There's now considerable evidence to show that Amoxil is more effective than other broad spectrum antibiotics in the treatment of chest infections.^{1,2,3,4}

There are some good reasons for this:

Firstly, Amoxil is extremely well absorbed by the oral route,⁵ attaining high bactericidal concentrations.

And secondly, the overall absorption is unaffected by the presence of food⁵ which means your patient doesn't have to remember to take Amoxil half an hour or whatever before meals.

Couple this with Amoxil's apparently excellent ability to penetrate into bronchial secretions^{3,6}, and you've probably explained why Amoxil out-performs other broad spectrums.^{1,2,3,4}

Ventolin sets a higher standard

Clinical trials have demonstrated the superior efficacy of Ventolin over other bronchodilators

in bronchodilator therapy

Measurement of lung function is generally considered essential in order to assess the efficacy of bronchodilator therapy.

One of the commonly used instruments for this purpose is the dry wedge spirometer (Vitalograph) with which the patient's spirogram can readily be obtained. From this the forced expiratory volume in 1 second (FEV₁) and the forced vital capacity (FVC) can easily be calculated.

During the five years that Ventolin has been available it has been the subject of a large number of clinical trials. An analysis of the first 50 of these is shown in the table.

Number of clinical trials	Number of patients involved	Number of the trials conducted 'double-blind'	Number of 'double-blind' trials against an active bronchodilator
50	1,477	20	18

HIGHLY EFFECTIVE

In all the clinical trials Ventolin was shown to be highly effective, producing near maximum reversibility of bronchospasm.

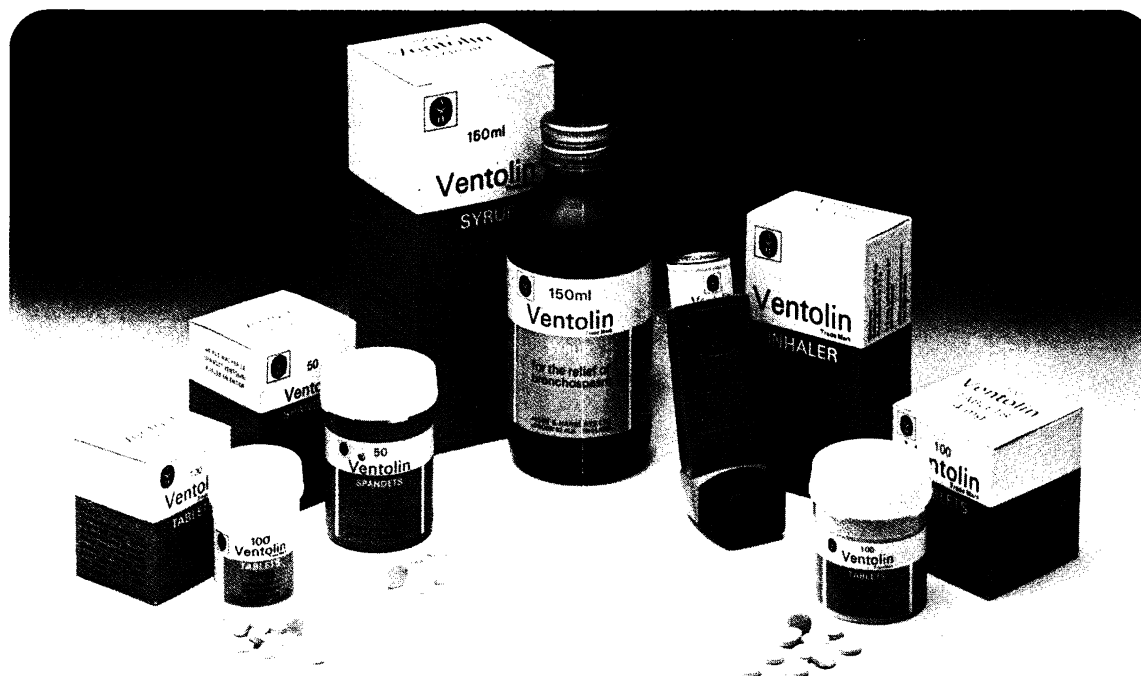

HIGHLY SELECTIVE

In all the clinical trials, without exception, Ventolin was shown to be a highly selective bronchodilator, whether it was administered by mouth or by inhalation. Therapeutic doses had no effect on the heart. In some investigations where many times the therapeutic dose was investigated again no effect on the heart could be detected.

