does that little bit more

In addition to its anti-nauseant action, 'Stemetil' exerts a mild tranquillizing effect which helps the patient cope with both physical and mental discomfort. In fact, 'Stemetil' frequently makes patients feel not just better, but better than they've felt for some time. Moreover, because it combines two effects in the one prescription item, 'Stemetil' makes economic, as well as therapeutic sense.

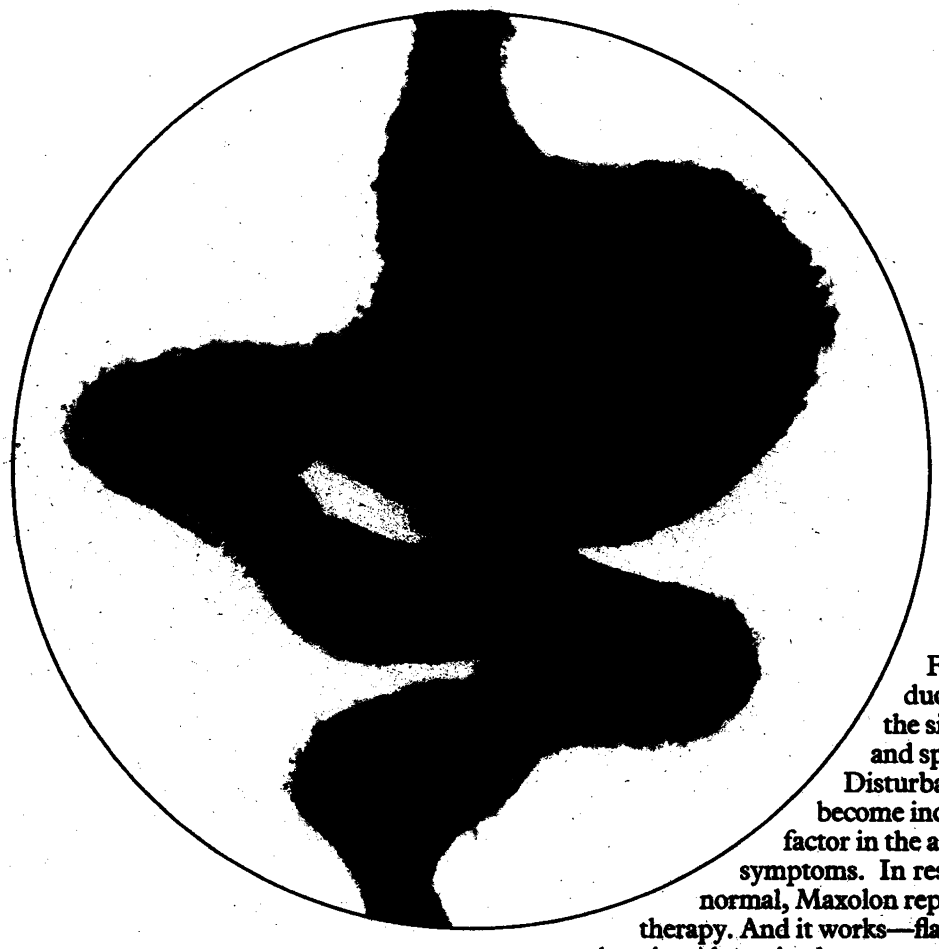
Maxolon for flatulence, dyspepsia, gastritis, and peptic ulcer symptoms



For the first time, treatment of gastro-duodenal disorders can move beyond the simple alleviation of hyperacidity and spasm.

Disturbance of gastro-duodenal motility has become increasingly established as a major factor in the aetiology of gastro-duodenal symptoms. In restoring this disturbed motility to normal, Maxolon represents a unique approach to therapy. And it works—flatulence, dyspepsia, gastritis, hiatus hernia and peptic ulcer symptoms have all shown high symptomatic response to Maxolon. Even difficult post-cholecystectomy dyspepsias have responded well.

Maxolon acts by synchronising antral and duodenal contractions, increasing the competence of the cardiac and pyloric sphincters and promoting normal peristalsis. Reflux, gastric stasis, retention and spasm are all alleviated. Normal motility is restored and gastro-duodenal symptoms resolved.

