In ASTHMA, when Bronchodilators or Bronchodilators + Cromoglycat will not provide adequate control, Becotide Inhaler is the rational approach.

THE RATIONALE

When asthma can neither be prevented by sodium cromoglycate nor adequately relieved by a sympathomimetic bronchodilator, the most effective treatment is unquestionably a corticosteroid.

Until beclomethasone dipropionate inhaled steroid was made available (as Becotide Inhaler), corticosteroids could only be given in asthma by mouth or injection and unfortunately when administered by these routes on a long term basis, they depress the response of the hypothalamic-pituitary adrenal (HPA) axis to stress and may cause other well known undesirable side effects.

Thus the decision to prescribe steroids in asthma has posed a considerable dilemma for clinicians. Side effects have either been accepted as the inevitable consequence of efficacy or attempts have been made to minimise them by using a reduced dosage which has often led to inadequate control of the disease.

A NEW DIMENSION IN ASTHMA THERAPY

The acceptance and success to date of Becotide Inhaler has introduced a new dimension into asthma therapy. The benefits of effective control of the inflammatory processes in the lung can be achieved without causing potentially dangerous side effects, including adrenal suppression. The only adverse findings with Becotide Inhaler have been occasional hoarseness and candidiasis of the mouth and throat which responds to topical antifungal therapy without discontinuing treatment with the inhaler.

Thus patients with asthma may now be given the full benefit of steroid therapy without serious risk: for many, their whole lives can be transformed.

"For those who are poorly controlled on bronchodilators or DSCG, this treatment (Becotide Inhaler) can give complete or comparative freedom from airways obstruction without risk of adrenal suppression or other side effects."

(Brit. med. J., 1973, 3, 161.)

"These show very clearly the dramatic changes which took place on the introduction of aerosol therapy (Becotide Inhaler), but cannot illustrate the even more striking improvement which occurred in psychological adjustment to the disease and in athletic performance."

(Brit. med. J., 1973, 3, 161.)

THE CLINICAL EVIDENCE IS EXTENSIVE AND CONVINCING

Becotide Inhaler has been evaluated in many British Chest Units, at first in severe chronic asthmatic patients already maintained on systemic steroids and, as its efficacy has been established, increasingly in patients with only occasional or no previous treatment with steroids.

To date, no fewer than twenty published clinical trials confirm that Becotide Inhaler is an exceptionally effective means of controlling asthma without the risk of serious side effects.

How you choose your slice of life

Is the bread you like good for you?

Answer: yes

"If you yearn for bread like mother made (or for something rather more exotic), you'll probably find it all on a typical shopping round" — says Dr. Sally Parsonage, the food scientist and nutrition expert who contributes to Slimming & Nutrition magazine.

Yet, if you study the picture on the right, which shows national consumption shares of the various types of bread, you'll see that you tend to ignore the browns, wholemeals and 'others' in your overwhelming preference for the white varieties. Over 80% of British bread is bought in the form of a white loaf in either its wrapped or unwrapped forms.

Is the way you like your bread good for you! The answer is: Yes.

The true value of bread

Although certain minerals and vitamins have to be reduced in the milling of wheat into white flour, they are added to the flour after milling—as a legal requirement, in fact—to maintain the nutrient level of your bread. (Brown and wholemeal, of course, are extremely good nutritionally, and may be chosen by people requiring extra roughage).

*Others include malt bread, fruit bread, French bread, milk bread, "slimming" bread, white and brown bread rolls.
Source: National Food Survey 1972.

In other words, please yourself and choose your loaf: you can't go wrong. "The nutrients bread supplies", writes Dr. Sally Parsonage, "particularly the B vitamins, iron and calcium, are among the nutrients most likely to be lacking in many other foods. Bread is an important source of protein, too".

BREAD'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE AVERAGE DAILY DIET

Protein.....	17.0%
Calcium.....	13.4%
Iron.....	17.7%
B Vitamins < Niacin.....	13.7%
Thiamine.....	22.1%
Energy Value.....	14.4%

Source: National Food Survey 1972.

