Protracted illness, whether self-limiting or terminal, is frequently accompanied by anxiety and depression.

Patients so affected usually benefit from treatment aimed at allaying their emotional symptoms.

In cases of depression with or without associated anxiety, 'Tryptizol' has proved particularly valuable. The patient generally is calmer, mood is lifted, and sleep and appetite are improved.

How you can see the world and gain valuable medical experience

(before you settle into general practice)

Would you like to see the Far East, the Mediterranean, or the West Indies? Study the new sciences of aviation, underwater or nuclear medicine? Have complete clinical freedom, modern medical equipment and the opportunity to practise a very wide and varied field of medicine? Lead an active, exciting outdoor life against a world-wide backcloth? These are some of the opportunities open to you as a Medical Officer in today's modern and expanding Royal Navy. During a 5-year Short Service Commission you can gain valuable, practical medical experience, treating both Royal Navy personnel and civilian families.

And you'll see something of the world – before you settle into the routine of general practice. You will be well paid, with a starting salary higher than that of a civilian hospital registrar. You can study (with financial backing) for higher degrees. You could aim for consultant status. Marriage and other allowances can add considerably to your income. And, if you wish, you can apply for a Permanent Commission after 1 year's service.

3 Ways of Entry

1. As a fully registered doctor; civilian experience counts towards your seniority.
2. During your pre-registration year.

3. As a student any time after passing 2nd M.B. For fully registered women doctors there is a special Short Service Commission.

If you would like more information, write to the address below, giving details of your age and qualifications. A personal interview can be arranged if desired.

Raise the Bronchial Barrier by prescribing

Tetrex tetracycline phosphate complex

TETREX* is more fully and rapidly absorbed than other forms of tetracycline, giving high serum tetracycline levels without delay. Since sputum levels of tetracycline are generally only between 10 and 30 per cent of the serum concentration—limited by the 'Bronchial Barrier'—adequate absorption is vital if full inhibition of Haemophilus influenzae in the lungs is to be achieved. TETREX is most likely to ensure adequate serum levels even in the poor absorber.

Available as TETREX capsules of tetracycline phosphate complex equivalent to 250 mg. tetracycline.

In special-risk patients

Tetrex 'F'

tetracycline phosphate complex with nystatin will check the increased tendency to overgrowth of Candida albicans in certain patients by inclusion of the specific and potent anti-fungal antibiotic, nystatin in its capsule. Clinical experience has shown that the very young and the very old, diabetic, debilitated or geriatric patients, those taking steroids or high or prolonged tetracycline dosage together with patients having a history of Candida infection are particularly susceptible to candidiasis during tetracycline therapy; more recent experience emphasizes that when the tetracycline is TETREX 'F'* the risk of candidiasis is minimal.

Available as TETREX 'F' capsules of tetracycline phosphate complex equivalent to 250 mg. tetracycline with nystatin 250,000 units.

Protection against Allergy

for 1967 is available now

Alavac is the name for the Bencard range of adsorbed desensitising vaccines. Alavac provides a simple, effective and safe treatment for most common allergies. For many patients this treatment can be started now.

Simple A course of Alavac needs only 7-9 injections based on the clinical severity of symptoms. The three-vial Alavac treatment set includes sterile disposable syringes with attached needles, plus full instructions for administration.

Effective Over 80% of patients have been shown to respond well to the adsorbed type of desensitising vaccine. For these patients such therapy can bring long-lasting benefit and halt the deterioration that might otherwise occur with continued use of mere symptomatic treatment.

Safe Alavac is carefully formulated so that once injected, the allergens are released slowly ensuring a gradual and safe dispersal in the body. Consequently, effective doses are attainable in even the most sensitive patient.

How to prescribe Alavac

There are three varieties of Alavac:

Alavac-S is individually formulated to the patient's particular allergic condition, and can be prepared from any one or more of a wide selection of allergen extracts.* Specialists will appreciate that the allergens used correspond exactly with those available in Bencard testing solutions.

Alavac-P is a stock grass pollen vaccine for classical hay fever and pollen asthma. It is best administered pre-seasonally, starting in mid-March at the latest.

