FENOPRON™

takes the pain out of living with osteo-arthritis

FENOPRON relieves pain and reduces joint inflammation. It thus encourages mobility, reduces stiffness and helps your patients to lead a more normal, active life.
Treatment with FENOPRON not only controls day-to-day pain, but subdues occasional 'flare-ups' or exacerbations. Few patients experience side-effects with FENOPRON, and those which occur are neither serious nor troublesome.[1]

FENOPRON will also benefit your patients with rheumatoid arthritis who need consistent reliable pain relief, reasonable improvement of mobility and an easier, less restricted life-style.

Supplied as capsules each containing fenoprofen calcium equivalent to 300mg fenoprofen.

Iron	0.51 mg	17.7%
Calcium	26.0 mg	13.4%

Thiamine	0.05 mg	22.1%
Energy value	69 kcal	14.4%

*Figures from 1972 National Food Survey

Our daily bread is often underestimated as an essential source of goodness and nourishment.

In the average national diet (according to the 1972 National Food Survey), bread plays a key part, providing over one-sixth of a person's daily protein and iron intake; over one-fifth of the daily thiamine; and around one-seventh of the daily calcium, niacin and energy value.

This means, of course, that the importance of including bread in one's diet should never be underestimated. To cut out bread, even when slimming, may produce an unsatisfactory diet. For health's sake, it's worth recommending bread in every diet.*

Penny for penny, bread provides nearly three times as much protein as white fish or beef, and significantly more protein than cheese. Which makes our daily bread one of the best food bargains in the world.

CARDIOVASCULAR DISEASE IN THE TROPICS

Edited by A. G. Shaper, M. S. R. Hutt, and Z. Fejfar

Cardiovascular disease is a major problem in many developing and tropical countries and this collection of essays by 36 members of the International Society of Cardiology draws attention to the fascinating and complex situation in the tropical world. The book presents the present state of knowledge regarding many conditions previously thought to be peculiar to the temperate and developed countries and also deals with those disorders peculiar to the tropical situation. The differences in geographic distribution and natural history of many cardiovascular problems between temperate and tropical countries provide unique opportunities for research into the nature of these problems. This book is intended not only for doctors and students in tropical countries but for cardiologists, physicians, pathologists and epidemiologists everywhere, who are concerned with the international problem of cardiovascular disease. It provides an up-to-date review suitable both for clinical and epidemiological work and for further research into these disorders.

Fybogel

the new therapeutic solution for the treatment of pressure diseases of the large bowel

DIVERTICULAR DISEASE IRRITABLE/SPASTIC COLON
HAEMORRHOIDS
ANAL FISSURE

These are the pressure diseases of the large bowel—a wide range of conditions with a common aetiological factor: low level of fibre in the diet.

The pressure problem

Raised intra-colonic pressure due to excessive segmentation. This leads to the formation of diverticula when pressure builds up in an occluded segment.

Raised intra-abdominal pressure due to straining to evacuate the resulting concentrated stools. This may lead to the formation of haemorrhoids when pressure on the pelvic diaphragm occludes the venous return from the haemorrhoidal plexus.

Fybogel—the natural solution

By providing a natural fibre regimen Fybogel treats the main cause of pressure diseases—a low level of dietary fibre. Fybogel is a controlled regimen, presented as granules in single dose sachets.
The granules disperse in water to make a palatable drink.

Full information is available on request from:

Some patients stay on barbiturates until the day they die

Every day in Britain three patients die after deliberately taking overdoses of barbiturates – a total of over 1,000 every year[1]

Virtually all of these patients could have been transferred to Mogadon, which is much safer[2] but just as effective against insomnia[3]

The patients may still have tried to kill themselves. But with Mogadon few, if any, would have succeeded