Further information is available on request.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT FROM SERVIER

Although our anti-obesity product Ponderax (fenfluramine) has come to be accepted as the most effective available chemotherapeutic weight reducer, our duty to the medical profession does not stop with drug research.

As a company Servier has issued through doctors' surgeries nearly two million of our famous blue diet guide booklets. Naturally, we have been pleased to be of service to you and your patients, but we are always seeking to improve our service.

Our new Servier Unit Eating Guide has been developed in conjunction with one of the country's leading nutritional experts. This new Guide enables you to offer your patient an easy-to-follow, easy-to-adhere-to new way of eating. There are no gimmicks, few restrictions; just a sensible approach to the problem of correct eating.

In its tenth year of clinical use Ponderax is one of the most heavily documented drugs today with nearly five hundred references in world literature. By itself Ponderax will give consistently good weight losses, when used as recommended, without any CNS stimulation. The action of Ponderax on glucose and lipid metabolism, with consequent benefits to your patients, is now very well known, having been proved with ten million treatments.

Individually Ponderax and the Servier Unit Eating Guide are exceptional. Together they offer the most satisfactory combination for you to treat the serious condition of overweight.

Diseases of the Urinary Tract

One of the most rapidly growing specialties over the last few years has been that of urology. Many doctors now in practice could not have been taught much of the present-day management of many urinary tract diseases. Last year the B.M.J. published a series of "Current Practice" articles on diseases in the urinary tract, and these have now been collected together in a booklet. Beside articles on the newer aspects of the specialty, the booklet contains articles on established methods of managing renal disorders. Any doctor who wishes to bring himself up to date on modern practice in this field will find this a readable account of the important aspects of the specialty.

Studies of 6,500 cases treated with cephalexin

A further 5,000 patients had been treated with cephalexin and reported in the world literature since a review of more than 1,500 cases was presented to the Sixth International Congress on Chemotherapy.

The infections reported were of the urinary tract (2,238); lower respiratory tract (1,235); ear, nose and throat (892); skin and soft tissue (610); genitals (959); septicaemia (28); endocarditis (4); osteo-articular infections (87); biliary tract infections (13); peritonitis (11); and intestinal infections (45). Satisfactory responses included (a) clinical and bacteriological cure and, (b) clinical cure or marked clinical improvement without full bacteriological clearance. A summary of the results obtained in urinary tract infections is given in the table.

In most of the acute infections treated, cephalexin had given excellent results. In certain chronic infections, particularly of the lung and bone, the response was not so rapid, but when treatment had been prolonged, clinical results had been very good. The adoption of higher doses, 4 G to 6 G or more daily, had widened the scope of cephalexin in the field of severe infections such as septicaemia and endocarditis. The results so far obtained with such infections had been encouraging although the number of cases treated was relatively small.

Even when cephalexin had been used in high dosage or for long periods, the tolerance had been good. Only rarely had treatment been discontinued because of side effects. When side effects had occurred they usually had been mild, many disappearing during treatment. Changes in haematological and biological parameters had been infrequent. There had been no evidence of nephrotoxicity. Cephalexin had been used success-

In acute cystitis 92% success rate with cephalexin

Recent reports* show that some 2,238 urinary tract infections have been treated with cephalexin, achieving 92% success rate in acute or simple cystitis and 88% success rate in acute or simple pyelonephritis.

Other clinical studies from the same publication state that "A significantly better result was obtained with cephalexin in the treatment of sulphonamide-resistant chronic urinary tract infection than with tetracycline or ampicillin."

fully and safely in patients with impaired renal function, although accumulation of the antibiotic might occur in such patients unless dosage were decreased according to the creatinine clearance.

'Good results' in urinary tract cases

A significantly better result was obtained with cephalexin in the treatment of sulphonamide-resistant chronic urinary tract infection than with tetracycline or ampicillin. Reporting these findings, investigators from the University of Turku, Finland, stated that they had treated with a regimen of 1G or 2G cephalexin for 14 days, 40 hospital patients of an average age of 73·9 years.