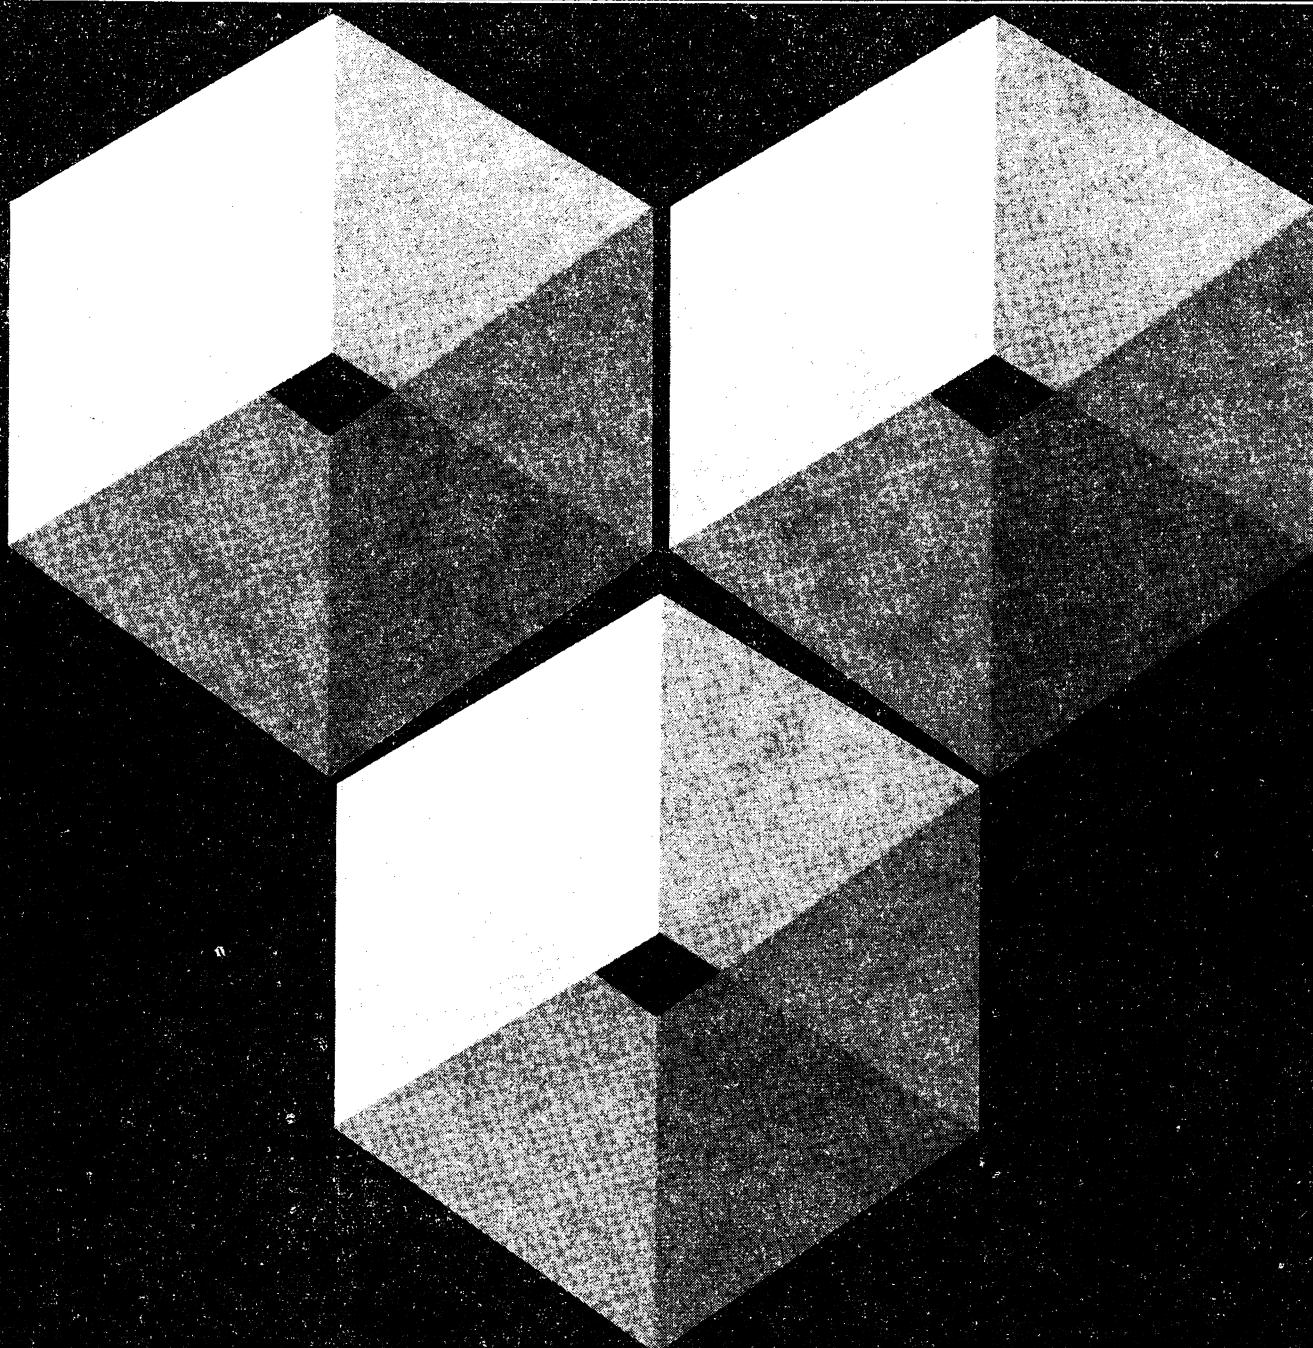

Alavac-D is a stock house dust vaccine for non-seasonal asthma and perennial rhinitis. It may be given at any time of the year but may have an added advantage if administered immediately to patients whose symptoms predominate during the winter months.

OINTMENT AND CREAM

Cidomycin is the new superior treatment for any bacterial skin infection. Cidomycin represents a logical progression from existing antibiotics which have a lesser degree of bactericidal activity and are responsible for the increasing incidence of the development of resistant strains.

Cidomycin is highly effective against both

The comprehensive range of Cidomycin activity will reduce the present dependence on the topical use of systemic antibiotics for the treatment of skin infections. Treatment with Cidomycin will be rapid, predictable and uncomplicated.

objective evidence proves that cyclospasmol[®] is also of value in the treatment of cerebrovascular disease

cyclandelate

Rheoencephalography

Since blood conducts electricity more readily than any other cranial tissue, electrical resistance in the skull is inversely related to blood volume within the skull. Twenty six patients aged between 65 and 95 suffering from a variety of cerebrovascular disorders were treated with 800 mg Cyclospasmol daily. Pre-treatment tracings of the 'pulse curve' were taken, together with tracings of the rate of change of pulse, and a tracing of the respiratory curve to allow for pulse changes due to the respiratory cycle. These three tracings were repeated 2 and 6 weeks after treatment. The post-treatment tracings showed a significant decrease in the maximal rate of the pulse rise, this demonstrating the occurrence of vasodilation. Cyclospasmol was shown objectively to increase the volume of blood in the cerebral area, and is therefore a drug of therapeutic value in the treatment of cerebrovascular disorders in elderly patients. No side-effects were observed.

Further details of this trial available on request.

widens the scope of topical steroid therapy

The evidence from extensive clinical trials—"that a better response is more likely with betamethasone 17-valerate than with any of the other corticosteroids tested"*—has been fully substantiated by the outstanding results obtained with Betnovate (betamethasone 17-valerate) in hospital and general practice. Firmly established as the topical steroid most likely to succeed in psoriasis and eczema, Betnovate has been used increasingly for many other conditions. It has proved to be uniquely effective in resistant diseases difficult to control with other topical steroids—and in relatively responsive conditions it gives a more rapid clearance. Thus a better response is now obtained throughout the whole range of steroid-responsive dermatoses. The majority of such skin disorders can be treated satisfactorily by simply applying a Betnovate preparation once or twice daily.