LONG DURATION OF ACTION

In trials in which the duration of action was measured this was shown to be from 4 to 6 hours.

A wide range of preparations to suit each individual need

VENTOLIN INHALER—for rapid, long-lasting relief of acute bronchospasm.

VENTOLIN TABLETS—2 mg and 4 mg—for routine oral bronchodilator therapy.

VENTOLIN SYRUP—fruit-flavoured for ready acceptability by children.

VENTOLIN SPANDETS—sustained-action tablets, particularly suitable where nocturnal bronchospasm is a problem.

Ventolin Inhaler contains salbutamol BP, all oral Ventolin preparations contain salbutamol BP as sulphate.

Pick up a television studio for £750.*

It's called the Sony Video Rover.

A complete portable television video tape recording system. Powered by internal rechargeable batteries, car batteries or from the mains.

The whole box of tricks weighs less than 19lb.

So one man can carry and operate it. Without spending a month with the manual first.

If you can press a button, you're an expert.

TO GIVE YOU A CLEARER PICTURE.

The Video Rover uses a new high density Sony $\frac{1}{2}$ " video tape. Together with an advanced design precision head, it gives you a high resolution of over 300 lines.

Which means you get a sharp, stable, vivid picture that's practically grain free. (Something no other comparable video unit can match.)

FROM NEAR OR FAR.

The hand held camera sports a f1.8 zoom lens that can travel from 12.5mm wide angle to 75mm telephoto. This enables you to shoot crystal clear close-ups as well as highly detailed longshots.

Above the lens is a microphone which can offer you a high frequency response plus omni-directional characteristics. In other words, it's a very good microphone.

And besides recording both sound and vision simultaneously, you can dub on extra sound or commentary at a later date.

INSTANT REPLAY. STOP THE ACTION.

Lift the eye piece on the camera, and the electronic viewfinder becomes a built-in playback screen.

Push a switch, and you can immediately run through the material you've just recorded.

Push another switch, and you can freeze the picture wherever you like.

And by means of a simple adaptor, you can show all this on an ordinary full-sized television.

ALL THINGS TO ALL MEN.

In the short time the Video Rover has been available in America, it's been used by people from all walks of life.

Industry has employed it from the boardroom to the factory floor. Doctors have used it to help diagnose circulatory diseases. And used as a teaching aid, it has dramatically reduced the number of school dropouts.

We could go on all day.

Human Reproduction and Society

DEREK LLEWELLYN-JONES
OBE MD MAO FRCOG

Professor Llewellyn-Jones, well-known for his books on Gynaecology and Obstetrics, has written a characteristically lucid and up-to-date analysis of the demographic and social problems of human reproduction. A Consultant in Population Dynamics, Family Planning and Human Reproduction for the World Health Organization, he has first-hand knowledge of both westernized and developing countries.

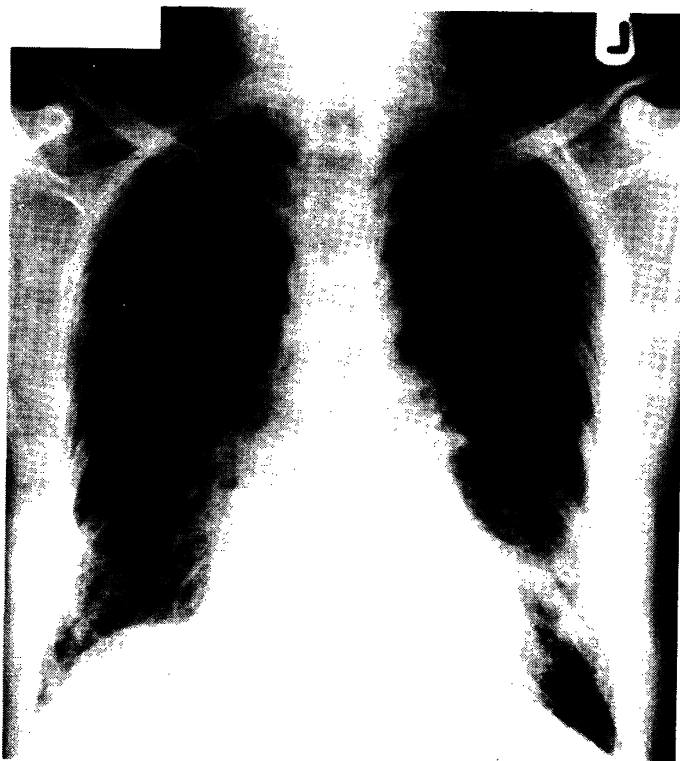

The volume falls into two main divisions. In the first the demographic aspects of population dynamics are related to the medical and ecological problems which have arisen. In the second part, suggestions are made for solving the problems from the viewpoint of medical and health workers.