The actual amounts of nutrients contributed by bread to the average daily diet may surprise you.

And your favourite sandwich can contribute as much nutritionally as a cooked meal.

Your good health sandwich

Dr. Parsonage records: "a sandwich of two slices of buttered bread, 3 oz. cheese and a sliced tomato provides as much value in protein and vitamins as a bowl of tomato soup, 3 oz. boiled gammon, gravy, peas and boiled potato."

"Even slimmers," she says, "should be careful about giving up bread".

There's food for thought!

The practice of medicine today raises many complex problems of general concern to society. Rapid advances in, for example, genetics, organ transplantation, techniques for fertilization and termination of pregnancy, let alone the prolongation of life and growing public concern about death, dying and terminal care, have all produced both clinical and moral dilemmas. "Almost imperceptibly, medical progress has posed the community with problems that will need all the skill of lawyers, moralists, and theologians if the dignity of life is to be maintained" as 'The Times' medical correspondent has observed.

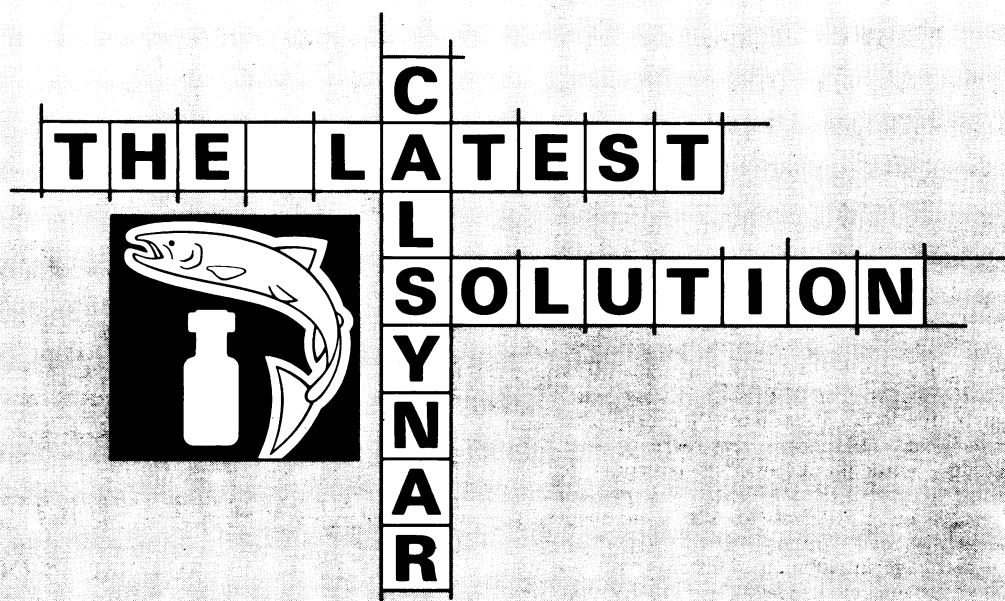

The Journal of Medical Ethics has thus been established, with a multidisciplinary Editorial Board, to promote the study of medico-moral problems. Through the Journal, it is aimed to encourage a high academic standard for this developing subject and to influence the quality of both professional and public discussion.

Published quarterly, the Journal includes papers on all aspects of medical ethics; analyses ethical concepts and theories; and features case conferences and comment on clinical practice.

The patients may still have tried to kill themselves. But with Mogadon few, if any, would have succeeded.

In confusional states following acute febrile illness or surgery, alcoholic or drug-induced psychoses, and in peripheral neuritis associated with a malabsorption syndrome, patients should benefit from 2 days intensive intravenous administration of Parentrovite high potency B and C vitamins. After which, therapy can be continued by the intravenous or the intramuscular route for 5-7 days. This treatment rapidly assists a return to normal intracellular glucose metabolism, the consequence of which is a significant improvement in the patients condition.

