

Betnovate is better. So is he.

Eczema patients respond better to Betnovate than to other topical steroids. Two clinical trials, involving 916 patients and comparing Betnovate with five other leading topical steroids, proved this conclusively.

Their findings included:

"... whenever preferences were expressed, there were always more for betamethasone 17-valerate than for the other corticosteroids."¹

"Betamethasone 17-valerate was statistically superior to the other topical corticosteroids in fourteen of the twenty separate subdivisions of the trial; in no instance was it inferior."¹

"A better response is more likely with betamethasone 17-valerate than with any of the other corticosteroids tested."¹

"... response in psoriasis is a more stringent test of the efficacy of a corticosteroid than response in eczema. The superiority of betamethasone 17-valerate in this context is noteworthy."²

When you add the broad-spectrum antibiotic neomycin to the most effective steroid you can prescribe, the result is Betnovate-N. In infected eczema it gives rapid relief from itching and inflammation and thus achieves the best response. The one thing to remember is Betnovate. Add an N to fight the infection.

In severe pain . . .

DF 118 subdues the pain but not the patient

- DF118 is as effective orally as it is by injection.
- In spite of its power to relieve severe pain, DF118 has no sedative or hypnotic effects. The patient remains alert, and able to cope with everyday life.
- In the recommended dosage, DF118 causes little or no respiratory depression.
- DF118 has shown, in its twelve years' clinical use, a very low addiction potential.
- DF118 is economical. The basic NHS cost of 25 tablets (dispensed from containers of 500) is 3/7d (18p).
- Particular indications include:
SCIATICA, OSTEOARTHRITIS, CHRONIC RHEUMATOID ARTHRITIS, ARTHRITIS OF THE SPINE, PERIPHERAL VASCULAR DISEASE, POST-HERPETIC NEURALGIA, PAGET'S DISEASE, MALIGNANT DISEASE.

FOLEX 350

CONTAINING FOLIC ACID 350 MICROGRAMS WITH FERROUS FUMARATE 308 MILLIGRAMS IN EACH TABLET

The question of the optimum dose of folic acid has not been easy to establish but recent work* suggests that not less than 300 mcg. and not more than 400 mcg. daily can be considered adequate. In the light of this knowledge Folex-350 containing 350 mcg. of folic acid and 308 mg. of ferrous fumarate (equivalent to 100 mg. elemental iron) has been introduced.

How many of the drugs you prescribe are as well documented as Alka-Seltzer?

TRADE MARK

In the booklet 'A Scientific Assessment of Alka-Seltzer' no less than forty-three sources of reference are quoted – and that represents only part of the documentation available on the product. Based on these references the facts about Alka-Seltzer are presented in explicit detail:

Physico-chemical studies – on pH, solubility, ionisation and fat-solubility, antacid and buffering action in vitro.

Pharmacological studies – on antacid and buffering action in vivo, effect on gastric emptying, absorption, salicylate blood levels, excretion.