Vol. 2. General Aspects. First Part: Invertebrates and Origin of Vertebrates

Vol. 3-5 in preparation

The present general survey of the vertebrate nervous system, projected to comprise five volumes, of which the two first ones are now completed, follows closely the outline of the author's old "Vorlesungen über das Zentralnervensystem der Wirbeltiere" (1927), and intends to stress the cardinal principles of brain configuration as well as the general aspects of orderliness displayed in form and function of the neuraxis ("Die grossen Hauptlinien der Hirnarchitektur und die allgemeinen Gesetzmässigkeiten, welche in Bau und Funktion des Nervensystems erkannt werden können", 1927). Comparative anatomy of the vertebrate central nervous system requires a very broad and comprehensive background of biological data, evaluated by means of a rational, consistent, and appropriate procedure. Without the relevant unifying concepts, comparative neurology becomes no more than a trivial description of apparently unrelated miscellaneous varieties, loosely held together by a string of hazy "functional" notions. For this reason, the present attempt at an integrated overall presentation comprises, under the designation "Prosaedutics to Comparative Neurology", a somewhat detailed scrutiny of problems concerning the significance of configuration and configurational variety with respect to evolution and to correlated reasonably "natural" taxonomic classifications. In addition, since vertebrate comparative anatomy and vertebrate evolution, including the origin of vertebrates, cannot be properly assessed in default of an at least moderately adequate familiarity with the vast array of invertebrate organic forms, a general and elementary survey of invertebrate comparative neurology from the vertebrate neurobiologist's viewpoint has been included as volume two of this series.

A New Look at Medicine and Politics

J. Enoch Powell, M.B.E., M.A., M.P.

Since medicine has become inextricably involved with politics, and the organisation of medical services sometimes seems to have assumed more importance than the quality of those services, a new look at medicine and politics is badly needed. Few people can be better equipped to supply this new look than an ex-Minister of Health.

Since the N.H.S., the hospital doctor is a state employee and the general practitioner a contractor to the state. Such a change in the setting of medicine is fraught with profound consequences which are still only gradually being explored and understood. These consequences are widely misunderstood, by profession and public alike, as being accidental or transitory or easily remedied. The strains and stresses, the inadequacies and dissatisfactions, which the profession and the public experience, are implicit, he argues, in the nature of a free, comprehensive national health service itself.

It is organised in a logical and practical manner, with over 2,300 carefully selected X-rays showing the normal and pathologic states of the kidneys, ureters, bladder, adrenal glands, the prostate and the urethra. A good deal of the text refers specifically to the female patient and such topics as stress incontinence and the influence of gynaecologic diseases on the urinary tract.

rapidly clears unsightly lesions

Fucidin Ointment has an unusually high degree of effectiveness in the treatment of dermatological infections. Application of Fucidin Ointment has resulted, in the great majority of cases, in a notably rapid control of infection and a marked improvement in the rate of healing. The unique penetration of Fucidin Ointment can eliminate the need for incision and/or systemic antibiotics, even in treating deep-seated abscesses and paronychias. Fucidin Ointment alone can thus be expected to provide complete treatment in the majority of skin infections.

Triominic

Oral Nasal Decongestant WANDER

'Triominic' timed-release tablets and orange-flavoured syrup contain antihistamines and a decongestant in balanced proportions to ensure relief from nasal congestion for between 6 and 8 hours. The active constituents of 'Triominic'—the original oral decongestant—reach the nasal mucosa systemically. This obviates the rebound congestion which may follow the topical use of decongestants.

Anaphylline

(THEOPHYLLINE-NIACINAMIDE)

a new theophylline complex for more effective maintenance therapy in mild to moderate cases of

BRONCHITIS-ASTHMA-EMPHYSEMA

Clinical evidence confirms that this new theophylline-niacinamide complex achieves rapid therapeutic blood levels for faster dilation of the bronchioles and substantial improvement in vital capacity in most cases of chronic bronchitis, asthma and emphysema.

Significant Treatment Advantages:

The unique Anaphylline complex is a loose bonding of theophylline and niacinamide which affords a soluble theophylline through all pH ranges. No more ionization of theophylline salts with precipitation of the theophylline in the acid of the stomach. Now direct immediate absorption of the theophylline complex for faster, higher and longer blood levels.

* MORE RAPID ABSORPTION FOR QUICKER PATIENT RESPONSE

Evidence from clinical trials indicates that Anaphylline achieves therapeutic blood levels faster than theophylline salts and within 15 minutes of oral administration.

* MORE PROLONGED BLOOD LEVELS FOR SUSTAINED RELIEF

Rapid, initial blood levels achieved are followed by a steady, sustained rise reaching peak achievement at 60 minutes, with gradual, but uniform decline thereafter.

* SUPERIOR PATIENT TOLERANCE

Achievement of these blood levels is not accompanied by any increase in the side-effects normally associated with theophylline treatment.

INDICATIONS

For use as a bronchodilator to control the symptoms of chronic bronchitis, chronic asthma, emphysema and other pulmonary disorders.

DOSAGE:

Adults 1 to 2 tablets to be taken 3 or 4 times daily, preferably after meals. (Children 6-12 yrs., half to 1 tablet.)

