 240 and 480 cachets.
Each tin contains an attractive,
simply illustrated instruction leaflet to aid the patient.

MODERN TRENDS IN OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH

By R. S. F. SCHILLING, M.D., M.R.C.P., D.P.H., D.I.H. 330 pages. 46 illustrations. Price 67s. 6d., postage 2s. extra.

This new book surveys the results of research by doctors, scientists, industrialists and others into occupational hazards and industrial health. Industrial pulmonary disease, occupational cancer, mental illness, radiation hazards, noise, industrial accidents and the treatment of injuries and burns are among the subjects studied; many aspects of the diseases are discussed in detail, and precautions, tests and safety measures are given as well as statistics.

PRINCIPLES OF GENERAL NEUROPHYSIOLOGY RELATING TO ANAESTHESIA AND SURGERY

By BARRY D. WYKE, M.B., B.S. 146 pages. 26 illustrations. Price 21s., postage 1s. 6d. extra.

The author deals with certain basic aspects of general neurophysiology which have become of importance to surgeons and anaesthetists in recent years. Such information has not previously been readily available in concise form, and the book will therefore prove most useful for postgraduate students preparing for higher examinations, and for advanced undergraduates.

The approach is deliberately selective, dealing in some detail with a few important aspects of fundamental neurology, rather than with a wider field at a more superficial level.

A PRIMER OF MEDICINE

An Introduction to Clinical Neurology, Alimentary, Respiratory and Vascular Diseases

By M. H. PAPPWORTH, M.D., M.R.C.P. 260 pages. Illustrated. Price 32s. 6d., postage 2s. extra.

The clinician must always be concerned primarily with facts and secondly only with theories, and the author of this new work stresses that it is impossible to be a good clinician without possessing wide factual knowledge. Based on this M.R.C.P. (London) course, this is a book of basic facts with the emphasis on good history-taking and the identification and interpretation of physical signs.

CLINICAL CHILD PSYCHIATRY

By KENNETH SODDY, M.D., D.P.M.

The standard literature of medicine has neglected modern ideas on child psychiatry and the new clinical attitudes attached to it. In an effort to rectify this omission, the author describes what he has seen and heard in over twenty years of practice in child psychiatry and suggests some guidelines for developing systems of aetiology and diagnosis.

The cases of about one hundred children and their families have been selected to illustrate a representative range of problems commonly encountered in child guidance practice.

The book is intended for those specializing in child psychiatry, and for psychologists and psychiatric social workers in the child guidance team. It is also addressed to paediatricians, public health doctors, general practitioners and medical students in their clinical years, to public health nurses and social workers in the school medical and the maternity and child welfare services, and to school psychologists, teachers, and other workers with maladjusted and subnormal children.

462 pages. Price 42s., postage 2s. 3d.

SOCIAL REHABILITATION of the SUBNORMAL

By H. C. GUNZBURG, M.A., Ph.D., F.B.Ps.S.

This book is concerned with the problem of the subnormal adult person who has become a social failure and indicates, in practical terms, what can be done to give such people a better chance of successful adjustment to the demands of society when they leave an institution after a period of training and treatment.

It deals with that type of subnormal, the dullard, who has, so far, received scanty treatment in textbooks and reflects the realistic optimism now characteristic of many progressive institutions.

Doctors, nurses and auxiliaries will find it stimulating reading. Local Authority Officers, Probation Officers, Welfare Workers, Mental Health Officers and teachers are some of those who will also obtain assistance from a study of the book.

282 pages, 16 illus., 16 diagrams. Price 27s. 6d., postage 1s. 9d.

EATING EARTH

Do you care for your family? Are you proud of the care you lavish on them? Most people go to great length to see that the family is well fed and housed. That is as it should be.

And yet some of your family have been eating earth. They were starving. For four or five years nearly a quarter of a million Algerian refugees have been struggling for life on the borders of Tunisia and Morocco. U.N. observers state that about 85% of them are old people and children. They are the innocent victims of a most cruel war. We are not concerned with the affairs of the war but we must not blind ourselves to the dreadful horror which is being enacted.

A British M.P. recently visited the camps in Tunisia. He is an experienced observer and has seen poverty in many gross forms. He writes:—"They took me to what they called one of the 'best camps.' After five minutes I wanted to go away. I had seen such dreadful suffering, it was too much! People with bones going soft, hair falling out, bodies completely covered with sores. Children had to be carried about as the poor little bones would not support the bloated bodies."

His letter goes on, but surely we have written enough.

Our appeal is not on the grounds of politics. We are appealing because we believe that all the people of the world are of one family. Most of us say The Lord's Prayer. In it we confess that we are all children of one Father.

We plead that it is your family out there. In the agony of hunger they clutch at earth and swallow it in a vain attempt to end the pain. Please help us in our work of mercy!

Your gift will be forwarded without one penny of deduction. All our workers are voluntary and we have good friends bearing the costs. Your gift, large or small, will be received with gratitude by the Hon. Treasurer,

The Rt. Hon. JAMES GRIFFITHS, P.C., M.P., War on Want,

War on Want supports an Orphanage for 100 Algerian refugee boys near Tunis and we plan a Girls' Home. Your gifts could make this possible.