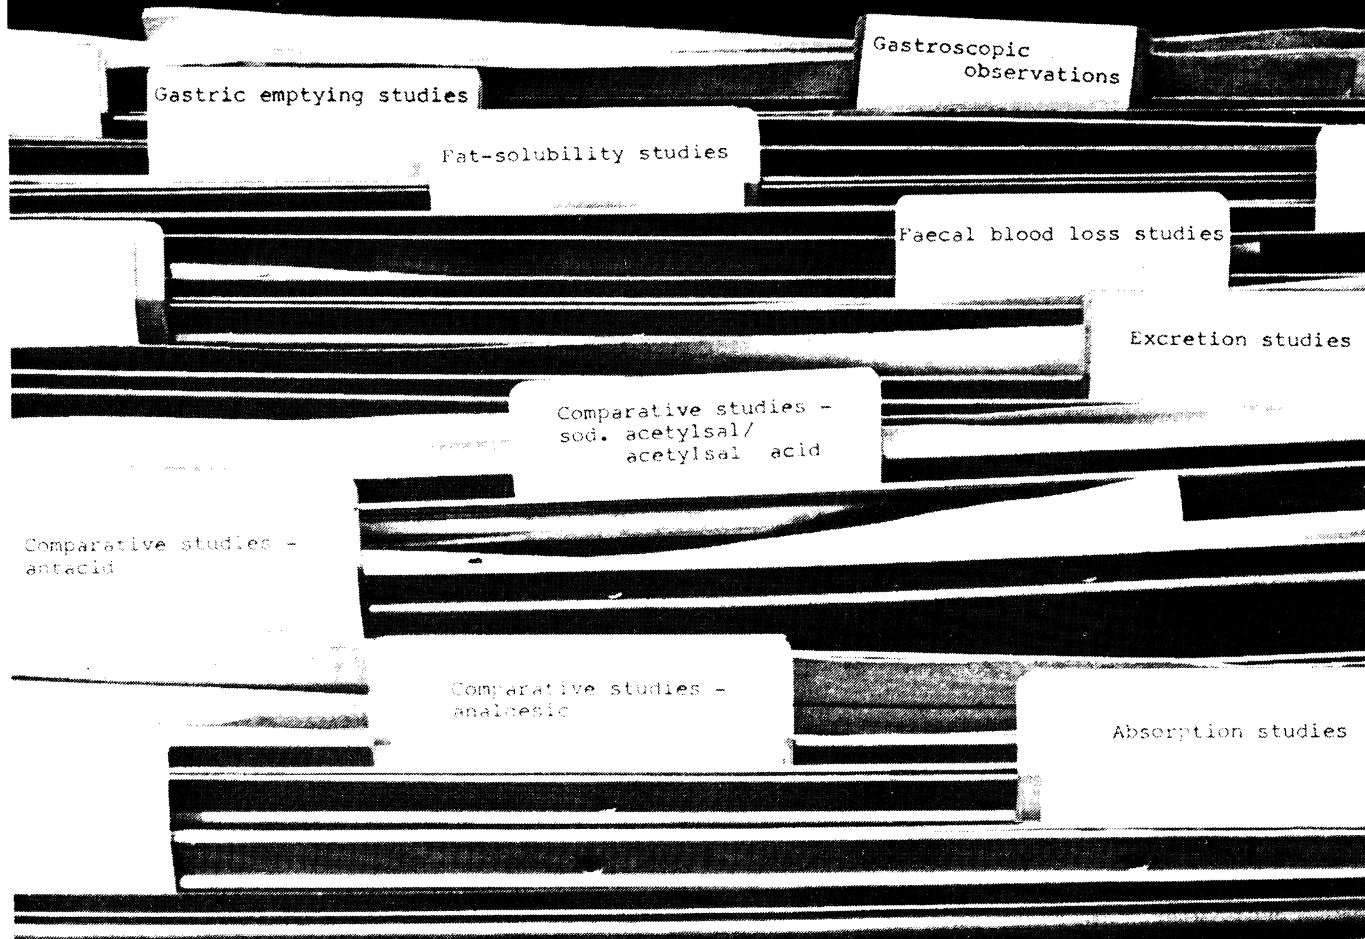

Therapeutic studies – on its antacid and analgesic properties.

Safety studies – on the difference between sodium acetylsalicylate and acetylsalicylic acid, gastroscopic observations, faecal blood loss, and special studies related to alcohol ingestion.

The total picture that emerges is that of a safe and effective home remedy which is as well documented as many ethical prescription items.

For every doctor who is concerned about the subject of self-medication 'A Scientific Assessment of Alka-Seltzer' makes instructive reading. Copies available from: Dept G 1, Miles Laboratories Limited, Stoke Court, Stoke Poges, Bucks.

ANTIBIOTICS AND THE INTESTINAL FLORA

Treatment with broad spectrum antibiotics suppresses the normal flora, which may be replaced by abnormal resistant organisms causing diarrhoea.

This change can be prevented or reversed by the implantation of Lactobacillus acidophilus which has been rendered antibiotic-resistant, and is thus able to multiply freely under these abnormal conditions. The products of growth of the organism are inimical to that of many other bacteria^{1,2} and thus contribute to its rapid preponderance over other species.

Oral treatment with antibiotic-resistant L. acidophilus in the form of ENPAC has been shown to eliminate Candida from the faeces of infants with antibiotic-induced diarrhoea, with relief of symptoms succeeded by rapid gain in weight^{3,4} and greatly to reduce the numbers of staphylococci in the faeces of patients treated with tetracyclines.⁵

BASIC HUMAN PHYSIOLOGY

Normal Function and Mechanism of Disease

This intermediate physiology text is a somewhat abbreviated version of Dr. Guyton's TEXTBOOK OF MEDICAL PHYSIOLOGY, the most widely used and influential textbook of physiology in the English language. Dr. Guyton has retained about 90% of the important physiological information found in his Medical Physiology. Some explanatory notes have been removed. This book is approximately half the length of its parent work and contains about two-thirds of the illustrations.