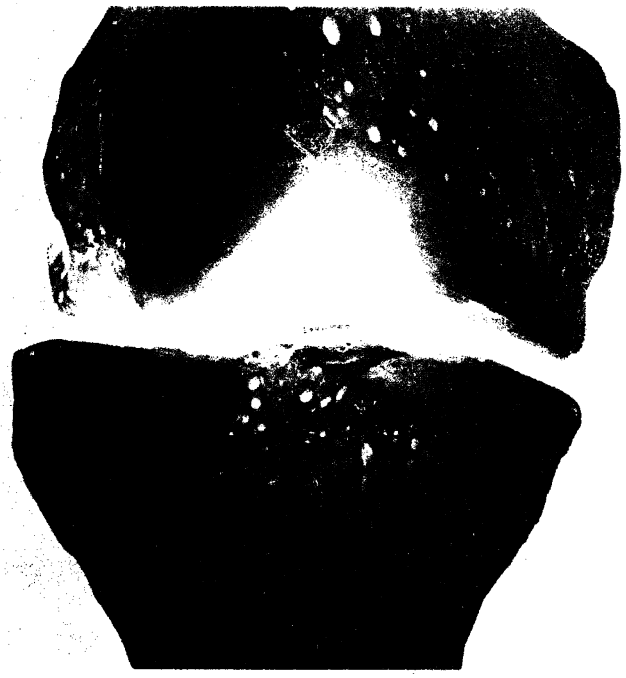
'Orudis' in arthritis



Optimal efficacy and tolerance now further confirmed by two new studies

Activity equal to that of phenylbutazone

"... in 47 patients with osteoarthrosis of the hip, it has been shown that there is little to choose in efficacy between ketoprofen ['Orudis'] 200mg daily and phenylbutazone 300mg daily ... Side-effects were mild..."[1]

Comparative clinical studies with indomethacin[3] and ibuprofen[4] have already shown that 'Orudis' affords both significant therapeutic effect and low toxicity in the treatment of arthritis.

Tolerance markedly superior to that of aspirin

"... a trial with gastroscopic examinations has allowed the adoption of the hypothesis that the new anti-inflammatory product ketoprofen ['Orudis'] is better tolerated by the gastric mucosa than acetylsalicylic acid."[2]

The latest comparisons with two further widely prescribed agents provide additional cogent evidence of its ability to meet the criteria for optimal drug management.

Bacterial throat infections in a child can be a cause for anxiety to everyone concerned.

And you'll want to make sure that the treatment you prescribe will prevent the condition turning into something worse . . . such as otitis media, with a possible legacy of impaired hearing; or a chest infection.

Ceporex is the ideal antibiotic in such cases, because it is rapidly bactericidal. This means that fever quickly subsides; so do irritation, discomfort and pain.

Ceporex, with recorded success rates of 97% in tonsillitis/pharyngitis, 94% in acute otitis media and 92% in unspecified ENT infections,* has minimal side effects and an excellent record of safety.

Are your asthmatics under too much pressure?

Older patients may be particularly susceptible to tissue damage from asthmatic attacks. And aerosol therapy, used when the attack is under way, may not be of much help.

Bronchodilators do not always work. They may not get through to the affected areas and consequently succeed only in hyperventilating unaffected parts. The patient may panic, overdose, and there is now danger of cardiac stimulation.

With steroids there is always the risk of untoward effects and they should probably be reserved for those patients for whom there is no alternative.

Only Intal prevents asthmatic attacks and eliminates these problems.

With Intal there is no danger of side effects, no risk of misuse and no diminution of therapeutic effect.

Most therapeutic agents work well in urinary tract infections, and Amoxil is no exception.

But, quite apart from its effectiveness, Amoxil is a better routine because it has six other virtues with which no other treatment can fully compare.

1. Patient-proof' Amoxil is taken t.d.s. – breakfast, teatime and bedtime – and the patient doesn't have to remember to take it on an empty stomach.

2. Economical Apart from the antibacterial sulphonamides, Amoxil is the cheapest antibiotic for urinary tract infections.

3. Safety Penicillin safety allows you to prescribe with confidence in pregnancy or where pregnancy would be a disquieting possibility (there are more than 10 million women of child-bearing age in the United Kingdom).

4. Better tolerated A remarkably low incidence of side-effects with less rash and diarrhoea than ampicillin.

AMOXIL

5. Bactericidal Amoxil eradicates bacteria, rather than merely inhibiting their growth.
6. Effective concentrations – in the blood, urine, kidney and tissue ensure rapid resolution of infection.

OCCUPATIONAL LUNG DISORDERS

by W. Raymond Parkes, MD, MRCP, DIH. Pneumoconiosis Medical Panel, Department of Health and Social Security, London; Honorary Clinical Lecturer, Cardiothoracic Institute (Brompton Hospital), London.

1974 543 pp. Illustrated 0 407 33730 X £15.00

Disorders of the lungs due to occupation are a growing problem. The increasing complexity of modern industry has resulted in a proliferation of substances which, if inhaled, may temporarily or permanently affect the lungs, and which result in disability and diagnostic difficulty.

The book approaches the subject primarily from the medical standpoint. It gives comprehensive consideration to the origins and nature of mineral and organic dusts, gases and fumes which may cause disease, and to the various occupational and other conditions in which they may be encountered.