All of these patients had previously received various chemotherapeutic agents. Twenty-two of the patients were female and 18 male; seven had abnormal renal function.

The criterion for infection was a count of 10^5 organisms per ml of urine; and for cure, sterile urine three days after the end of treatment.

Of the 21 patients who were given 250mg of cephalexin four times a day, 13 were cured; and of the 19 patients who received 500mg four times daily, 10 were cured. Side effects were minimal. Candida was isolated from the urine of one male, and one female developed Candida vaginitis.

In the second part of the trial two groups of 20 patients (of average age 70 years) who also had sulphonamide-resistant urinary tract infection received either tetracycline or ampicillin. A 40 per cent cure rate was obtained in each group – compared with 60 per cent among the patients treated with cephalexin.

For your detailed reading
Ceporex cephalexin

Contra-indication
Ceporex is contra-indicated in persons who have shown hypersensitivity to cephalosporins.

Precautions
In patients treated with Ceporex, a false-positive reaction for glucose in the urine may occur with Benedict's or Fehling's solutions, or with 'Clinitest' tablets, but not with enzyme-based tests such as 'Clinistix'.
Ceporex is usually tolerated well by patients allergic to penicillin, but cross-reaction can occur occasionally.
As with other antibiotics, Ceporex should be administered with caution in patients with a history of allergy, especially to drugs. When renal function is markedly reduced, Ceporex will accumulate in the serum and tissues unless dosage is suitably reduced.
Laboratory experiments with animals and clinical experience show no evidence of teratogenicity, but as with all drugs, caution is needed during pregnancy.

Adverse reactions
A small proportion of patients receiving Ceporex may experience gastro-intestinal disturbances such as nausea, vomiting, diarrhoea, anorexia and general abdominal discomfort. As with all broad-spectrum antibiotics, super-infection (sometimes monilial) can occur, and may present as vulvo-vaginitis.
Reversible neutropenia has occurred in a few patients, but is very rare.
Generalised drug rashes – urticarial or maculopapular – are uncommon.

Administration and dosage
Ceporex is administered orally. Treatment should continue for at least two days after the temperature has returned to normal and symptoms have subsided. However, in chronic, recurrent or complicated upper urinary tract infections a course of at least two weeks' duration may be necessary.
When renal function is considerably impaired, the dosage should be reduced. If the creatinine clearance is 20 to 50ml/minute, the adult dosage of Ceporex should not exceed 3 grams/day; if between 5 and 20ml/minute, not more than 1.5 grams daily; if the clearance is below 5ml/minute, dosage should not exceed 500mg/day.
Patients receiving intermittent dialysis should be given an additional 500mg of Ceporex after each dialysis, i.e., a total dosage of up to 1 gram on that day.

Ceporex stands for clinical success and low incidence of side effects

Recent clinical results with cephalexin confirm the extremely low incidence of side effects accompanying the high clinical success rate.

"Even when cephalexin had been used in high dosage for long periods, the tolerance had been good. Only rarely had treatment been discontinued because of side effects. When side effects had occurred they usually had been mild, many disappearing during treatment."*

"No cross sensitivity was seen with cephalexin in the eight patients with a history of penicillin hypersensitivity."*

It all adds up to the simple fact that in acute cystitis and pyelonephritis, you can trust Ceporex to reduce the risks and improve the results.

Superior to ampicillin or sulphadimidine

In a comparative trial,[1] cure rates achieved in urinary tract infections were 85% with SEPTRIN*, 70% with ampicillin and 40% with sulphadimidine. SEPTRIN was judged "clearly superior to either of the other treatments."[2]
(Cure criterion = eradication of infecting organism 1 week after end of treatment).