A MANUAL OF DERMATOLOGY

With 263 illustrations in colour and 100 in black and white, this volume is designed to span the common dermatologic problems encountered by the practitioner. In the sections on diagnosis, principal emphasis has been placed on colour illustrations depicting the significant phases of those diseases most often responsible for disability. This book, therefore, is tailored to meet the needs of non-dermatologic physicians, nurses, or para-medical persons.

CLINICAL UROGRAPHY

New Third Edition

The Third Edition of this internationally recognised work will need very little introduction to the majority of urologists. For this new edition, Dr. Emmett has been joined by Dr. Witten (as co-author) and by 24 contributors. The structure of the book is basically unchanged from the previous edition but is a little longer because of the continuing development and refinement of procedures in the diagnosis of urinary tract disorders.

By John L. Emmett, formerly Senior Consultant, Section of Urology; and David M. Witten, Consultant, Section of Roentgenology, both of the Mayo Clinic.

CURRENT THERAPY — 1971

Changes in the 23rd edition of this classic text started with the change in the list of contributors. This year 264 out of the 331 contributors are new, bringing with them the most up-to-date information on the management of a wide spectrum of medical problems. Under Dr. Conn's direction the book has been 80% rewritten to incorporate advances in therapy made in the past year.

BRUFEN

makes life easier for the arthritic

In the treatment of arthritis, Brufen relieves pain, stiffness and swelling. By extending the range of pain-free movement, Brufen provides the improved joint flexion essential for progressive improvement in functional capacity.

Because Brufen is so well tolerated, dosage can be adjusted in the individual patient to achieve the best response. There is little likelihood of having to reduce dosage or withdraw treatment because of side-effects.

These are the facts about Brufen – it is highly effective, dosage is simple and flexible and it has a singularly low incidence of side-effects. These are the very real benefits for your arthritic patients when you prescribe Brufen. Brufen is available as tablets, each containing 200 mg of ibuprofen. Full information is available from more bronchodilation for less cardiac stimulation

In clinical trials, Numotac not only outperformed other bronchodilator tablets – choline theophyllinate and orciprenaline^{1,2} – but even matched an orciprenaline aerosol in all but onset of relief².

This unusual degree of relief was obtained without significant effect on heart rate or blood pressure^{1,2} – the result of selective action on β_2 -receptors which gives more bronchodilation for less cardiac stimulation.

1. British Journal of Diseases of the Chest, in press.

2. Bulletin de Physio-pathologie Respiratoire (1970) 6: 351

Composition

Each tablet contains isoetharine hydrochloride 10 mg. in a porous plastic matrix.

Indications

For relief of bronchospasm in chronic bronchitis, bronchial asthma and pulmonary emphysema.

Dosage

Adults: one or two tablets three or four times daily. For patients who have not previously been prescribed oral bronchodilator therapy or who are known to be sensitive to the action of sympathomimetic amines, treatment should be started on the lower dosage (three or four tablets daily). Dosage may then be adjusted upwards, if necessary, to achieve optimum response. Clinical and pharmacological studies have shown that Numotac acts for between four and six hours. In susceptible patients, administration at shorter intervals may give rise to side-effects. When this occurs dosage should be adjusted accordingly. Children: the 10 mg. tablet should not be broken, and this dose is not recommended for children aged 12 years or under.

Side-effects

Side-effects are unlikely to occur within the recommended dose range of Numotac. With higher doses, or in persons sensitive to sympathomimetic amines, tachycardia, palpitations, tremor or vertigo may occur.

Caution

Numotac should be used with caution in the presence of cardiac disease or hypertension.

Contra-indications

The use of Numotac is contra-indicated in thyrotoxicosis.

Numotac is a Registered Trade Mark.

If the patient who has started on new therapy is to co-operate fully, maintain his composure and increase his confidence, early effective control of blood pressure must also be accompanied by the lowest possible risk of distressing side-effects. Because ESBATAL* meets these criteria it is of special value for the new hypertensive patient and also for those patients who are uncomfortable or uncontrolled on other therapy. Individual dosage is rapidly and reliably achieved, and dose response is soon predictable in a particular patient. The major dermatological disorders were lichen simplex chronicus, atopic dermatitis, eczema and psoriasis. Valium Roche was administered in conjunction with a standard topical treatment. Ninety per cent of the patients had good results.