The principles which underlie a proper understanding and diagnosis of these disorders are explained, and particular attention is paid to their pathological and radiographic features. Recent concepts of pathogenesis are discussed, including the established or suggested part played by immunological activity in different diseases and the role of pulmonary and systemic reactions to inhaled particles and other aerosols.

The book emphasizes that occupational disorders of the lungs are an integral part of thoracic and general medicine, especially in regard to differential diagnosis and treatment.

The text is profusely illustrated with macro- and microsections, chest radiographs and diagrams.

Contents. Introductory Considerations, Elements of Geology and Geochemistry. Inhaled Particles and their Fate in the lungs. Fundamentals of Pathogenesis and Pathology. The Chest Radiograph. A Joint Symposium on

CORONARY HEART DISEASE, THE MYOCARDIUM AND THE CARDIAC CELL: RECENT ADVANCES

will be held on

11th, 12th and 13th December 1974

The Royal College of Physicians, London

The aim of the Symposium is to present the very latest and the controversial aspects of coronary heart disease, the myocardium and the cardiac cell. Contributions will be by experts in their own fields and there will be maximum opportunity for free and informed discussion, including panels.

Topics will include the pathogenesis and immunology of coronary heart disease, its treatment by drugs, diet and the control of risk factors, studies of cardiac function by non-invasive and invasive techniques, including particularly coronary arteriography, the present position of exercise testing, cardiac metabolism and cellular biology, and the application of methods in nuclear medicine involving isotope techniques. The present position and future prospects of both elective and emergency cardiac surgery in coronary heart disease will be fully considered in the light of the natural history of the disease, its precise diagnosis, and the evaluation of myocardial function, with emphasis on current results, and of alternative treatment. All aspects of coronary care will be debated in a special session devoted to the report of the Joint Working Party of the Royal College of Physicians of London and the British Cardiac Society.

Speakers will include members of the staffs of both organisations and invited speakers from the United Kingdom and overseas. The symposium has been arranged by Professor John Goodwin and Dr. Lawson McDonald.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING SCHEME FOR GENERAL PRACTICE

These Hospital Sections offer vocational training for General Practice based at St. Helier Hospital, Carshalton, with a secondment to Queen Mary's Hospital, Carshalton for paediatric experience. Both hospitals are near to the Surrey countryside and within easy reach of London.

The scheme is recognized for the M.R.C.G.P., the D.Obst. R.C.O.G. and D.C.H. and the programme of training will be as follows:-

3 months in General Practice; 6 months in Accident and Emergency; 6 months in Obstetrics; 6 months in Paediatrics (at Queen Mary's Hospital for Children, Carshalton, Surrey); 6 months in Geriatrics/General Medicine; 9 months General Practice.

The Hospital Training will be given in established posts in the Senior House Officer Grade.

Regular meetings of trainers and trainees will be held throughout the three years, and a half day release scheme can be arranged during the general practitioner training.

Attachments to other clinical specialties relevant to General Practice can be offered during the Hospital appointments, and similar attachments to local authorities and other practices can be arranged during General Practice training. Training in Psychiatry will be optional for those candidates desiring it.

Excellent Postgraduate Centre and library facilities are available at St. Helier Hospital, and Queen Mary's Hospital for Children. Married accommodation may be available if required.

Applications for the next vacancy in this scheme in August, 1974 giving full details of previous medical experience and including the names of two referees, should be sent to the Hospital Secretary, St. Helier Hospital, Wrythe Lane, Carshaltonn Surrey, not later than 29th June, 1974. (59632) 21

Consultant Ophthalmologist

Applications are invited for the above appointment from candidates with the appropriate higher qualifications and experience.

The Ophthalmologist will be a member of the Medical Staff of Rokana Division of Nchanga Consolidated Copper Mines Limited based at Kitwe, but his responsibilities will cover the medical services of both Nchanga Consolidated Copper Mines Limited and Roan Consolidated Mines Limited. These two large mining groups in Zambia provide comprehensive medical services for their employees and dependants, comprising a total population of between 250,000 and 300,000 personnel (both expatriate and local). At the request of the Zambian Government, a number of non-mine patients from surrounding districts are also treated in mine hospitals. This appointment therefore offers a very wide and varied range of experience.

The curative medical services of the mines, in the Zambian copperbelt area are catered for in ten hospitals, totalling about 1,800 beds, with good Operating Theatre, X-Ray and Laboratory facilities. The Ophthalmologist will primarily operate at and from Rokana division, Kitwe, but will be expected to do some travelling within the Copperbelt area to other hospitals for emergencies and consultations when required. The total number of Medical Officers (including Consultant General Surgeons, Physicians, Gynaecologists, Anaesthetists and a Pathologist) employed by the mine is 75. The post of Consultant Ophthalmologist is a new one.

