INDOCID

INDOMETHACIN

REGD

'Indocid' is a new, non-steroid anti-inflammatory agent with analgesic and antipyretic properties, chemically unrelated to the corticosteroids, phenylbutazone-like compounds or salicylates.

Widespread clinical experience has shown that 'Indocid' rapidly relieves pain and inflammation, and allows greater mobility. In osteoarthritis, 'Indocid' is often effective where other agents are inadequate; it has given excellent results in osteoarthritis of the hip. In rheumatoid arthritis, objective evidence of effect may be seen as a measurable reduction of joint swelling. 'Indocid' has also proved effective in ankylosing spondylitis, gout, and certain soft-tissue disorders

a major discovery

'Indocid' is supplied as 25 mg capsules. Detailed information is available to physicians on request.

ERYTHROCIN POWER|SAFETY|COVERAGE

for 8 out of 10 bacterial infections seen in schoolboys (and their teachers)

ERYTHROCIN (erythromycin, Abbott) is the logical first-line treatment for most bacterial infections encountered in practice. It provides powerful yet safe coverage against the majority of causative organisms, leaving the broad spectrum antibiotics free for the specific cases in which they alone are effective.

POWER The potency of Erythrocin against the cocci is considerably more than that of tetracyclines or chloramphenicol.

SAFETY Erythrocin combines this effectiveness with a remarkable degree of safety. It is, in fact, the least toxic and least allergenic antibiotic currently in use.

COVERAGE Erythrocin is effective in over 80% of the common bacterial infections. Its wide clinical spectrum of activity covers: Most Gram-positive organisms—especially Staphylococci, Streptococci, Pneumococci, Clostridia and Corynebacteria. Gram-negative organisms such as Neisseria and most strains of Haemophilus influenzae.

By prescribing Erythrocin preparations by name you ensure that your patients receive erythromycin in safe, well-absorbed forms that produce effective blood levels rapidly.

Inderal

(PROPRANOLOL)

TRADE MARK

Indicated in Angina Pectoris when conventional therapy has proved inadequate.

'INDERAL' specifically blocks the unnecessary oxygen wasting effects of excessive sympathetic nervous activity on the heart. Probably the most striking benefit has been seen in patients inadequately helped by conventional drugs.

The results of 'INDERAL' therapy include less frequent anginal attacks, improved effort tolerance and decreased consumption of glyceryl trinitrate.

In addition, 'INDERAL' will control cardiac arrhythmias, including those associated with digitalis intoxication and arrhythmias occurring during anaesthesia.

Note. Because the pharmacological action is quite new, it is advisable to study the detailed literature before using 'Inderal' (propranolol).

Now women can tear up their diaries and calendars...

...Gynovlar 21 eliminates the only known type of failure—patient-failure

Almost all oral contraceptives are virtually 100% reliable—if every tablet in the course is taken correctly. In order to make quite certain, most women keep checking systems with the aid of calendars and diaries. And in spite of the book-keeping (or maybe because of it) accidents do occur. These accidents can involve the doctor in a lot of unnecessary consultation and explanation.

In order to avoid all this, to do away with systems and diaries and calendars, the 21-tablet course was evolved. It is the 21st tablet which allows this surprisingly simple dosage scheme: ☐ 3 weeks' treatment ☐ 1 week's interval and so on without variation. The start of each new course is not subject to individual interpretation of the menstrual pattern and thus the risk of miscalculation by the patient is virtually excluded.

The simplest visual check:

Only the 21st tablet makes the Memo-Pack possible. This is a unique visual dispenser in which each tablet is marked with the day on which it should be taken. The patient, therefore, can check at a glance whether she has followed the dosage correctly. Only the Memo-Pack reveals instantly, without recording or pre-setting, whether the day's tablet has been taken. As long as a woman knows what day of the week it is she just can't go wrong.

"It is interesting to note that Gynovlar is the only product on C.I.F.C. trial in which patients have not completely missed any tablets. Presumably because of the more regular routine of tablet-taking, patients find it simpler to follow and are less liable to miss them. The cycle length with this 21/7 regimen [3 weeks' treatment, 1 week's interval] of course is always 28 days."

Today's Drugs—"New Oral Contraceptives"
British Medical Journal, 8 August, 1964, p.357

INDICATIONS:

Contraception, Dysmenorrhoea, Endometriosis, Functional sterility, Normalisation of irregular cycles.

DOSAGE:

1 tablet daily for 21 days, followed by a tablet-free interval of 7 days. Each new course of tablets is started on exactly the same day of the week as the previous course.