FORMULA

Theophylline-Niacinamide complex containing 100 mg. theophylline and 160 mg. niacinamide in single tablet form.

PAYNOCIL is strongly analgesic, anti-pyretic and anti-rheumatic in both short and long term treatment.

Paynocil is double-strength aspirin—10 grains per tablet—in a lemon-flavoured glycine base.

The glycine disperses the tablet instantly on the tongue, and distributes the aspirin rapidly into the stomach in minutely fine particles—minimising the risk of gastric irritation.

Paynocil tablets are sealed in protective metal foil.

JUNIOR PAYNOCIL for children, a quarter-strength tablet of the same formula, is available in similar foil strips.

PAYNOCIL^{REGD.} THE MOST EXPEDIENT ASPIRIN THERAPY FOR PAIN, FEBRILE AND RHEUMATIC CONDITIONS

This is beta-haemolytic streptococcal infection 12 hours after experimental induction in mice. At this point half the mice were treated with Gantanol; the others remained untreated.

At 20 hours the untreated mice have fulminating streptococcal infection and by 24 hours all the untreated mice are dead.

GANTANOL* WORKS IN TONSILLITIS AND OTHER UPPER RESPIRATORY TRACT INFECTIONS BECAUSE IT ERADICATES STREPTOCOCCI

This therapeutic experiment provides important in vivo proof of the high antibacterial activity of Gantanol.

All the Gantanol treated mice survive: normal phagocytosis deals with the remaining bacteria.

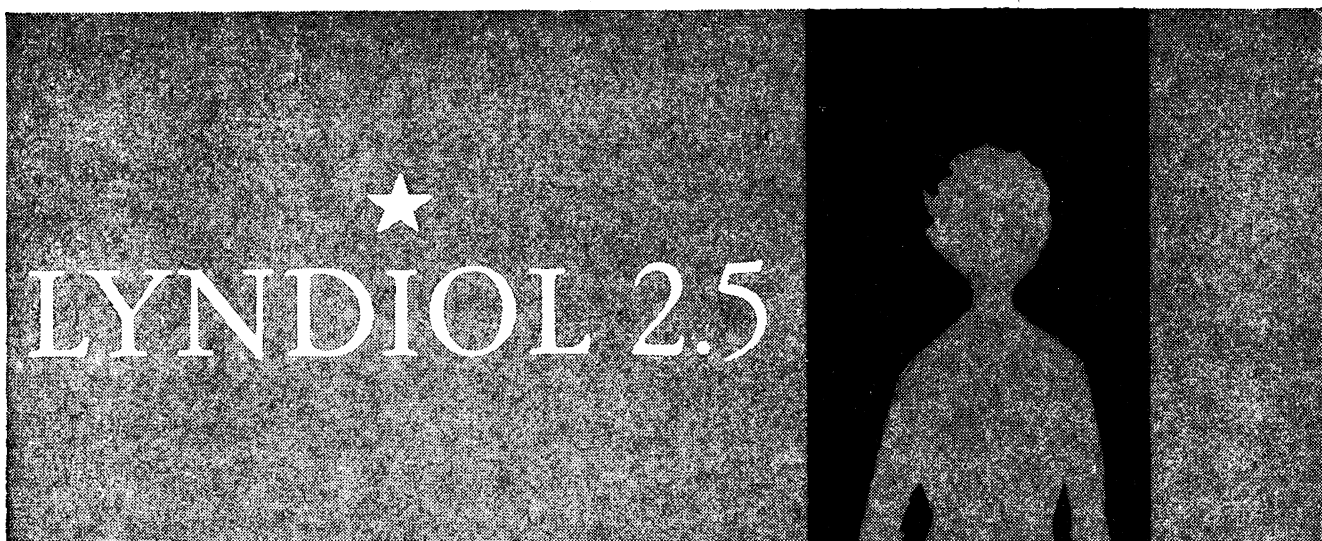

These photomicrographs are from mesenteric smears taken at specified intervals after intraperitoneal inoculation of mice with beta-haemolytic streptococcus.

An original drawing, reproduced here by the kind permission of the British Museum, [Natural History] Dept. of Botany.

Fancy

Juniper [Juniperus Communis] is mainly known nowadays as an essential ingredient of gin, but in ancient France they used juniper berry tea to cure psoriasis, ringworm and prurigo.

