Cardiovascular Diseases in the Tropics (1974)

The book presents the present state of knowledge regarding many conditions previously thought to be peculiar to the temperate and developed countries and also deals with those disorders peculiar to the tropical situation. It provides an up-to-date review suitable both for clinical and epidemiological work and for further research into these disorders.

Price £4.50 (U.S.A. $13.50)

A New Look at Infectious Diseases (1974)

Infectious diseases remain as much a medical challenge as ever, and the articles collected in book form under the title A New Look at Infectious Diseases covers many aspects of diagnosis and treatment. The widespread use of immunization, with its occasional hazards, the use of newer antibiotics, and increased risk of spread by travel are all dealt with, as well as the problems of diagnosis produced by present day doctors' unfamiliarity with many diseases which were formerly so common and widespread.

Price £2.00 (U.S.A. $6.00)

Medicine in Old Age (1974)

The series of twenty two articles published in the British Medical Journal throughout the winter have been collected in book form as a convenient source of reference for general practitioners. The emphasis is on remedial mechanisms, and the use that can be made of psychogeriatric and social services in keeping the elderly healthy and relatively independent members of the community.

Price £2.00 (U.S.A. $6.00)

Today's Drugs/3 (1973)

The third and final volume of the 'Today's Drugs' series, like its predecessors, is based on BMJ articles revised and brought up to date by their authors. It deals with respiratory agents, drugs acting on the central nervous system, and a miscellaneous group of drugs.

This is what we call practising medicine.

A career in Naval medicine can be a rewarding experience. Opportunities to specialise abound. And perhaps above all else, there is an immense satisfaction to be gained from the wide variety of work you will be involved in.

At sea, for instance, you could be anywhere from the Mediterranean to the Pacific Ocean. Looking after the health and well being of the company of a modern warship.

And though you could spend as long as the first eighteen months of your five year Short Service Commission on board different ships, you need have no fear of losing contact with mainstream medicine. For no matter where you are, you will be kept informed of current medical opinion.

After this, the choice is yours. Post graduate medical training and a career in the clinical disciplines at one of our naval district general hospitals. Haslar or Plymouth, for instance, with their wide spectrum of clinical material drawn from naval personnel, their dependants and the local civilian population as well. There are also naval hospitals in Malta, Gibraltar and Mauritius, with opportunities for exchange appointments elsewhere.

Or you might prefer occupational medicine in our research orientated naval dockyards. Aviation medicine with its accent on rotary wing support of the Fleet. And for those with an administrative turn of mind, community medicine.

Royal Naval expertise in maritime medicine is recognised world wide and research into underwater medicine, nuclear medicine and the closed submarine environment is centred at the Institute of Naval Medicine at Alverstoke.

Naval general practice in well staffed and equipped medical centres extend as far afield as Hong Kong and Singapore. And new training schemes are now under way in the United Kingdom.

Should you be moved or sent abroad at any time, all expenses will be paid by us. We will help you with accommodation (at very reasonable rents) and provide allowances for the education of your children, if you have a family.

If you enter the Royal Navy immediately after registration you will be given the rank of Surgeon Lieutenant and a salary of £4,776, rising to £4,929 after four years.

On the other hand, if you are older (up to the age of forty) and more experienced, we can offer you a number of opportunities in general practice and the specialities. And, depending on your post-registration experience, you could enter as a Surgeon Lieutenant Commander at a salary of £5,780, rising to £6,375 after five years.

Then, at the end of your five year Short Service Commission you could leave with a tax free gratuity of £3,000.

But if it is mutually agreeable, you could apply for a Full Career Commission or a 16 year pensionable commission. The choice is yours.

In the meantime if you would like further information, write giving details of your age and qualifications to Surgeon Commander L.C. Banks, R.N., (724 BU22) Department of the Medical Director General (Naval), Empress State Building, Fulham, London SW6.

Current Topics in Immunology Series

Editor: Professor John Turk

3: BLOOD GROUP TOPICS

Barbara E. Dodd and Patrick J. Lincoln

In this book, the authors are concerned primarily with blood group antibodies as they impinge on clinical medicine. The treatment of the material does not follow the usual pattern in books on the subject, because the emphasis is placed on the immunological aspects of blood groups. The book is written by authors who have many years' experience of active participation in all aspects of the subjects discussed.

why deny them selective fluoridation?