N.B.—The first course should start on the fifth day of the cycle.

PRESENTATION:

21 tablets, each containing 3 mg. norethisterone acetate and 0.05 mg. ethinyl oestradiol, in the unique Memo-Pack.

of a NAVAL MEDICAL OFFICER

This is a life of unbounded opportunity. Anywhere in the world, you practise medicine with complete medical freedom. Among 100,000 Naval men and women you gain extensive medical experience of the most varied nature. Civilian patients, too, of both sexes and all ages, are treated in Naval hospitals. You have excellent opportunities for specialising in the normal clinical subjects, and in the less usual, such as Nuclear, Underwater, and Aviation medicine. You are actively encouraged and financially assisted to acquire higher degrees. You can gain consultant status.

As a Medical Officer, your pay, allowances, and gratuity—or permanent commission pension—are very good: for example, your initial pay is considerably higher than that of a civilian hospital registrar. You can enter in one of three ways:

as a registered Medical Practitioner—your civilian experience back-dating seniority—or as a qualified doctor doing your pre-registration year, or as a student with a 2nd M.B. For qualified women doctors, there is a special short service commission. Barley water has long been recognised as the ideal treatment in cases where large amounts of liquid form part of the prescription. With its high solids content, smooth demulcent barley water—hot or cold—is especially suitable in gastro-intestinal complaints where the internal membranes are inflamed and tender.

Robinson's Lemon Barley and Orange Barley provide a convenient form of natural, wholesome barley water freshened with lemon and orange and perfectly balanced for rapid absorption.

Robinson's 'Patent' Barley gives a quickly prepared home-brew of barley water that can be mixed with milk or flavoured with any fruit juice that the patient prefers. A half-pound pack makes 96 glassfuls of fresh barley water.

and 'Eaton Agent' pneumonia

Enter the Mycoplasma pneumoniae

There was a story about a scientist who discovered a cure for which there was no known disease. Though it was only meant for a laugh, this is not wholly incongruous. Something quite similar has actually happened.

When LEDERMYCIN Demethylchlortetracycline was introduced in 1959, we had full confidence it would prove extremely effective in a host of acute and chronic infections due to a wide range of Gram-positive and Gram-negative organisms. And it did. What we did not anticipate was that it would prove effective in pneumonia due to Mycoplasma pneumoniae.

The reason is simple: the disease itself was not invented—rather, it was not clearly defined—for another four years. Not until 1963 was enough known about it that the causative agent could be assigned a taxonomic designation.

Here are the principal links in the chain of events

1942 'Primary atypical pneumonia' officially established by the Surgeon General of the U.S. Army to distinguish nonbacterial pneumonias of unknown aetiology.

1944 'Eaton agent' isolated from pleural secretions of patients with nonbacterial pneumonia.

1957 'Eaton agent' definitely implicated as the cause of much primary atypical pneumonia.

1961 LEDERMYCIN Demethylchlortetracycline shown highly effective in 'Eaton agent' pneumonia.

1962 'Eaton agent' identified as one of the so-called pleuropneumonia-like organisms (PPLO), already assigned the generic name Mycoplasma.

1963 Mycoplasma pneumoniae proposed as species name for 'Eaton agent'.

So, enter Mycoplasma pneumoniae.

And, as a corollary, exit 'Eaton agent'? Not necessarily. Familiar names often die hard.

Mycoplasma pneumoniae has ceased to be merely a clinical conversation piece. It is estimated that the newly-named organism may be responsible for as many as half of all hospitalized adult cases of pneumonia. It easily qualifies as a public health problem of some importance.

The recommended dosage for LEDERMYCIN in 'Eaton agent' pneumonia is 900 mg daily given as one 300 mg tablet T.I.D.

not only most powerful but also easily controlled

Lasix is a more potent diuretic at a dose of 80 mg. than is the normal therapeutic dose of hydrochlorothiazide, chlorthalidone, cyclopenthiiazide, or triamterene (Lancet, 1964, ii, 1088). At this dosage the effect of Lasix is approximately the same as the effect of 2 ml. mersalyl given intramuscularly.

Not only is Lasix powerful, but it is also unusual among diuretics for its breadth of action, which gives great versatility and a high degree of control. The diuretic effect is proportional to the dose given over a uniquely wide range: the greater the dose, the greater the response. And the effect begins half an hour after an oral dose; is normally over in 4 to 5 hours.