A competitive salary will be negotiated, depending on experience and qualifications. Employment is on a contract basis, preferably for a minimum of a three year period, and can be extended by mutual agreement.

Kitwe is situated more or less in the centre of the Copperbelt of Zambia, with an unrivalled climate and good sporting and recreational facilities.

Benefits include currency regulation advantages—up to one third of gross income can be sent home each month, with an additional end-of-contract allowance. Free passages to and from Zambia. A tax-free settling-in allowance, Free life assurance. A house or flat at very low rent, and domestic help easily available. Generous paid annual leave. Company primary schools available. Tax-free allowances for children's education and travel. Interest-free loan facilities for car purchase. Medical aid scheme.

Brooke Bond Liebig Limited

Our company in Tanzania (Brooke Bond Liebig Tanzania Ltd.) is seeking a Doctor to take care of expatriate families, African management and workers on its extensive Tea estates at Mufindi, Tanzania.

The responsibilities are primarily those of a General Practitioner plus running the Company's small hospital.

The Doctor has complete independence and can, if he wishes, carry out his own surgical work.

The Doctor, with his family, if any, would join a small and friendly group of expatriate families who have developed their own community activities, both indoor and outdoor.

The appointment would be for a tour of two years, renewable for a further two years if both sides wished. The salary proposed is about £T.5,000 p.a. (=£5,800 sterling p.a.)

The post would not be pensionable but there would be a substantial gratuity at the end of the two year tour.

Fringe benefits would include:

Fully furnished house, rent free but subject to tax.

Company Car.

Two servants paid by the Company.

Six weeks U.K. leave in each year of service, with excursion air fares paid for the doctor and his family and various other benefits.

Applicants should send a full curriculum vitae, or may write for an application form if they prefer, to:—

THE HOSPITAL GAZETTEER 1973

A guide to the Hospitals in the United Kingdom

This new edition is even more comprehensive than those previously published with a new easy read format. It is possible to tell at a glance:

The number of beds;
the establishment of medical staff;
nature of special departments;
study leave, off duty time, etc.;
opportunities for preparation for postgraduate diplomas;
the kind of accommodation provided;
facilities for recreation and other relevant facts.

Specially reduced price for B.M.A. members and senior medical students £2.50 including postage. (Cover price £3.50 including postage.)

improves capillary flow

Relief of symptoms in varicose disorders

Varicose veins, post-phlebitic syndrome, superficial thrombophlebitis, varicose ulcers, varicose eczema, ankle oedema, restless legs, paraesthesia, haemorrhoids.

Dosage Initial treatment: 4 capsules a day, preferably with meals. In most cases, at least four weeks treatment with PAROVEN is required before significant benefit is felt. At the point where the patient experiences benefit, the dosage may be adjusted to a maintenance level. Maintenance treatment: 1-2 capsules a day.

Side effects and Precautions In a few patients, slight gastro-intestinal disorders, flushes and headaches have been reported. These are usually overcome by taking the capsules with meals or by slight adjustment of dosage. There are no known contra-indications to PAROVEN; it is virtually non-toxic and has no teratogenic effects. In keeping with current teaching and practice its use during the first trimester should, however, be avoided.

Availability Capsules, each containing 250 mg of O—(β-hydroxyethyl)—rutosides (not less than 45% troxerutin) in bottles of 20 and 100 capsules.

Further information is available on request.
Zyma (UK) Ltd
Godalming Surrey

Paroven is known as Venoruton in certain overseas markets

Surgical hosiery provides venous support, but PAROVEN is a kind of 'physiological elastic stocking' for the capillaries.

"The most obvious effect of treatment with HR (Paroven) is the very constant relief of night cramps, with an improvement exceeding 90 per cent."
Brit J Clin Pract (1970) 23, 161

"The degree of relief in chronic aching pain in the legs was not so marked (compared with 90% improvement in night cramps and 70% improvement in heaviness of the legs), but still amounted to 54 per cent."
Brit J Clin Pract (1970) 23, 161

"Symptoms of heavy legs are improved in 70 per cent, and it was generally agreed that not only did legs feel lighter but the patients were more agile."
Brit J Clin Pract (1970) 23, 161

"The improved venous blood oxygenation and the reduced tissue oxygen extraction indicated better tissue perfusion with less blood oxygen having been taken from the increased capillary blood flow."
Brit med J (1971) 2, 138