Milk when FLUORIDISED and distributed to children is an effective prophylactic measure against caries · Voluntarily used this fail/safe method provides known dosages daily · Maximum protection is obtained as young teeth develop · This technique does not infringe the personal liberty of adults and removes any fears of possible fluoride side-effects · Dentamilk for children is a SELECTIVE, economic and proven way to lessen a world-wide disease · It deserves serious attention from all who specialize or engage in preventive dentistry.

Fybogel

the new therapeutic solution for the treatment of pressure diseases of the large bowel

DIVERTICULAR DISEASE IRRITABLE/SPASTIC COLON
HAEMORRHOIDS
ANAL FISSURE

These are the pressure diseases of the large bowel — a wide range of conditions with a common aetiological factor: low level of fibre in the diet.

The pressure problem

Raised intra-colonic pressure due to excessive segmentation. This leads to the formation of diverticula when pressure builds up in an occluded segment.

Raised intra-abdominal pressure due to straining to evacuate the resulting concentrated stools. This may lead to the formation of haemorrhoids when pressure on the pelvic diaphragm occludes the venous return from the haemorrhoidal plexus.

Fybogel — the natural solution

By providing a natural fibre regimen Fybogel treats the main cause of pressure diseases — a low level of dietary fibre. Fybogel is a controlled regimen, presented as granules in single dose sachets. The granules disperse in water to make a palatable drink.

Reckitt & Colman Pharmaceutical Division

Each sachet contains 3.5g Ispaghula Husk BPC in an effervescent base.

VIVALAN

IN THE TREATMENT OF DEPRESSION

The unique antidepressant from ICI.

Non-sedative.

'Vivalan' has little or no sedative effect¹. This means that patients remain alert and active and can continue with their normal daily activities.

Rapid acting.

Controlled studies² have demonstrated that patients can show a marked improvement in as little as 3 days from the start of 'Vivalan' therapy.

Widely effective.

'Vivalan' is effective in all types of depression including mixed anxiety - depressive states³.

Clinical trials have shown that as many as 70% of patients respond favourably to 'Vivalan' therapy^{2,4}.

'Vivalan' is chemically unrelated to any antidepressant currently available, and is a product of original ICI research.

VIVALAN

'Vivalan' is a trade mark for viloxazine.

VIVALAN

Prescribing Information

Presentation

'Vivalan' tablets, each containing viloxazine hydrochloride equivalent to 50 mg of viloxazine, are round, biconvex, yellow, film-coated and imprinted with the name 'Vivalan'.

Use

Antidepressant.

Depression

'Vivalan' is effective in all types and severities of depression, including those cases with a marked anxiety component, and may be used concurrently with ECT. It is able to control all the symptoms of depression. As 'Vivalan' has no sedative properties, patients remain alert during the daytime. 'Vivalan' has no hypnotic effect.

Depression in Epileptics

'Vivalan', unlike the tricyclic antidepressants, has anti-convulsant properties, and is, therefore, of value in the treatment of depression in epileptic patients.

Depression in the Elderly

Because of its lack of sedative and anticholinergic effects, 'Vivalan' is well tolerated in the elderly.

Dosage and Administration

Adults

Most patients respond to between 150–300 mg/day. Therapy may be started with either one tablet three times a day, or two tablets twice a day with meals. The onset of antidepressive effect is usually seen in the first 5–10 days of treatment, and, if no effect has been seen in a fortnight, the dose should be increased. The maximum daily dose should not exceed eight tablets.

Children

Due to absence of clinical experience in children under the age of 14 years, 'Vivalan' is not recommended in such patients.

Contraindications, Warnings, etc.

There are no specific contraindications to the use of 'Vivalan'. Epileptic patients established on phenytoin may become liable to develop phenytoin toxicity if 'Vivalan' is added, and caution is, therefore, advised in their co-administration. Patients being treated with antihypertensive agents such as debrisoquine, guanethidine and bethanidine may require restabilising when 'Vivalan' is introduced into the therapeutic regimen. No marked interaction with alcohol occurs.

Pregnancy

No adverse effects have been seen in teratogenic studies in animals. There is no clinical experience of using 'Vivalan' in pregnancy. On basic principles, its use in the first trimester is to be avoided.