This means that whatever the required effect, Lasix dosage can be adjusted to produce it. The normal dose range is 40 to 120 mg. For special cases, perhaps where other diuretics have failed, higher doses can be used. While these are rarely necessary they will require adequate clinical and laboratory control.

Why put ascorbic acid in an iron tablet?

The "Sidros Absorption Bridge" is built with Lego

TO HELP YOUR PATIENT

The "Sidros Absorption Bridge" illustrates today's views on iron absorption. Iron is absorbed from the intestine only in its ferrous state. It is oxidized to the ferric salt on entering the mucosa and has to be reduced to ferrous iron before it can cross the barrier between mucosa and blood stream. Ascorbic acid acts as a reducing agent in this process.^{1,2,3}

*Each Sidros tablet contains 300 mg. ferrous gluconate and 30 mg. stabilized ascorbic acid.
Dosage: 1-2 tablets three times daily.*

Stabilized ascorbic acid is present in SIDROS to keep iron in its absorbable ferrous state in the alkaline environment of the bowel and to act as a reducing agent in the mucosa.

And to help you

Fewer complaints . . . The incidence of side effects with ferrous gluconate is one-fifth of that with ferrous sulphate.⁴

Ceporin

injection of cephaloridine

antibiotic of choice for urinary tract infections

Ceporin is the antibiotic of choice in the treatment of urinary tract infections caused by most strains of both gram-positive and gram-negative organisms. It is almost entirely excreted by the kidneys and appears in the urine in high concentrations. In acute conditions the urine can be rendered sterile quickly and symptoms often subside rapidly. Ceporin is also valuable as cover before and after urinary tract surgery.

Other conditions Ceporin is the primary choice antibiotic for mixed infections and for organisms likely to be resistant to penicillin. Since there is no cross-sensitisation with penicillin or its derivatives, it is also indicated for patients allergic to penicillin. Other conditions include respiratory tract infections (excluding tuberculosis), meningitis, septicaemia, bacterial endocarditis and soft tissue infections.

Ceporin injections are remarkably painless and make the whole dose of the antibiotic available to the body.

Many acute infections will clear rapidly within 2 to 5 days. More chronic infections require longer treatment.

Psoriasis ... rapid response to Alphosyl

... even in previously intractable cases. A patient of 48 who had a generalised psoriasis for 20 years was essentially clear in six weeks.² A girl of 10 with a strong familial history of psoriasis, cleared almost completely after three weeks' application of Alphosyl Cream.² These are just two typical cases from the extensive clinical records underlining Alphosyl's outstanding effectiveness in bringing psoriasis under control.

New Alphosyl lubricating cream. A new water-in-oil dosage form, Alphosyl Lubricating Cream is particularly significant in the treatment of the dry, extremely scaly psoriatic lesion confined to the small site and the intertriginous area. Alphosyl cream is especially helpful in clearing psoriatic plaques exposed to constant friction. By enhancing lubrication of the skin folds, it serves to lessen irritation and facilitate healing. Clearing is prompt, even in previously resistant cases. The effectiveness of Alphosyl in this form is attributable in large measure to its unique cream base. This consists of a combination of saturated and unsaturated free fatty acids, naturally occurring triglycerides and esters that resemble the lipid constituents of normal healthy skin. The vehicle also contains hydrophobic-lipophilic bipolar substances which enhance the moisture uptake and retention of the amphoteric proteins of the stratum corneum. Significantly, it has been shown that squalane, one of the components of the base, is most effective in dissolving a cement substance in psoriatic scales.

Formula: Allantoin 2%+90% alcoholic extract of coal-tar (5=1) 5% in a vanishing type cream base or a smooth, non-greasy lotion base.

Most textbooks on public health are still devoted largely to the detailed work of the public health officer and the laws which govern his work in the country in which the book originates. These books are unsuitable for students from other countries or for administrators who wish to acquire knowledge on the best way to establish a health service.

Although customs and practices vary in different countries there are many fundamental principles relating to family care and health administration which are common to people everywhere. This book has been written to provide basic information to all engaged in public health work in any part of the world, special emphasis being placed on epidemiology and the community aspects of medicine. It has also been planned to cover the requirements of postgraduate students in public health.

This second edition follows on the first after an interval of four years, during which time there have been considerable advances in many of the subjects covered by the book. There have been, for example, great advances in the control of communicable diseases, particularly the arthropod-borne diseases and the zoonoses, in genetics, and in the application of epidemiological methods to non-communicable disease.