'Vivalan' has little or no sedative effect:<sup>1</sup> This means that patients remain alert and active and can continue with their normal daily activities.

Rapid acting.

Controlled studies<sup>2</sup> have demonstrated that patients can show a marked improvement in as little as 3 days from the start of 'Vivalan' therapy.

Widely effective.

'Vivalan' is effective in all types of depression including mixed anxiety - depressive states<sup>3</sup>.

Clinical trials have shown that as many as 70% of patients respond favourably to 'Vivalan' therapy<sup>2,4</sup>.

'Vivalan' is chemically unrelated to any anti-depressant currently available, and is a product of original ICI research.

Prescribing Information

Presentation

'Vivalan' tablets, each containing viloxazine hydrochloride equivalent to 50 mg of viloxazine, are round, biconvex, yellow, film-coated and imprinted with the name 'Vivalan'.

Use

Antidepressant.

Depression

'Vivalan' is effective in all types and severities of depression, including those cases with a marked anxiety component, and may be used concurrently with ECT. It is able to control all the symptoms of depression. As 'Vivalan' has no sedative properties, patients remain alert during the daytime. 'Vivalan' has no hypnotic effect.

Depression in Epileptics

'Vivalan', unlike the tricyclic antidepressants, has anti-convulsant properties, and is, therefore, of value in the treatment of depression in epileptic patients.

Depression in the Elderly

Because of its lack of sedative and anticholinergic effects, 'Vivalan' is well tolerated in the elderly.

Dosage and Administration

Adults

Most patients respond to between 150–300 mg/day. Therapy may be started with either one tablet three times a day, or two tablets twice a day with meals. The onset of antidepressive effect is usually seen in the first 5–10 days of treatment, and, if no effect has been seen in a fortnight, the dose should be increased. The maximum daily dose should not exceed eight tablets.

Children

Due to absence of clinical experience in children under the age of 14 years, 'Vivalan' is not recommended in such patients.

Contraindications, Warnings, etc.

There are no specific contraindications to the use of 'Vivalan'. Epileptic patients established on phenytoin may become liable to develop phenytoin toxicity if 'Vivalan' is added, and caution is, therefore, advised in their co-administration. Patients being treated with antihypertensive agents such as debrisoquine, guanethidine and bethanidine may require restabilising when 'Vivalan' is introduced into the therapeutic regimen. No marked interaction with alcohol occurs.

Pregnancy

No adverse effects have been seen in teratogenic studies in animals. There is no clinical experience of using 'Vivalan' in pregnancy. On basic principles, its use in the first trimester is to be avoided.

Side Effects

'Vivalan' is generally well tolerated and side effects are mild and transient. An upper gastrointestinal disturbance with, e.g. nausea, loss of appetite, may be seen, but this usually disappears in a few days. As 'Vivalan' is not a tricyclic antidepressant, it does not produce the anticholinergic, sedative and hypnotic side effects of those drugs, neither does it produce excessive weight gain. 'Vivalan' is not a monoamine oxidase inhibitor and dietary restrictions are not required.

Overdosage

Overdosage should be treated on general principles; there is no specific antidote. An unsuccessful suicidal attempt with 5g viloxazine together with a quantity of oxazepam and trimeprazine produced 24 hour coma. Cardiovascular system and respiration were unaffected. Treatment-lavage.

Pharmaceutical Precautions

Nil.

PL/0029/0074

Legal Category

There is no legal restriction on sale or supply. It is available only on the prescription of a medical practitioner.

Package Quantities

50 mg 'Vivalan' tablets are presented in blister strips each containing 10 tablets packed in cartons of 100 or 500 tablets.

What would you give to be able to arrest the progress of Arthritic Disease?