High success rate

"... one is struck by the tremendous success rate, certainly superior to any other antibacterial we have tested..."[3]

"Of the easily administered primary treatments for urinary tract infection, this combination is probably the best."[4]

Johnny's had more than his fair share of infections

For children such as Johnny who, every year, seem to be more often in the surgery than out of it, Keflex has a lot to offer.
Rapidly absorbed and reaching high serum levels, Keflex has a broad spectrum of antibacterial activity that even includes penicillinase-producing pathogens, and so increases the chances of first-time success in treating infective episodes.
All these properties, plus an extremely low incidence of rash and gastro-intestinal disturbance, make the pleasant-tasting Keflex suspensions a treatment which ensures that most patients like Johnny can overcome infection quickly and with the minimum of complications.

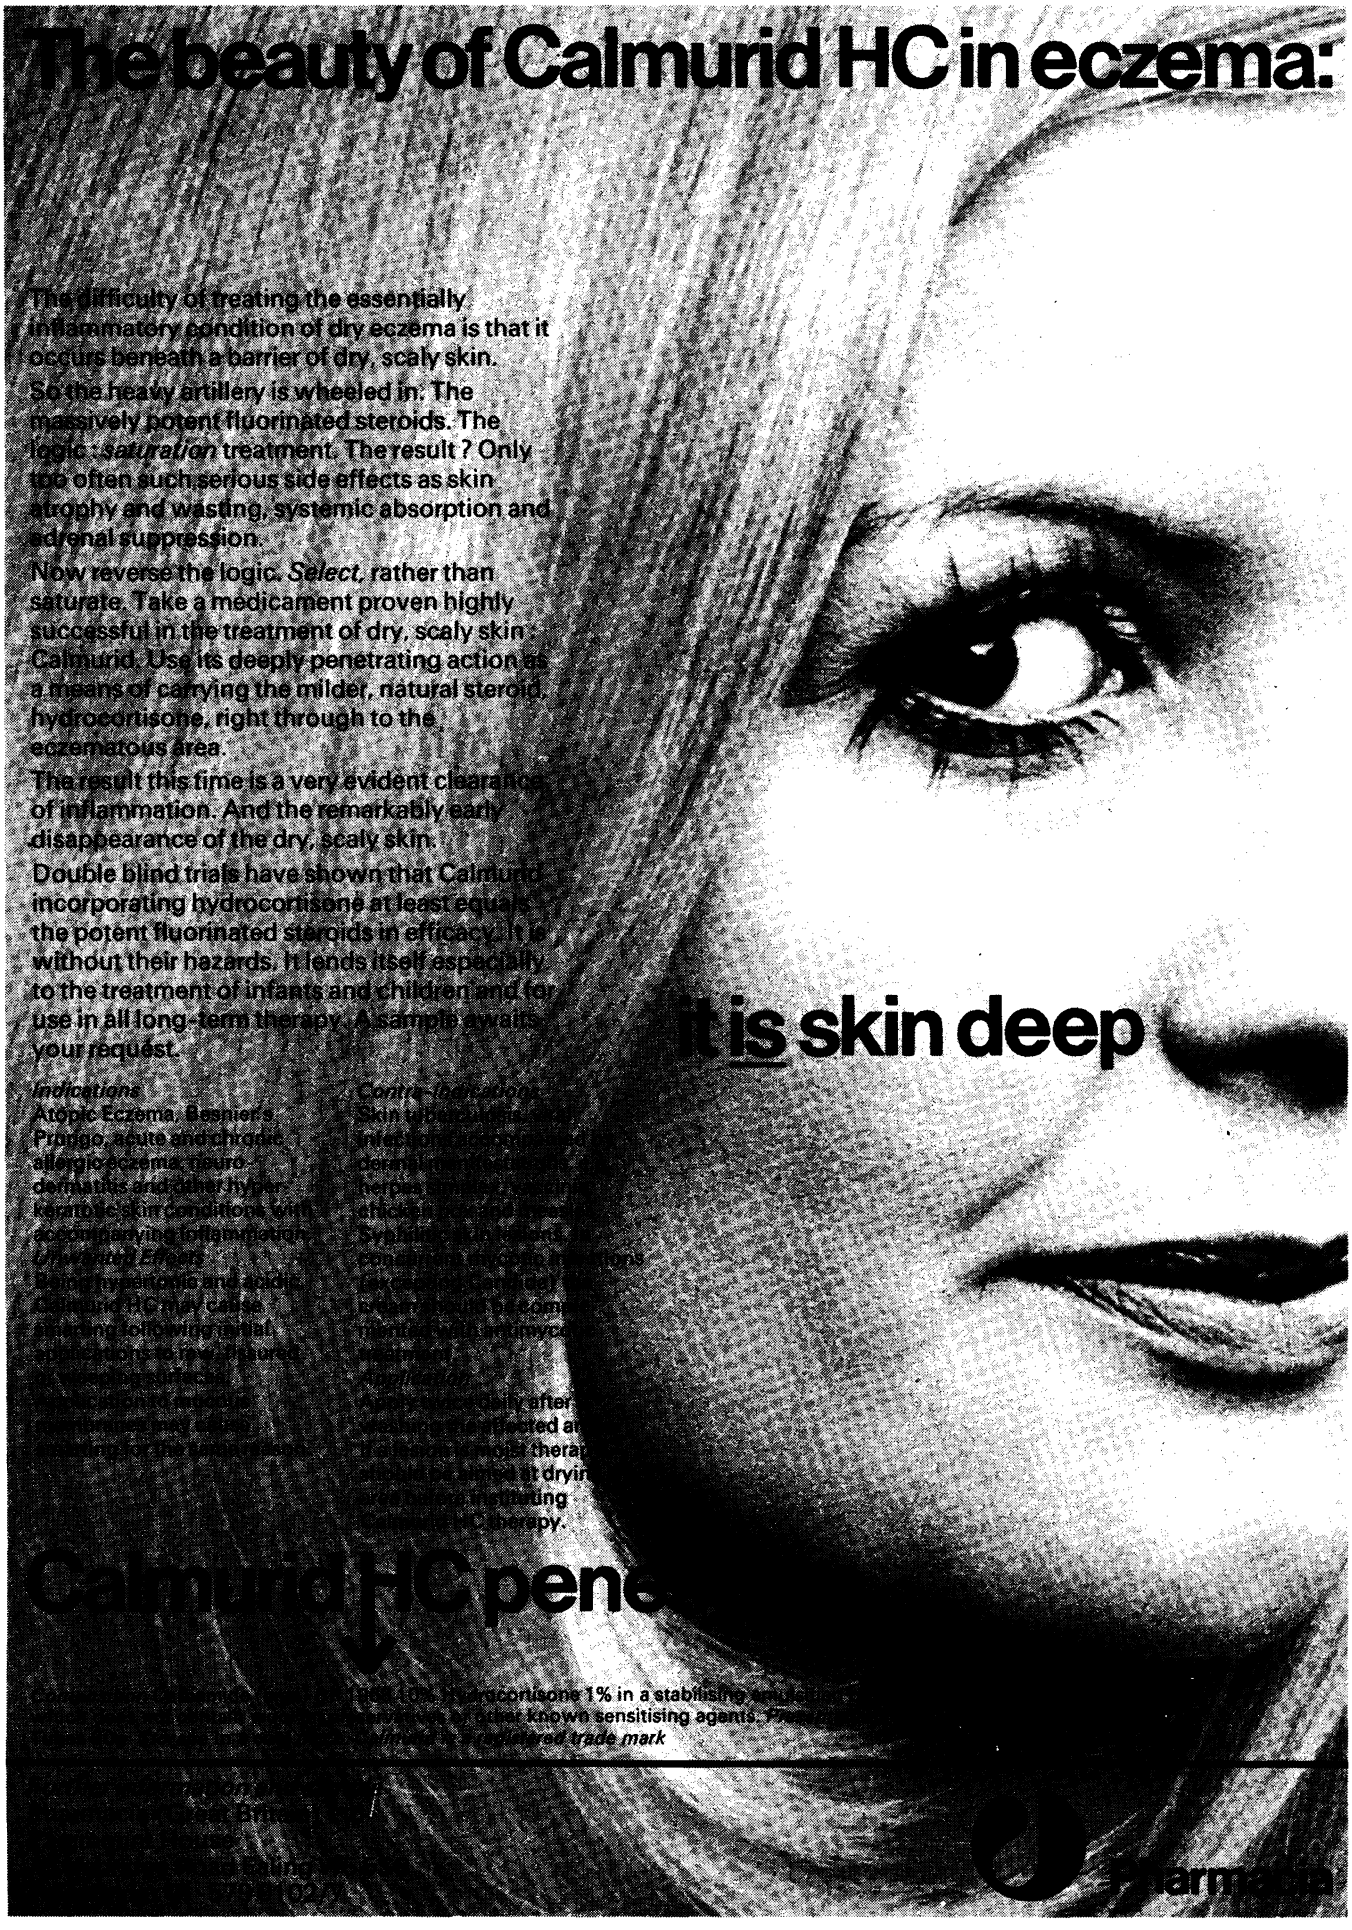
The beauty of Calmurid HC in eczema:



it is skin deep

The difficulty of treating the essentially inflammatory condition of dry eczema is that it occurs beneath a barrier of dry, scaly skin.

So the heavy artillery is wheeled in. The massively potent fluorinated steroids. The logic: saturation treatment. The result? Only too often such serious side effects as skin atrophy and wasting, systemic absorption and adrenal suppression.

Now reverse the logic. Select, rather than saturate. Take a medicament proven highly successful in the treatment of dry, scaly skin: Calmurid. Use its deeply penetrating action as a means of carrying the milder, natural steroid, hydrocortisone, right through to the eczematous area.

The result this time is a very evident clearance of inflammation. And the remarkably early disappearance of the dry, scaly skin.

Double blind trials have shown that Calmurid incorporating hydrocortisone at least equals the potent fluorinated steroids in efficacy. It is without their hazards. It lends itself especially to the treatment of infants and children and for use in all long-term therapy. A sample awaits your request.

Indications
Atopic Eczema, Besnier's Prurigo, acute and chronic allergic eczema, neurodermatitis and other hyperkeratotic skin conditions with accompanying lichenification.

Contra-indications
Skin tuberculosis, viral infections of the skin (including herpes simplex, vaccinia and varicella), syphilitic skin lesions, pre-existing bacterial infections, pyodermias, fungal infections, monilial infections, parasitic infestations.

Undesirable Effects
Rarely hypertonia and acidosis. Calmurid HC may cause stinging following initial application to inflamed or weeping surfaces.

Dosage and Administration
Apply thinly twice daily after cleansing affected areas. Calmurid HC is a moisture therapy and it should be allowed to dry in before dressing or applying other topical therapy.

Calmurid HC penetrates

Calmurid HC contains hydrocortisone 1% in a stabilising emulsion free from all other known sensitising agents. Pharmaderm is a registered trade mark

A 40 year old civil servant, following a severe domestic upset, took a total of 90mg (18 tablets) of Mogadon between midnight and noon.

"In the following eight hours he consumed half a bottle of whisky and some sherry; when seen some two hours later, it was obvious that he had been drinking but he was quite conscious and capable of discussing his domestic troubles and to relate the story of what had happened throughout the previous night."[1]

Now you can sleep easy

Against a background of increasing concern about the danger of barbiturate poisoning (as few as 20 or 30 tablets may prove fatal), the advent of Mogadon must be of considerable importance. Indeed, Mogadon "..... appears to be as nearly as safe as a drug can be."[2] Even as many as 80 tablets have produced no untoward effects. Moreover, a recent trial in the B.M.J. showed Mogadon comparable in effect to butobarbitone.[3] When such a drug exists, should you risk using anything else?

In the best tradition of British

an excellent new antibiotic for routine treatment

URTI Chest infections UTI Skin and soft tissue infections

Amoxil is a new antibiotic with distinct advantages in routine treatment.

Amoxil has a broad spectrum of activity against the common bacterial pathogens encountered in practice and its bactericidal action means further confidence in its everyday use.

The most practical advantage of Amoxil is that its oral absorption is outstanding, giving extremely high serum and tissue levels, irrespective of the presence of food. This ensures rapid and decisive activity at all sites of infection, even the more inaccessible.