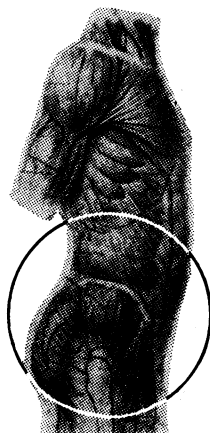

All chapters have been thoroughly revised, wherever possible statistical information has been brought up to date and, in addition, two new chapters "Social Science and Public Health" and "The Planning and Evaluation of Health Services" have been added together with a number of new illustrations.

Second Edition 418 pages 43 illustrations 70s. net.

Spencer "Free Action" Support Brief for men

Spencer's revolutionary new concept of support in non-rubber, spandex elastic for back and abdomen.

Subtle in design to the degree of being mistaken for tailored, body-fitting underwear in the locker room, it actually provides powerful, functional support in elevating the viscera, thus relieving low back strain.

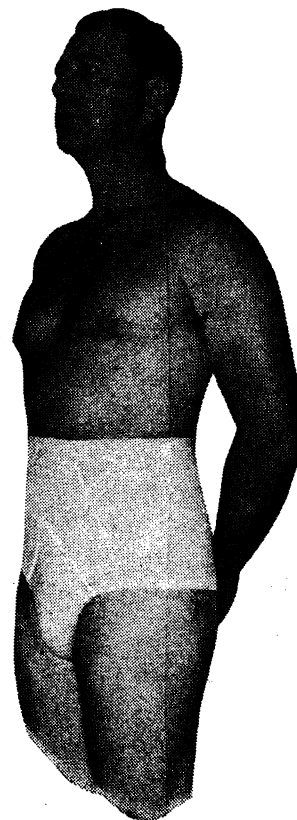

- ★ Front inner panels follow natural musculature.
- ★ Soft expansion areas at top edge and around legs allow motion and minimize bulging.
- ★ Comfortable, accommodating crotch section has easy access opening.

Patients have experienced relief from chronic low back pain while wearing the Support Brief.

We recommend this Brief for minor low back conditions and where it is considered beneficial to raise abdominal contents in aiding respiration, relieving ptosis, minimizing pooling of blood in lower abdomen, etc.

'Tremonil' represents a considerable advance in the control of tremor. This new drug greatly reduces, and in some cases abolishes, Parkinsonian and Senile tremor. At the same time, 'Tremonil' also decreases rigidity and diminishes the psychic and autonomic disturbances which often accompany Parkinsonism. 'Tremonil' is generally well tolerated, and may when necessary be given concurrently with other drugs which are mainly effective against rigidity.

Surgery—contd. on p. xlviii

Flt. Lt. John Bradshaw, M.B., Ch.B., has just taken up his first appointment on an R.A.F. Station. "I like the way the R.A.F. treats its doctors," he says. "The conditions of work are much better than in general practice under the National Health Scheme." Dr. Bradshaw is 24 and qualified at Sheffield. His wife is an ex-Nurse and they have two young children.

Before you commit yourself to a practice, work 3 or 5 years in the R.A.F.

You'll do some interesting, out-of-the-rut medicine, see a bit of the world, live well, and 'retire' with up to £3,000, tax free.

If you are in your pre-Registration year, here is something for you to think about.

You do not, now, need to take up your workaday N.H.S. career straight away. Furthermore, there are good reasons why you should not be in too much of a hurry. After 3 or 5 years you'll know, far better than you do now, where your particular talents and interests lie, and what sort of a future—personal as well as professional—you want to make for yourself. If you're a round peg, you'll know what a square hole looks like.

A short spell in the R.A.F. is, in fact, a breathing-space. It gives you the chance to make up your mind about all sorts of things.

You'd get your first job in the R.A.F. 3 months after you joined—probably as junior M.O. at a Station: rather like being an "Assistant with a view". In a typical case you could be one of two doctors with, between you, 1500 to 2500 people to take care of, and your own 'cottage hospital' with wards, theatre and laboratory, and secretarial as well as nursing staff.

You'd have a shorter list than a civilian G.P., and to this extent you would live a less strenuous life. To compensate, you would give more comprehensive care. It is this—and the variety of your work—that makes practice in the R.A.F. so interesting.

In the R.A.F. you combine several functions. You are in medical care not only of people, but of the environment they live in, and of the work they do. In proportion you do less curative work and more preventive work than is even possible for most civilian doctors.

A lot of people hold the view that this is the way all medicine should be practised: with the closest possible integration of the doctor and the community.