Fact

Fenostil proves effective seven times out of ten in pruritic disorders. Side effects are seldom encountered and are readily controlled by reduction of dosage. Fenostil is a non-phenothiazine distinct in its chemistry in that it belongs to the 'indene' group.

SPARE YOUR PATIENT WASTED DAYS OF PAIN

Fibrositis and myalgia... sprains and strains... lumbago... sciatica... displaced intervertebral disc... in these and many other painful muscular conditions Norgesic gives the patient a better chance of early pain relief than simple analgesics, and quickly gets him on the move again. Norgesic contains not only an analgesic—paracetamol—but orphenadrine citrate, a highly effective agent to relieve painful muscle spasm.

Because muscle tension and stiffness so often contribute to pain¹, this formulation can give relief extending beyond the scope of simple analgesics. Furthermore, the patient contributes to his own recovery through his ability to move freely again^{1,2}.

By relieving local pain and easing stiff and painful muscles, Norgesic gives rapid and reliable relief, restores mobility and cuts short the time the patient is out of action.

confidence

Ovulen 1 mg. is virtually 100 per cent effective. The Ovulen three week dosage scheme is simple to explain, simple to follow—still further reduces the risk of pregnancy through incorrect tablet taking.

Ovulen is highly acceptable. Its low dosage is associated with a minimal incidence of side effects. "It is believed that Ovulen is the most satisfactory oral contraceptive that has been produced. It has few side effects since it causes rapid secretory regression of the endometrium."*

Because of these advantages, your patients will be confident in your choice of Ovulen. You, in turn recognise the unparalleled research carried out by Searle, the makers of Ovulen. Searle oral contraceptives are used by millions of women throughout the world.

WOMEN AT RISK

'In recent years there has been an increasing awareness of the prevalence of urinary-tract infections in young women and children.'

Practitioner (1966), 196, 800

—and the insidious nature of urinary tract infection is well known. Inadequately treated with simple symptomatic remedies, apparently mild attacks of cystitis or pyelitis in childhood or early adult life may smoulder subclinically for many years—before reappearing as chronic and intractable pyelonephritis. Eradication of the infecting organisms is therefore essential in the treatment of every urinary tract infection, however mild.

And now Exolan Cream in response to the needs of the ambulant patient in the treatment of psoriasis

New Exolan Cream has been prepared in a cosmetically acceptable vanishing cream base, and is ideal for the treatment of psoriasis of the scalp. In general cases of psoriasis it may also be prescribed for the ambulant patient who prefers to use a cream formulation.

In the treatment of psoriasis, triacetoxanthracene has been shown to exhibit the healing properties of dithranol while displaying none of the side effects of burning or staining the skin. It therefore may be used by the patient in his own home without fear that any harm will result if it accidentally comes into contact with normal skin.