In the past three years the significance of demography and family planning in the medical curriculum has been increasingly realised. This important book should have a wide appeal.

Are your asthmatics under too much pressure?

Older patients may be particularly susceptible to tissue damage from asthmatic attacks. And aerosol therapy, used when the attack is under way, may not be of much help.

Bronchodilators do not always work. They may not get through to the affected areas and consequently succeed only in hyperventilating unaffected parts. The patient may panic, overdose, and there is now danger of cardiac stimulation.

With steroids there is always the risk of untoward effects and they should probably be reserved for those patients for whom there is no alternative.

Only Intal prevents asthmatic attacks and eliminates these problems.

With Intal there is no danger of side effects, no risk of misuse and no diminution of therapeutic effect.

When lack of concentration appears in old age, the problem is often likely to be of organic origin. In particular, the patient may even confuse 'who is who' in her family—as well as suffer simpler lapses of short-term memory. Lucidril can end this confusion by an action that does not depend on improving the blood supply to the brain.

Lucidril gets the deteriorating brain working again. Firstly, it stimulates the metabolism of the brain, probably through different pathways. Secondly, it removes the lipofuscin pigments which are a concomitant of old age and which may impair cellular metabolism.

Lucidril thus improves mental function; as a recent clinical paper has pointed out:

"These preliminary results (with Lucidril) are encouraging, because they indicate that the intellectual impairment exhibited by such patients may be reversible, even when the underlying causes are presumably of an organic nature, such as cerebral arteriosclerosis."

This is what we call practising medicine.

A career in Naval medicine can be a rewarding experience. Opportunities to specialise abound. And perhaps above all else, there is an immense satisfaction to be gained from the wide variety of work you will be involved in.

At sea, for instance, you could be anywhere from the Mediterranean to the Pacific Ocean. Looking after the health and well being of the company of a modern warship.

And though you could spend as long as the first eighteen months of your five year Short Service Commission on board different ships, you need have no fear of losing contact with mainstream medicine. For no matter where you are, you will be kept informed of current medical opinion.

After this, the choice is yours. Post graduate medical training and a career in the clinical disciplines at one of our naval district general hospitals. Haslar or Plymouth, for instance, with their wide spectrum of clinical material drawn from naval personnel, their dependants and the local civilian population as well. There are also naval hospitals in Malta, Gibraltar and Mauritius, with opportunities for exchange appointments elsewhere.

Or you might prefer occupational medicine in our research orientated naval dockyards. Aviation medicine with its accent on rotary wing support of the Fleet. And for those with an administrative turn of mind, community medicine.

Royal Naval expertise in maritime medicine is recognised world wide and research into underwater medicine, nuclear medicine and the closed submarine environment is centred at the Institute of Naval Medicine at Alverstoke.

Naval general practice in well staffed and equipped medical centres extend as far afield as Hong Kong and Singapore. And new training schemes are now under way in the United Kingdom.

Should you be moved or sent abroad at any time, all expenses will be paid by us. We will help you with accommodation (at very reasonable rents) and provide allowances for the education of your children, if you have a family.

If you enter the Royal Navy immediately after registration you will be given the rank of Surgeon Lieutenant and a salary of £4,099, rising to £4,249 after four years.

On the other hand, if you are older (up to the age of forty) and more experienced, we can offer you a number of opportunities in general practice and the specialities. And, depending on your post-registration experience, you could enter as a Surgeon Lieutenant Commander at a salary of £5,161, rising to £5,658.

Then, at the end of your five year Short Service Commission you could leave with a tax free gratuity of £3,000.

But if it is mutually agreeable, you could apply for a Full Career Commission or a 16 year pensionable commission. The choice is yours.

In the meantime if you would like further information, write giving details of your age and qualifications to Surgeon Commander L.C. Banks, R.N., (724BU6) Department of the Medical Director General (Naval), Empress State Building, Fulham, London SW6.