This is the choice you face

Think of two doctors, both aged 40. One went to his practice straight from his teaching hospital, and has been there ever since. The other went into the R.A.F. on a 5-year commission. He lived—and lived well—in the tropics with his family for 2½ years, and, on leave or on duty, visited 7 countries: two European, three Asiatic, and two Australasian. By now he's been in civilian practice for 10 years: he's as well established as the other doctor. But which of the two has got more out of life, and has the richer memories to look back upon?

In many ways, the transition from hospital into the R.A.F. seems more 'natural' than the movement to civilian practice. You go from one community to another—and they have much in common: both are young, cheerful, energetic, rather self-contained—and at the same time very professional, with a marked sense of purpose. If you can feel, now, that you are going to miss Medical School—think about the R.A.F. Service life would probably be 'right' for you.

The vulgar matter of £. s. d. . . .

Next year, if you were in the R.A.F. as a married officer aged 25, your pay and allowances would be over £2000 and your cost of living would be low. If you were single, living in the mess, you'd get the equivalent of first class hotel accommodation and service for only a few shillings a day out of your pay.

Leave the Service after 3 years, and you get a gratuity of £1,500, cash. Stay on for 5, and you get £3,000. With this, you could put down a deposit on a house and furnish it very well indeed, attic to cellar.

What a start to a civilian career!

The time for bold decisions is when you are young and free

Today, because you are at the beginning of your career, you can take a short time out from the main stream of civilian practice just by deciding to do it.

Now, you are free to go. In a few years time, you probably won't be.

You'll have a practice 'with your name on it'; children who want a permanent home to strike roots in; and so on. It will be time for you to settle down.

Meanwhile, at the parting of the ways, you have this chance. Now is the time to find out about it.

The best thing is to write off straight away. If you can't—tear this page out and put it in your pocket to remind you.

The address to write to is: Wing Commander D. G. M. Hills, O.B.E., M.B., B.S., D.P.H., R.A.F., Ministry of Defence (MAL/HNZ001), 1-6 Tavistock Square, London, W.C.1. Please give your age and qualifications.

ST. ANDREW'S HOSPITAL, NORTHAMPTON
FOR NERVOUS AND MENTAL DISORDERS

President: The Earl Spencer
Medical Superintendent:
D. J. O'Connell, M.D., D.P.M.

This private hospital receives patients, both male and female, suffering from nervous and mental disorders, including alcoholism and senile illnesses. The fees range from eighteen guineas per week. Private rooms with special nurses can be provided, either in the hospital or in one of the villas in the grounds. The hospital is situated in 130 acres of pleasant grounds which provide all recreational facilities. These include a nine-hole golf course, sports ground, tennis courts, etc. A Recreation and Occupation Centre, known as Gloucester House, has been opened recently which includes an occupational therapy department, a swimming pool, a squash court, and a library with an adjoining reading room.

WANTAGE HOUSE

This is a separate reception unit to which patients may be admitted. It is equipped for the complete investigation of nervous and mental disorders by the most modern methods. All forms of treatment are available.

MOULTON PARK

Some two miles from the main hospital is the farm of approximately 600 acres. Occupational therapy is the main feature of this branch. For terms and further particulars apply to the Medical Superintendent (Telephone No.: 34354 Northampton), who can be seen in London by appointment.

dual-acting
DORBANEX
Dorbanex: trade mark softens the stool
then gently evacuates
the constipated bowel

Pain caused by hard, dry stools can be a distressing aspect of constipation. Discomfort leads to retention and, in turn, overloading of the rectum. But if – as with Dorbanex – treatment is directed at softening the stool and stimulating colonic peristalsis, the cycle of pain-retention-accumulation is broken. Defaecation is comfortable; anxiety is allayed; and the bowel is helped back to normal function.

Because Dorbanex contains the laxative 1 : 8-dihydroxyanthraquinone plus a new faecal softening agent, poloxalkol, it both softens and mobilises the stool. This dual action avoids straining and is invaluable in patients with anal fissures or haemorrhoids, or in whom the muscles are weakened, for example in pregnancy.

Disadvantages of laxative treatment, such as unpredictability, griping, leakage, or interference with gastro-intestinal function do not arise with Dorbanex. Especially appreciated by patients old, young or pregnant are its advantages of small dosage (1 or 2 teaspoonsful at bedtime) and palatability.

Each teaspoonful (5 ml.) of Dorbanex contains 25 mg. 1 : 8-dihydroxyanthraquinone and 200 mg. poloxalkol. Bottles of 60 ml. (4/-) and 500 ml. (30/-). P.T. extra.