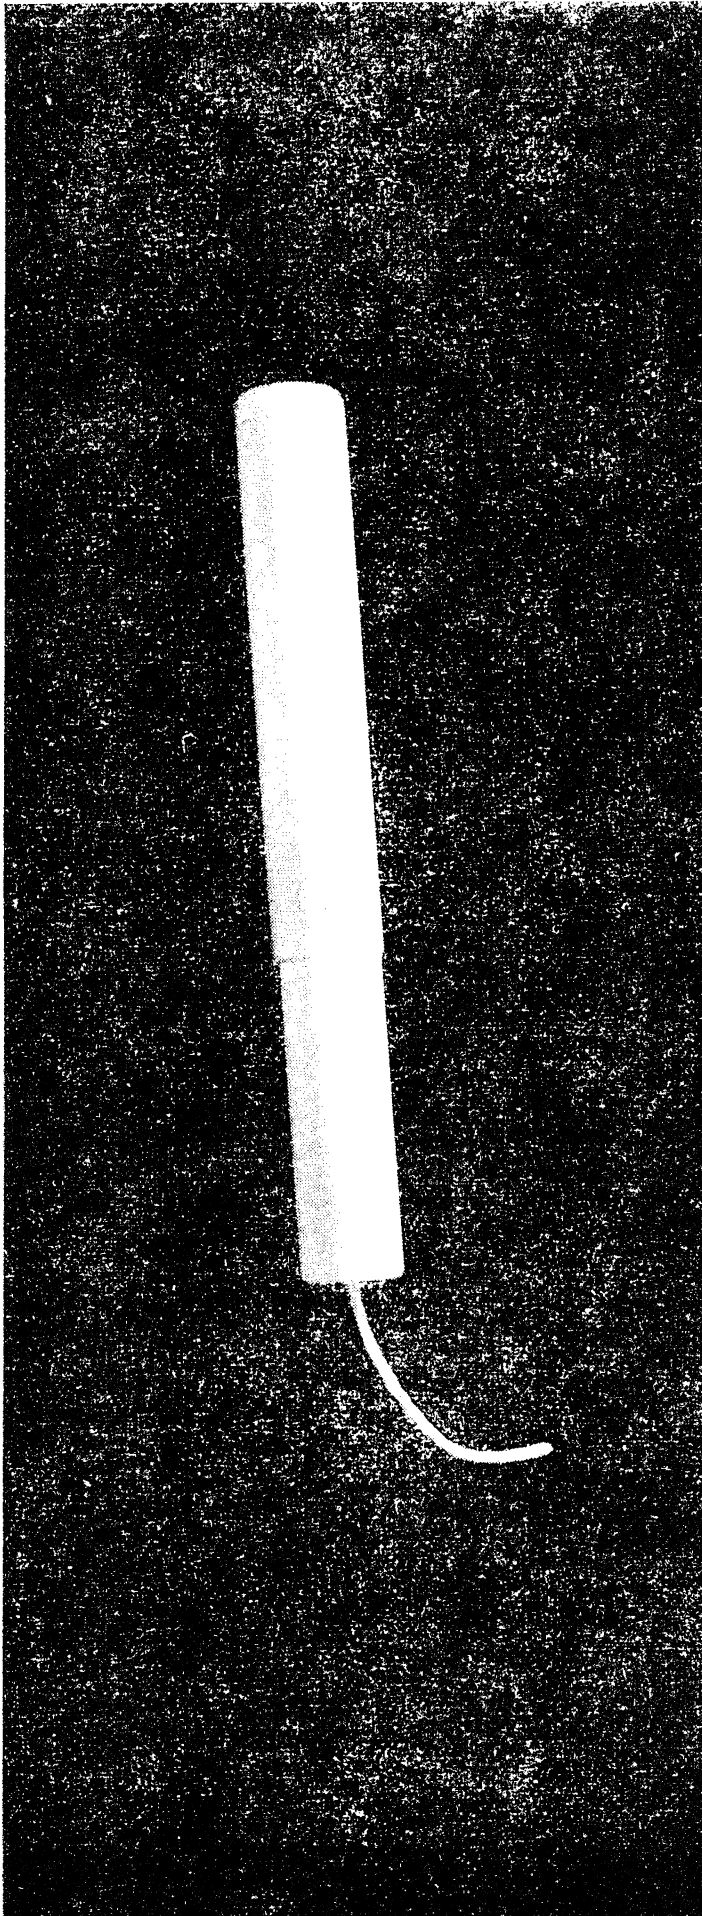

After examining various formulations of tri-acetoxanthracene the most clinically effective was found to be the one which corresponds to EXOLAN PASTE. This preparation is similar in constitution to the dithranol/Lassars Paste combination which has been recommended by Consultant Dermatologists for many years.

Unfortunately some patients do not like applying pastes, especially during the day time. Also their use is precluded on the scalp and other hairy regions of the body. EXOLAN CREAM has therefore been formulated for use in these cases and contains 1% triacetoxanthracene in a vanishing cream base.

Ease of insertion is most important in vaginal tamponage

Ease of insertion—so important for the successful employment of internal menstrual protection—has been achieved by Tampax with its individual, hygienic container-applicator. This useful device facilitates correct and easy placement of the Tampax tampon well into the vagina without the necessity of contact with hands or fingers.

If your patients are like the thousands of women who are turning to Tampax every year, they will quickly discover its many other advantages. Tampax affords complete freedom from the bother of belts, pins, and pads . . . eliminates chafing and irritation . . . abolishes conspicuous bulges . . . minimises offensive odours . . . permits eliminative functions without removal . . . renders bathing possible, even swimming . . . and promotes normal external daintiness. The user is practically unaware of its presence.

It's also important that, with Tampax, a woman feels clean and tidy. In fact, the psychological and emotional advantages of the Tampax method are significant. Its use has served to improve the attitude of many women and girls toward the whole complex of menstruation. Perhaps your patients might benefit similarly.

Tampax is available in Regular and Super absorbencies to meet varying needs during the menstrual period.