Before one bad thing leads to another

Bacterial throat infections in a child can be a cause for anxiety to everyone concerned.

And you'll want to make sure that the treatment you prescribe will prevent the condition turning into something worse . . . such as otitis media, with a possible legacy of impaired hearing; or a chest infection.

Ceporex is the ideal antibiotic in such cases, because it is rapidly bactericidal. This means that fever quickly subsides; so do irritation, discomfort and pain.

Ceporex, with recorded success rates of 97% in tonsillitis/pharyngitis, 94% in acute otitis media and 92% in unspecified ENT infections,* has minimal side effects and an excellent record of safety.

THE BIRMINGHAM
AREA HEALTH AUTHORITY
(Teaching)*Central Birmingham Health District

Applications are invited for the post of CONSULTANT IN REHABILITATION (Whole-time with option of maximum part-time)

In May, 1974, a Department of Employment Industrial Rehabilitation Unit is due to open on the Queen Elizabeth Hospital site, building up to full capacity by mid-summer, 1974. Within this unit 30 places will be reserved for patients undergoing concurrent rehabilitation which it is hoped will lead to a special relationship developing between this Unit and the Medical Rehabilitation Services of all hospitals within the Birmingham Area Health Authority (Teaching). It is intended that initially the main users of these 30 places will be patients from the Queen Elizabeth Hospital (562 beds), General Hospital (400 beds) and the Birmingham Accident Hospital (212 beds). The latter hospital is being redeveloped on the Queen Elizabeth Medical Centre site and should be finished after 1978. Associated with this development is the provision of a large Medical Rehabilitation Department.

It is hoped to be able to appoint a person with a clinical background to take an active interest in the Medical Rehabilitation Services and to act clinical co-ordinator with all the other agencies concerned in rehabilitation throughout the area. The person appointed could, in addition, continue to practise his own branch of medicine or surgery for some part of his time.

The appointment will be made in the Consultant Grade but interest in, and enthusiasm for rehabilitation will be of considerably greater importance than the candidate's precise background of training. The right personality to form good relationships with the many clinicians involved, as well as with outside agencies, will be of paramount importance.

Further particulars and application forms obtainable from District Administrator, Central Birmingham Health District, Queen Elizabeth Medical Centre, Birmingham B15 2TH and should be returned by 11th May, 1974. (H18863) 67-1

PHYSICAL MEDICINE

THE BIRMINGHAM AREA HEALTH AUTHORITY

(Teaching)

Central Birmingham Health District

Applications are invited for the post of CONSULTANT IN REHABILITATION

(Whole-time with option of maximum part-time)

In May, 1974, a Department of Employment Industrial Rehabilitation Unit is due to open on the Queen Elizabeth Hospital Site, building up to full capacity by mid-summer 1974. Within this unit 30 places will be reserved for patients undergoing concurrent rehabilitation which it is hoped will lead to a special relationship developing between this Unit and the Medical Rehabilitation Services of all hospitals within the Birmingham Area Health Authority (Teaching). It is intended that initially the main users of these 30 places will be patients from the Queen Elizabeth Hospital (582 beds), General Hospital (400 beds) and the Birmingham Accident Hospital (212 beds). The latter hospital is being redeveloped on the Queen Elizabeth Medical Centre site and should be finished in 1978. Associated with this development is the provision of a large Medical Rehabilitation Department.

It is hoped to be able to appoint a person with a clinical background to take an active interest in the Medical Rehabilitation Services and to act as clinical co-ordinator with all the other agencies concerned in rehabilitation throughout the area. The person appointed could, in addition, continue to practise his own branch of medicine or surgery for some part of his time.

The appointment will be made in the Consultant Grade but interest in, and enthusiasm for rehabilitation will be of considerably greater importance than the candidate's precise background of training. The right personality to form good relationships with the many clinicians involved, as well as with outside agencies, will be of paramount importance.