New clinical and biochemical evidence has shown that unlike other anti-arthritis Prinalgin capsules effect a significant reduction in the severity of rheumatoid arthritis.<sup>6,7</sup>

The implications of this in the patient with early inflammatory arthritis is that only Prinalgin can offer in the short term good control of symptoms...<sup>1,2,3,4</sup>

Several studies have shown that Prinalgin is either as effective as or superior to other anti-arthritis in providing:

- relief of pain
- easier mornings
- better gripping ability
- less joint swelling
- and fewer inflamed joints

...and in the long term a reduction in the severity of the disease.

Comparative studies of two years or more have shown that patients on Prinalgin migrated to less severe disease categories (A.R.A. rating scale fig. 1) whilst those on indomethacin showed no marked improvement.<sup>6</sup> Detailed biochemical evidence supports the conclusion that Prinalgin exerted a fundamental effect on the disease process itself.<sup>7</sup> Furthermore, intolerance, particularly gastro-intestinal, was uncommon.

A.R.A. Severity Classification

The American Rheumatism Association (A.R.A.) severity classification is accepted as providing a standard for the classification of the severity of a patient's rheumatoid arthritis. Measurements are taken of objective physical parameters: grip strength, morning stiffness, joint index and functional capacity, and a score given for each of these. The total score decides the severity of the disease in the individual and hence the A.R.A. class. Therefore a patient with very severe rheumatoid arthritis could on this system be placed in class H or I while one with mild disease would be in class A, B, or C.

DIVERTICULAR DISEASE IRRITABLE/SPASTIC COLON
HAEMORRHOIDS
ANAL FISSURE

These are the pressure diseases of the large bowel — a wide range of conditions with a common aetiological factor: low level of fibre in the diet.

The pressure problem

Raised intra-colonic pressure due to excessive segmentation. This leads to the formation of diverticula when pressure builds up in an occluded segment.

Raised intra-abdominal pressure due to straining to evacuate the resulting concentrated stools. This may lead to the formation of haemorrhoids when pressure on the pelvic diaphragm occludes the venous return from the haemorrhoidal plexus.

Fybogel — the natural solution

By providing a natural fibre regimen Fybogel treats the main cause of pressure diseases — a low level of dietary fibre. Fybogel is a controlled regimen, presented as granules in single dose sachets. The granules disperse in water to make a palatable drink.

Each sachet contains 3.5g Ispaghula Husk BPC in an effervescent base.

Why advertise the most widely prescribed antihypertensive?

Because 'Aldomet' is the most frequently prescribed modern antihypertensive and because it generally reduces elevated blood pressure smoothly, without undue fuss or bother for the patient, we believe that its other features are sometimes taken for granted.

So our advertising is intended to demonstrate to physicians the less obvious but vitally important benefits that 'Aldomet' can bring to the patient—control of all grades of hypertension in both lying and standing positions and a unique physiological action which helps protect normal heart and kidney function whilst reducing blood pressure.

ADDED YEARS

All doctors have been circularised regarding the possibility of supplementing their pension by the purchase of added years under the N.H.S. Superannuation Scheme. This operation enables a participant to increase the number of years on which the pension and other benefits are calculated, to the maximum of 40 years, if this is not attained during the course of his/her normal service. Payment for these added years may be by means of a lump sum or, in suitable circumstances, by instalments.

It is important, when considering this matter, that it is not contemplated in isolation, but is looked at in the framework of one's family finances generally, the relative ages and states of health of husband and wife and other factors.

There is no doubt that advice should be sought on this subject and it is vital that the person offering advice is cognisant not only of the various alternatives available but has a good working knowledge of the Superannuation Scheme as well.

The Medical Insurance Agency will in this — as in all matters — give an unbiased opinion and advise on alternatives available, if they should be more attractive, or will recommend purchase of added years where they provide the best answer.

You will incur no obligation by asking for our advice.

The Medical Insurance Agency was established over 60 years ago to act as independent Insurance Brokers to the Medical and Dental professions.

Through our dealings with thousands of your colleagues, we are constantly studying your problems and the vast experience of our experts in all financial fields ensures a competent and unbiased service to you entirely without fee or obligation.