It visually demonstrates to the patient whether or not his diaphragmatic breathing technique is correct.

It strengthens abdominal muscles through exercise—thereby making the practice of diaphragmatic breathing more instinctive.

Expiratory ventilation of lungs is improved by the recoil-type thrust of the springs during exhalation.

The Gordon-Barach Support is an adjunct to diaphragmatic breathing. Special steel springs incorporated into the abdominal pad are compressed during inhalation when abdominal muscles are properly used. Increased tension of these compressed springs aids expiratory ventilation.

Surgery—contd. on p. lvi

Before you commit yourself to a practice, work 3 or 5 years in the R.A.F.

You'll do some interesting, out-of-the-rut medicine, see a bit of the world, live well, and 'retire' with up to £3,000, tax free.

Your first job in the R.A.F. would probably be junior M.O. at a Station: rather like being an 'Assistant with a view'. In a typical case you could be one of two doctors with, between you, 1500 to 2500 people to take care of, and your own 'cottage hospital' with wards, theatre and laboratory, and secretarial as well as nursing staff.

You'd have a shorter list than a civilian G.P., and to this extent you would live a less strenuous life. To compensate, you would give much more comprehensive care. It is this—and the variety of your work—that makes practice in the R.A.F. so interesting.

In the R.A.F. you combine several functions. You are in medical care not only of people, but of the environment they live in, and of the work they do. In proportion you do less curative work and more preventive work than is even possible for most civilian doctors.

A lot of people hold the view that this is the way all medicine should be practised—with the closest possible integration of the doctor and the community.

This is the choice you face

Think of two doctors, both aged 40. One went to his practice straight from his teaching hospital, and has been there ever since. The other went into the R.A.F. on a 5-year commission. He lived —and lived well—in the tropics with his family for 2½ years and, on leave or on duty, visited 7 countries: two European, three Asiatic, and two Australasian. By now he's been in civilian practice for 10 years; he's as well established as the other doctor. But which of the two has got more out of life, and has the richer memories to look back upon?

In many ways, the transition from hospital into the R.A.F. seems more 'natural' than the movement to civilian practice. You go from one community to another—and they have much in common: both are young, cheerful, energetic, rather self-contained—and at the same time very professional, with a marked sense of purpose. If you can feel, now, that you are going to miss Medical School—think about the R.A.F. Service life would probably be 'right' for you.

The time for bold decisions is when you are young and free

Today, because you are at the beginning of your career, you can take a short time out from the main stream of civilian practice just by deciding to do it.

Now, you are free to go. In a few years time, you probably won't be.

You'll have a practice 'with your name on it'; children who want a permanent home to strike root in; and soon. It will be time for you to settle down.

Meanwhile, at the parting of the ways, you have this chance. Now is the time to find out about it.

The address to write to is: Wing Commander D. G. M. Hills, O.B.E., M.B., B.S., D.P.H., R.A.F., Ministry of Defence M.A.I./724EE13, 1-6 Tavistock Square, London, W.C.1. Please give your age and qualifications.

Medical cadetships. Commissions as a cadet are available to students who have passed second M.B. (or equivalent). Initially your basic pay would be £630 p.a. Appropriate R.A.F. allowances, examination and tuition fees are paid in addition. You would continue to live and work as a medical student and when fully registered you would start work in the R.A.F. as a doctor in the rank of Flight Lieutenant on a five year short service commission. Further information may be obtained from the above address.

Ultralanum provides three important benefits for you and your patient

1. MORE EFFECTIVE

Ultralanum has been shown to produce therapeutic results superior to those achieved with other widely used topical corticoid preparations.¹

would be my choice in routine penicillin therapy

BECAUSE of its Excellent Clinical Results

There are 380 published references to Broxil in world literature. These confirm its success in infections such as tonsillitis, pharyngitis, otitis media, boils and carbuncles, which in an overwhelming proportion of cases are caused by Gram-positive organisms (staphylococci, streptococci and pneumococci).

BECAUSE of its Specific Activity

Broxil is highly bactericidal to the majority of these organisms, destroying them without disrupting the normal intestinal flora.

BECAUSE of its High Blood Levels

Broxil gives blood levels double those achieved by penicillin V and at least as high as intramuscular injections of penicillin G.

BECAUSE, in its syrup form, it is particularly suitable for children.

Broxil is readily accepted and tolerated by children, and side effects are minimal.