It was noted that as the patients became less tense and agitated there was a marked decrease in itching and scratching.

As Manufacturers of one of the finest ranges of Surgical Dressings and kindred products in the country—including the famous Paddi Pads, Mene and Nikini feminine hygiene products—Robinsons of Chesterfield have a continuous commitment to product development and improvement.

This policy is reflected in the consistently high quality of their products—and in their growth over many years in a town at the heart of Britain's richest industrial areas.

For these reasons, Robinsons of Chesterfield have decided to adopt a corporate image for all their activities—and appropriately enough, it's Chesterfield's famous Crooked Spire. A few hard facts about ear wax solvents

In the literature regarding the efficacy of ear wax solvents conclusions have been drawn based wholly on in vitro studies but their validity in clinical practice has been questioned.

A recently published report of in vitro studies of ear wax solvents with a controlled clinical trial—probably the first carefully designed and controlled work on the subject—compared the efficacy of six widely used solvents and again confirmed the importance of in vivo studies.

Cerumol was found to be the only product significantly more effective than the control.

We are pleased to show our three awards

Although it doesn't show in the picture, the Queen's Award gained by the Wellcome Foundation in 1971 was in fact a double award. It was given for export achievement and for technological innovation.

So with the Queen's Award gained for exports in 1970, the Wellcome Foundation now have a total of three such honours.

Only four companies gained double awards in 1971 and the Wellcome Foundation was the only pharmaceutical organisation amongst them.

The technological innovation—of which we are justly proud—was the discovery and development of trimethoprim. It has led to the formulation of a new antibacterial compound which is now established as a highly effective chemotherapeutic treatment of bacterial infections.

Deputy Medical Director

(Pharmaceuticals)

Lederle Laboratories Ltd, the Medical Products Division of Cyanamid of Great Britain Ltd, is completing a reorganisation of its professional medical team and wishes to appoint a Deputy Medical Director. The appointment is concerned with the provision of medical advice and information in respect of existing and new development products in the field of pharmaceuticals and surgical sutures. The emphasis is on the planning, organisation and co-ordination of clinical trials and activity.

Candidates must be physicians with the maturity and general experience necessary to work closely with management and marketing services.

The appointment will appeal to candidates who already have experience in the industry, but suitable candidates without such experience can depend on the Company to provide it.

An attractive salary will be offered to the right man and a Company car is provided. Location is initially in London but the Company is moving to new offices on the Hampshire coast in a year's time. Generous assistance with relocation expenses will be provided.

Please write, (in confidence) giving details of age, qualifications, background and present salary to the Company Personnel Manager, or telephone the Medical Director for an informal discussion, Cyanamid of Great Britain Ltd., Bush House, Aldwych, London, WC2B 4PU. Tel: 01-836 5411.

INDUSTRIAL MEDICAL OFFICER (Part time)

Michelin seeks the services of a medical officer for its new factory now under construction in Dundee. This initial appointment will be on a part time basis, with a commitment of from 16 to 24 hours per week. Applicants should ideally have had some experience of occupational medicine. The age range of 30-45 is preferred.

The doctor engaged for this part time post will later be eligible to apply, if he so wishes, for any full time appointment which may be advertised when the need for full medical cover is established.

Precise details of the appointment and conditions of employment will be discussed and agreed on an individual basis. Remuneration will be in accordance with the appropriate BMA scales.

Interviews will be arranged in Dundee, but initial application should be made in writing to quoting REF. S.17/BMJ.

ANGLO CHARTER
INTERNATIONAL

COMPANY MEDICAL OFFICERS

The challenge (and the reward)

In Zambia, the world's third largest copper producer, Nchanga Consolidated Mines Limited operate three developed and three developing mines, responsible for 60% of the nation's output. The engineering complexes on the Copperbelt are among the most modern in the world.

The company is responsible for providing full medical care to its employees and their families. Nchanga has three divisions, in Kitwe, Chingola and Chililabombwe respectively. Its employees number 27,000, with their dependents the total number to be looked after exceeds 150,000. Zambia is one of the most prosperous and rapidly developing of the new countries, but it still has to turn to the older countries for its medical staff (mostly to U.K.) and there is still a lot to be done medically for its people, especially the children.