Extensive British clinical trials have demonstrated its efficacy and penicillin safety in the treatment of Upper Respiratory Tract Infections, Otitis Media, Bronchitis, Urinary Tract Infections, and Skin and Soft Tissue Infections.

Add to this a convenient t.d.s. dosage—ensuring undisturbed sleep—a wide range of highly acceptable presentations, treatment costing as little as 16p per day and it is easy to see why Amoxil is practical antibiotic therapy at its best.

RYNACROM®

Sodium Cromoglycate BP for hay fever

In the form of Intal, Sodium Cromoglycate is already proven as a valuable anti-allergic therapy.[1,2] The introduction of Rynacrom now makes Sodium Cromoglycate available for the control of symptoms of hay fever. Administration is by a specially-designed nasal insufflator that is recharged with a Rynacrom capsule at each application.

Clinical trial results show that Rynacrom significantly reduces rhinorrhoea and nasal obstruction in hay fever and that the treatment is easy and well accepted by patients.[3] A characteristic feature of this therapy is the extremely low incidence of side effects.[1,2,3]

For this reason many of the problems of conventional hay fever therapy do not arise with Rynacrom.

Rynacrom is supplied as capsules containing Sodium Cromoglycate BP 10 mg together with an inert carrier, (Lactose BP 10 mg) for use in a specially-designed Rynacrom insufflator.

COMMERCIAL APPOINTMENTS

Medical Adviser

Group Marketing reorganisation will leave us in need of a U.K. Medical Adviser in October, 1972.

We are a wholly owned subsidiary of A. B. Kabi, Stockholm, Sweden, marketing some of the highly ethical preparations of the parent Company. The challenging therapies of thrombolyisis and antifibrinolysis were first launched in the U.K. by ourselves and there is still far to go.

The Medical Adviser must hold British Medical Qualifications and preferably be between the ages of 30 and 45. Experience in the industry is not absolutely essential, but very important are enthusiasm and a keen desire to make a progressive career with us.

We seek a doctor with a lively and active mind; a great interest in therapeutics, with an ability to communicate with all levels of medical personnel, and with the ability to help to train medical representatives.

For all this and more we offer a good salary with progressive possibilities; a company car; free life insurance; pension scheme; foreign travel; pleasant working conditions at our Ealing office with a good team of ardent enthusiasts for the Company and its products.

If you are interested please write soon 'In confidence' giving full details of career to date to:— The Managing Director, Kabi Pharmaceuticals Ltd., Bilton House, Uxbridge Road, Ealing, London W5 2TH.

Medical Advisers
for the Employment Medical Advisory Service

The Employment Medical Advisory Service is a division of the Department of Employment. The appointments are in areas based in or near London, Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Leeds, Manchester, Newcastle-upon-Tyne and other large centres.

An Adviser's duties will include investigations and formal surveys, advice about working conditions, and medical supervision of young people who are not fully fit for employment and of people undergoing training or rehabilitation. This is very wide-ranging work of growing importance. It will take an Adviser into many different work-places, particularly factories, and will require him to give advice on occupational medicine to workers (and their representatives) and employers, as well as maintaining liaison with medical practitioners and hospitals on the medical aspects of their patients' work.

So far as is geographically possible Advisers will work in groups and nurses may be appointed to some groups. Clerical and supporting staff will be provided. Laboratory facilities either through the NHS or the EMAS Central Reference Laboratory will be available. Statistical assistance is also available.

Applicants (men or women) must be fully registered medical practitioners in the United Kingdom. Experience in industrial medicine or in allied subjects such as toxicology, pulmonary physiology or psychiatry is desirable and the possession of higher qualifications will be an advantage. A current driving licence is essential.

The salary scale (under review) is £4,031 to £5,490 (plus £175 in inner London). In some circumstances the starting salary can be up to the maximum. There are good prospects of promotion as the Service develops with salaries up to £6,490. The pension is non-contributory and previous public service superannuation rights will normally be transferable.