Further particulars and application forms obtainable from District Administrator, Central Birmingham Health District, Queen Elizabeth Medical Centre, Birmingham B15 2TH and should be returned by 11th May, 1974. (H18864) 82-1

THE BIRMINGHAM AREA HEALTH AUTHORITY (TEACHING)
Central Birmingham Health District

Applications are invited for the post of CONSULTANT IN REHABILITATION (Whole-time with option of maximum part-time)

In May, 1974, a Department of Employment Industrial Rehabilitation Unit is due to open on the Queen Elizabeth Hospital Site, building up to full capacity by mid-Summer 1974. Within this unit thirty places will be reserved for patients undergoing concurrent rehabilitation which it is hoped will lead to a special relationship developing between this Unit and the Medical Rehabilitation Services of all hospitals within the Birmingham Area Health Authority (Teaching). It is intended that initially the main users of these thirty places will be patients from the Queen Elizabeth Hospital (582 beds), General Hospital (400 beds) and the Birmingham Accident Hospital (212 beds). The latter hospital is being redeveloped on the Queen Elizabeth Medical Centre site and should be finished after 1978. Associated with this development is the provision of a large Medical Rehabilitation Department.

It is hoped to be able to appoint a person with a clinical background to take an active interest in the Medical Rehabilitation Services and to act as clinical co-ordinator with all the other agencies concerned in rehabilitation throughout the area. The person appointed could, in addition, continue to practice his own branch of medicine or surgery for some part of his time.

The appointment will be made in the Consultant Grade but interest and enthusiasm for rehabilitation will be of considerably greater importance than the candidate's precise background of training. The right personality to form good relationships with the many clinicians involved, as well as with outside agencies, will be of paramount importance.

Further particulars and application forms obtainable from District Administrator, Central Birmingham Health District, Queen Elizabeth Medical Centre, Birmingham, B15 2TH and should be returned by 11th May 1974. (H18864) 91-1

The Future General Practitioner

Learning and Teaching

General or family practice is a special subject. This book is written by six experienced teachers selected by the Council of the Royal College of General Practitioners. It is intended chiefly for teachers, but it will also be valuable to those who are learning and to all who are concerned about the place of family practice within a country's medical services.

A syllabus is developed in five main parts:

Health and Diseases

Human Development

Human Behaviour

Medicine and Society

The Practice

Throughout the book the authors have tried to indicate ways in which the teacher may approach the task of passing on what he had learned by his own experience. The theme is the search for objectives which will satisfy the needs of learner and teacher. The belief is that this search will benefit the future family practitioner and through him the community of his patients.

Breathless?

But now imagine the very much worse discomfort suffered by chronic asthmatics, time and time again. And just imagine the tremendous relief that Bextasol inhaler can give these patients.

New Bextasol inhaler gives your chronic asthmatics a fair share of air.

Bextasol inhaler can establish effective prophylactic control of frequently recurring extrinsic and intrinsic asthma. Moreover, many of your patients will enjoy greater, better-sustained breathing capacity than on previous therapy.

And it's often the only maintenance therapy they will require.

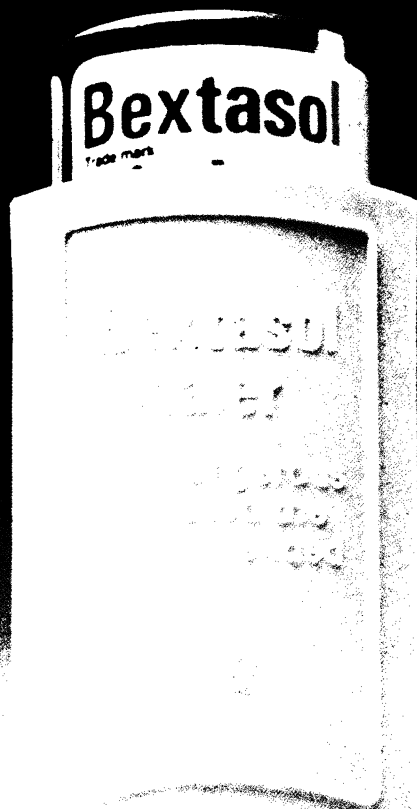

Bextasol inhaler delivers metered micro-doses of betamethasone valerate, a corticosteroid known for its high topical and relatively low systemic activity, direct to the airways. Systemic side effects are thus avoided.

Those chronic asthmatics, maintained on sodium cromoglycate and high doses of bronchodilators, who are still not able to lead a normal life can often achieve significantly improved lung function... with Bextasol inhaler.

Consequently, Bextasol inhaler offers the unique benefit of corticosteroid control to a much wider range of asthma sufferers.

Presentation

Bextasol inhaler is a pressurised aerosol containing a suspension of micronised Betamethasone Valerate BP with propellants. The container supplies 200 metered inhalations, each providing 100 micrograms of betamethasone valerate.