Where YOU fit in. N.C.C.M. Ltd. employs a staff of over 30 doctors and specialists, and approximately 140 fully qualified nurses. There are 5 well-equipped hospitals.

General Duty Medical Officers will be involved in preventive and curative medicine, surgery, anaesthetics, gynaecology/obstetrics, public health and nutrition; and although the mines have a strict safety code, an amount of accident work can be expected.

Contracts may be negotiated for periods of one to four years. Locums can also often be arranged.

There will be time to enjoy the almost unique facilities for recreation and social activity in an interesting African country.

Salaries depend on experience but the minimum is K7,600 (£4,400 +) per annum. In addition there is a settling-in allowance: a detached, furnished house with garden is provided for 30/- per week: and children receiving secondary education overseas are granted up to £500 per child per year towards school fees and two free return passages to visit their parents during holidays.

Trends in Clinical Pathology

Essays in Honour of Gordon Signy

This book is no pious collection of personal tributes but a survey of the old and the new disciplines in clinical pathology since the second world war — research in atherosclerosis and ischaemic heart disease, progress in medical virology, microbiology and cytology, the impact of antibiotics on medical bacteriology, chemical pathology and also molecular defence, haematology in mid-century, including haemostasis and blood transfusion. The place of fibrin in the story of hyalin is another modern study, so also is that on automation. The outlook on some members of the family Enterobacteriaceae is changing, and the 'old' forensic medicine is indeed new. And those pathologists working in the under-developed countries are not forgotten. The contributors are internationally renowned.

ONLY A FEW HOURS AWAY CANADA

with years of growth ahead

Since 1867, when Canada was founded, enterprising and resourceful people from many lands have built this big, young country into one of the world's fastest developing industrial nations.

With a modern technological economy, sharing in the continuing economic development of North America, Canada already has one of the highest standards of living in the world. Yet Canada has its own distinctive way of life.

Rich in resources, largest country in the Commonwealth, second largest in the world, Canada has years of even greater growth ahead. And, of course, Canada is only a few hours away by air — six days by sea.

If you would like information about working and living conditions in big, young, growing Canada, please post the coupon below.

Specialists in

Anaesthesia & Paediatrics

NEW GUINEA

Anaesthetist

To provide all anaesthetic services within his hospital and advise on services within his region. He will have an opportunity to involve himself in respiratory work, emergency resuscitation services and the supervision and training of medical staff.

Applicants must be graduates in medicine from an approved university and eligible for registration under the Papua and New Guinea Medical Services Ordinance. A diploma of anaesthetics or fellowship of the faculty of anaesthetics of the Royal College of Surgeons and considerable experience in modern techniques, including anaesthetics for chest surgery are essential.

Posting will be to one of the regional hospitals at Port Moresby, Lae, Rabaul or Goroka where there are air-conditioned theatre suites, each with two operating rooms and equipped with modern anaesthetic machines and an adequate range of accessories. In each hospital there is at least one specialist surgeon and a specialist obstetrician and gynaecologist, with registrar and resident staff.

Paediatrician

To diagnose and treat children's diseases at one of the major hospitals; act as adviser on the standardisation of the treatment of these diseases and make regular tours to departmental and mission field hospitals to inspect and report on the standard of treatment within the region. He will also assist in the clinical training of nurses, prepare periodicals, ad hoc reports and articles for publication. Applicants must be registered medical practitioners who have graduated in medicine and surgery from a recognised university, or have equivalent qualifications acceptable to the Papua and New Guinea Medical Board. They must also be members of an approved college of physicians; hold a diploma of child health or equivalent and have postgraduate experience in children's diseases.

Conditions of Service

- Remuneration will be within the ranges $A11,111 — $A13,801 p.a. single male; $A11,471 — $A14,161 p.a. married male and $A10,683 — $A13,373 p.a. single female (1$A=46½p stg).
- Income tax in Papua and New Guinea is currently about half that payable in Australia and considerably less than that payable in the U.K.
- 3 months' leave after each 21 months' service
- Generous allowances for children and leave fares
- Furnished accommodation provided at low rental
- Contract engagement with voluntary retirement benefit scheme
- First class return fares paid for the appointee and family