For full details of these posts and an application form (to be returned by 26 June), write to the Civil Service Commission, Alencon Link, Basingstoke, Hants, or telephone BASINGSTOKE 29222 ext. 500 or London 01-839 1696 (24 hour 'Ansafone' service) quoting S/7946/2.

Medical Officers
Zambia

ANGLO CHARTER INTERNATIONAL SERVICES APPOINTMENTS DIVISION

You are offered the prospect of a tour of duty – for as little as one year – in Zambia, one which will give you both a wide range of professional experience and early responsibility (all in addition to a wide extension of your personal horizons). It is with the nation's major mining organisation, Nchanga Consolidated Copper Mines Ltd., with an international staff of technical specialists.

The company is responsible for providing full medical care to its employees – over 30,000 – and their families; the total of persons to be looked after is about 150,000.

There is a senior doctor staff of over 40, including a full complement of specialists, and 150 fully qualified nurses. The modern facilities include 5 well-equipped hospitals (814 beds), 16 clinics and 8 main first aid dressing stations.

General Duty Medical Officers will be involved in preventive and curative medicine, surgery, anaesthetics, gynaecology/obstetrics, public health and nutrition; and although the mines have a strict safety code, an amount of accident work can be expected.

Contracts may be negotiated for periods of one to three years. Locums can also often be arranged.

Salaries will depend on experience but the minimum is K8620 (£4,600) gross per annum. In addition there is a cash settling-in allowance: a detached, furnished house with garden is provided for £1.50 per week: and children receiving secondary education overseas are granted up to £500 per child per year towards school fees and two free return passages to visit their parents during holidays.

Income Tax is lower than in the U.K. Currency regulations allow up to 33⅓% of gross income to be sent home per month with an additional end of contract allowance. Please send for details to:

Anglo Charter International Services Ltd.,
Appointments Division,
Dept. A544/FF(C),
7 Rolls Buildings, London EC4A 1HX.

Largactil

a name that covers a multitude of ills

In major and minor psychoses, drug withdrawal, senile dementia, control of terminal pain, and nausea and vomiting, the name to write is 'Largactil'. The established one. And the versatile one – because of its wide variety of presentations 'Largactil' allows treatment to be tailored to the individual needs of each patient at a very reasonable cost.

'Largactil' is available as tablets, syrup, forte suspension, injection solution and suppositories.

Full information is available on request.

'Largactil' is a trade mark of May & Baker Ltd Dagenham Essex RM10 7XS for its preparations of chlorpromazine.

Hazard Ahead...

but with care, one that is readily overcome.

The 'Hazards' facing you and your family are not so easily tackled, but with the same care you can provide for yourself and your dependants with the right type of insurance.

Understandably, you may not know where to start, but the Medical Insurance Agency, with its knowledge of the insurance market and of the needs of the medical and dental professions, will help you to find the policy that is exactly right for you.

Floxapen destroys staph and strep

In skin, for example.

You can prescribe Floxapen with confidence for infections of skin and soft tissue, or any other staph. and strep. infections.

Floxapen's excellent absorption gives high blood levels right at the site of the infection - blood levels which are as high orally as by injection.

Floxapen destroys virtually all staphylococci, and all streptococci and pneumococci. It destroys them whether or not they're sensitive to other antibiotics.

Floxapen's safety is the renowned safety of the penicillins. And its clinical record is one of outstanding success. (97% in skin and soft tissue infections[1]).

Floxapen. For skin, for example.

British evidence confirms value of serc®

betahistine

in Meniere's syndrome

Serc is the first drug to offer comprehensive action against all the manifestations of Meniere's syndrome. A British trial* now confirms its clinical value. Objective tests of hearing and vestibular function in 11 patients before and after treatment with Serc showed a dramatic improvement in many cases. 'There was an overall average gain in hearing over the whole group in both ears.' Studies of nystagmus suggested an improvement in vestibular function. 'Subjectively, 9 out of 11 patients claimed an improvement in the symptom of vertigo and all 11 claimed reduction in tinnitus.'

*Journal of Laryngology, and Otology, 1971, 85:369.

Serc is supplied as tablets each containing 8 mg. betahistine dihydrochloride.
Further information available on request.