Surgical hosiery provides venous support, but PAROVEN is a kind of 'physiological elastic stocking' for the capillaries.

"The most obvious effect of treatment with HR (Paroven) is the very constant relief of night cramps, with an improvement exceeding 90 per cent."

Brit J Clin Pract (1970) 23, 161

"The degree of relief in chronic aching pain in the legs was not so marked (compared with 90% improvement in night cramps and 70% improvement in heaviness of the legs), but still amounted to 54 per cent."

Brit J Clin Pract (1970) 23, 161

"Symptoms of heavy legs are improved in 70 per cent, and it was generally agreed that not only did legs feel lighter but the patients were more agile."

Brit J Clin Pract (1970) 23, 161

"The improved venous blood oxygenation and the reduced tissue oxygen extraction indicated better tissue perfusion with less blood oxygen having been taken from the increased capillary blood flow."

Relief of symptoms in varicose disorders

Varicose veins, post-phlebitic syndrome, superficial thrombophlebitis, varicose ulcers, varicose eczema, ankle oedema, restless legs, paraesthesia, haemorrhoids.

Dosage Initial treatment: 4 capsules a day, preferably with meals. In most cases, at least four weeks treatment with PAROVEN is required before significant benefit is felt. At the point where the patient experiences benefit, the dosage may be adjusted to a maintenance level. Maintenance treatment: 1-2 capsules a day.

Side effects and Precautions In a few patients, slight gastro-intestinal disorders, flushes and headaches have been reported. These are usually overcome by taking the capsules with meals or by slight adjustment of dosage. There are no known contra-indications to PAROVEN; it is virtually non-toxic and has no teratogenic effects. In keeping with current teaching and practice its use during the first trimester should, however, be avoided.

Listen to the difference between Amoxil and other

The difference which has given significantly longer periods of relief from acute exacerbations of chronic bronchitis than tetracyclines, ampicillin and cephalosporin.<sup>1</sup>

The difference that makes Amoxil more effective than ampicillin in the treatment of chest infections.<sup>2,3,4</sup>

The difference which takes over where the tetracyclines have done all you can expect of them in bronchitis—

so that significantly greater relief of all clinical symptoms can be demonstrated.<sup>5</sup>

The difference that allows Amoxil to penetrate bronchial membrane barriers regardless of the degree of inflammation.<sup>4</sup>

The difference in absorption that means Amoxil can be taken t.d.s. with or without food—which means it is simpler for patients to take properly. To these differences must be added Amoxil's safety and the fact that it is one of the least expensive therapies for respiratory infections. No wonder doctors everywhere are recognising that Amoxil makes all the difference.

Antibiotics

¶ In the cases of our severely sick in-patients, which of course cannot be compared with milder cases of out-patient practice, we found with amoxycillin [Amoxil] a clearly longer relapse rate than with other preparations.<sup>9</sup> (These included various tetracyclines, ampicillin, chloramphenicol and cephalosporin).

¶ Amoxycillin [Amoxil] was more effective than oxytetracycline when all the patients treated were considered together. Its superiority, however, was most marked in the case of the less severely affected patients, in whom the differences were highly significant.<sup>59</sup>

¶ The demonstration that amoxycillin [Amoxil] penetrates into bronchial secretions as efficiently when the mucosa is uninfamed as when it is inflamed, suggests that clearance of bacteria from the lower respiratory tract should be more easily accomplished with this drug than ampicillin. Further, there is the implication that organisms may be more readily cleared from the upper respiratory tract, which frequently acts as a reservoir of potential pathogens from which relapse of lower respiratory infection may stem.<sup>49</sup>

APPOINTMENTS

Applicants for medical appointments are advised to check whether the post advertised is included in the Important Notice and to scrutinize carefully the remuneration and terms of service offered. Any member who is in doubt about these terms in relation to B.M.A. agreements should consult the Secretary of the Association.

Advertisers are reminded that the Race Relations Board insists that no descriptive term implying racial, national, or ethnic characteristics may be used in any advertisement. Further, readers are advised not to apply for any appointment which discriminates between applicants on grounds of creed or sex.

Applicants should state name, address, age, nationality, and qualifications, and enclose (unless otherwise specified) one copy of each of three recent testimonials, with a short statement of experience and appointments held. Applications should be sent at once if no closing date is given: Canvassing disqualifies (Statutory Instrument, 1974, No. 361).

All National Health Service hospital appointments are in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of Service of Hospital Medical Staff.

Further details concerning standards of residential accommodation, telephone charges, removal allowances, study leave and other matters should be obtained from the Hospital Secretary; or by B.M.A. members from the Secretary, British Medical Association.

In particular, they will find full details of facilities provided in most hospitals in the United Kingdom in the current edition of the Hospital Gazetteer. If such details are not included members are advised to consult the Secretary of the B.M.A.

Applicants requiring hospital married accommodation are strongly advised to obtain, prior to interview, clarification in writing from the employing authority as to whether such accommodation will be available on appointment.

No advertisement may stipulate that a non-resident must live less than 10 miles from a hospital. Advertisements for post-registration house officers, senior house officers and registrars should state clearly whether the post is resident, i.e. compulsorily resident.

In all advertisements grade should be clearly indicated. Normally a consultant vacancy must be advertised as (a) part-time with the number of sessions clearly stated, or (b) whole-time with the option of maximum part-time.

In the view of the BMA, an advertiser should not insist on possession of English higher qualifications in preference to Scottish or Irish qualifications (or vice versa).

TRAINEES IN COMMUNITY MEDICINE

The Board is looking for one or two doctors to train in

This is a good opportunity for active young doctors to combine practical experience with academic training.

Practical Experience

Experience of all aspects of Community Medicine is available,

£7,300

— for as little as one year — in Zambia, one which will give you both a wide range of professional experience and early responsibility. It is with the nation's major mining organisation, Nchanga Consolidated Copper Mines Ltd, with an international staff of technical specialists.

The company is responsible for providing full

There is a senior doctor staff of over 40, together first aid dressing stations.

General Duty Medical Officers will be involved in preventive and curative medicine, surgery, anaes-thetics, gynaecology/obstetrics, public health and nutrition; and although the mines have a strict safety code an amount of accident work can be expected.

Contracts may be negotiated for periods of one to three years. Locums can also often be arranged.

Salaries will depend on experience, but the minimum is K11,275 gross per annum (£7,320 based on an exchange rate of K1.=65p). In addition there is a tax free settling-in allowance; subsidised Company

A Brighter Outlook in Allergic Rhinitis

Beconase NASAL SPRAY

IS BOTH HIGHLY EFFECTIVE

—in prophylaxis and in relieving distressing symptoms

AND ELIMINATES THE PROBLEMS OF THERAPY

- the problem of rebound congestion
- the inconvenience of drowsiness
- restrictions on driving or operating machinery
- the need to avoid alcohol
- the worry of adverse systemic steroid effects

Beconase Nasal Spray is a metered-dose aerosol with a specially designed nasal applicator providing budesonide dipropionate BP, a selective steroid which controls the inflammatory processes at the allergic mucous membrane in dosages which do not cause systemic side effects or adrenal suppression. This effect, already established in the management of bronchial asthma (with Becotide Inhaler), has now been conclusively demonstrated in clinical trials in both seasonal and perennial allergic rhinitis.

"It is concluded that budesonide dipropionate aerosol intranasally is an effective and apparently harmless way of controlling the nasal symptoms in hay fever."

(Brit. med. J., 1973, 4, 464)

In the treatment of parkinsonism

SINEMET®

Carbidopa/MSD and levodopa/MSD

puts levodopa in its place—in the brain

Levodopa therapy is aimed at replenishing dopamine, which is deficient in the corpus striatum of patients suffering from parkinsonism. But extensive metabolism of levodopa takes place in extracerebral tissues, often producing troublesome side effects.

By inhibiting this metabolism of levodopa only outside the brain, carbidopa, discovered by MSD, allows more levodopa to reach the brain, for conversion into dopamine.

'Sinemet' is a combination of levodopa and carbidopa. With a lower dose of levodopa in 'Sinemet', higher brain dopamine levels can be achieved. By reducing certain of the dose-limiting adverse reactions usually experienced with plain levodopa, 'Sinemet' permits more patients to obtain adequate relief.

Highly effective

'Sinemet' is highly effective at doses approximately one-fifth of those needed with plain levodopa.

Simplified dosage— rapid response

'Sinemet' offers prompt relief of many of the major symptoms of Parkinson's disease — fully effective doses are usually reached within seven days compared with weeks or months with levodopa alone.

Reduced peripheral side effects

By reducing certain of the dose-limiting side effects produced by plain levodopa, 'Sinemet' permits more patients to obtain adequate relief.

Ease of transfer

Patients maintained on levodopa can be easily transferred to 'Sinemet', with expectation of better patient acceptance and response.

SINEMET®

Fulfills the levodopa promise for more patients

The standard strength tablet is known as 'Sinemet' (25 mg carbidopa and 250 mg levodopa). Also available is 'Sinemet'-100 (10 mg carbidopa and 100 mg levodopa). Detailed information is available to physicians on request. ® denotes registered trademark.

The menopause is a 'natural' occurrence for almost every woman, and it is dreaded by most because of the unpleasant symptoms that so often accompany it.

These symptoms can range far beyond the usual hot flushes and nocturnal sweating to include such problems as insomnia, irritability and depression. And they can all, totally or in part, be attributed to the failure of the adrenal cortex to respond quickly enough to the dramatic decline in ovarian oestrone output during the climacteric.

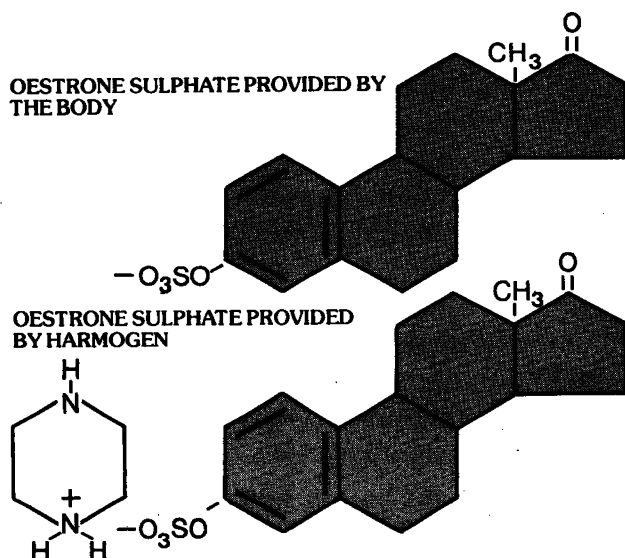

Few doctors these days would disagree with the need to alleviate these symptoms by partial oestrogen replacement therapy, until such times as the adrenal cortex catches up.

Oestrogen replacement therapy has, of course, been practised for some time using Conjugated Oestrogens and Esterified Oestrogens. Both are derived from a 'natural' source—pregnant mares' urine—and apart from varying quantities of sodium oestrone sulphate also contain a high percentage of sodium equiline sulphate (a more potent equine hormone) and can also contain other unspecified oestrogens.

Ideally, you would wish to put back exactly what the body has been producing naturally—and nothing more. Harmogen has been formulated to do just that. The oestrone in Harmogen is pharmacologically identical to human oestrone. Only a small amount of piperazine has been added as a stabiliser, but this is pharmacologically insignificant and separates from the conjugate on ingestion.

In a recent series of highly sensitive tests, comparing the oestrone in Harmogen with human oestrone, the results confirmed unequivocally that the two were identical.

of the two samples were the same and as definitive as a human fingerprint in identifying both samples.

showed both samples to have the same melting point.