Side Effects

'Vivalan' is generally well tolerated and side effects are mild and transient. An upper gastrointestinal disturbance with, e.g. nausea, loss of appetite, may be seen, but this usually disappears in a few days. As 'Vivalan' is not a tricyclic antidepressant, it does not produce the anticholinergic, sedative and hypnotic side effects of those drugs, neither does it produce excessive weight gain. 'Vivalan' is not a monoamine oxidase inhibitor and dietary restrictions are not required.

Overdosage

Overdosage should be treated on general principles; there is no specific antidote. An unsuccessful suicidal attempt with 5g viloxazine together with a quantity of oxazepam and trimeprazine produced 24 hour coma. Cardiovascular system and respiration were unaffected. Treatment-lavage.

Pharmaceutical Precautions

Legal Category

There is no legal restriction on sale or supply. It is available only on the prescription of a medical practitioner.

Some people take barbiturates because they can't face another day

Every year many thousands of people attempt to kill themselves with barbiturates. Some die. Most survive. But usually only after intensive treatment, in hospital.

Virtually all of these patients could be transferred to Mogadon, which is much safer,¹ but just as effective in inducing sleep.² Moreover, it causes few of the barbiturates' many other problems.^{3,4}

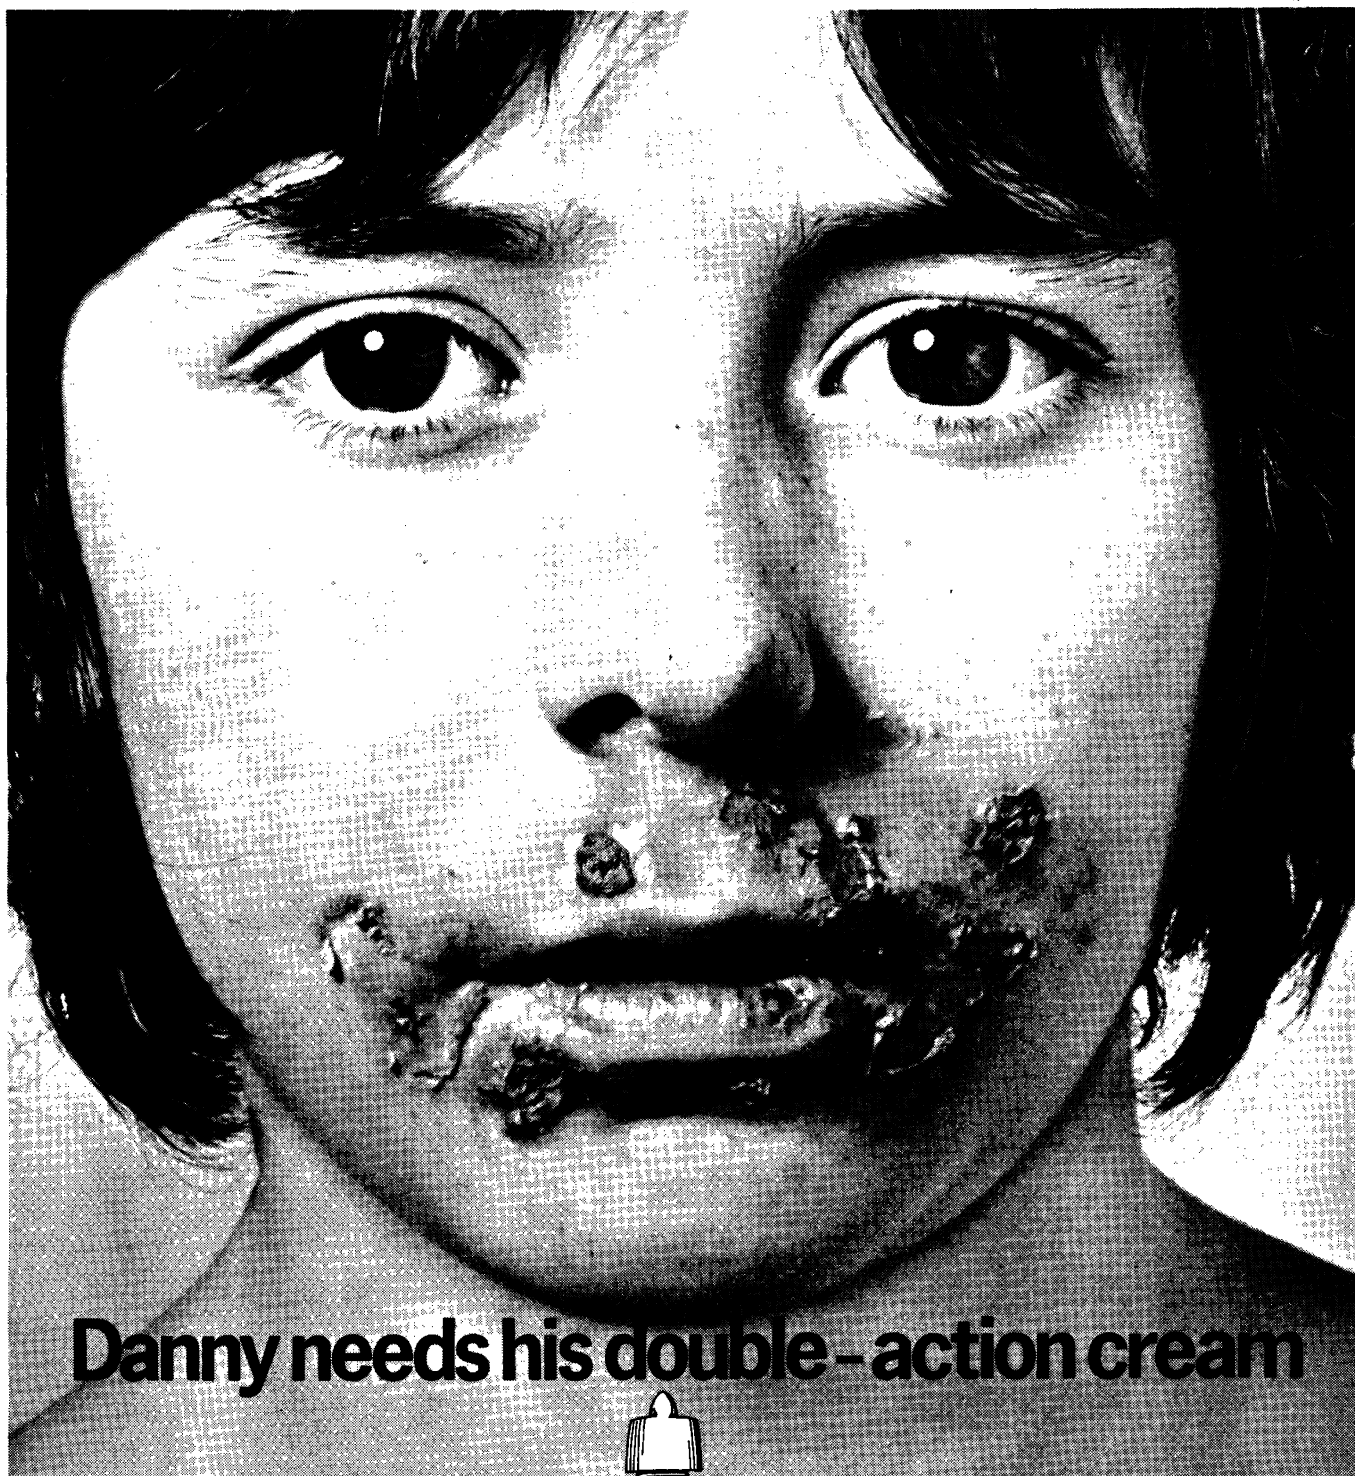

Patients may still try to kill themselves. But with Mogadon few, if any, would succeed and most would recover in less than 12 hours without treatment.¹

Mogadon: far safer, far better

Ostermilk Complete Formula for contented doctors, nurses and mothers.

Ostermilk Complete Formula, our new low-solute milk-food for babies, has now become the fastest growing baby milk-food in the country.

Clinical trials have clearly shown that babies on this Ostermilk are 'more contented'; they get more prolonged satisfaction between feeds, suffer less from regurgitation and severe wind and are less likely to have loose stools. Also, there is a considerable decrease in napkin rash.

Doctors have been quick to recognise the advantages of the new formula. The lower phosphorus content virtually eliminates the risk of hypocalcaemia and possible neonatal tetany. The low solute content reduces the chance of hypernatraemic dehydration. And the inclusion of carbohydrate as maltodextrin helps to overcome the problems of lactose intolerance.

Nurses, too, benefit from the new formula as it is available for hospital use in its ready-prepared form, Ostermilk Ready-to-Feed milk-food for babies. This system provides individual sterilized feeds in disposable glass bottles. So nursing staff spend less time with preparation and are more free to care for mothers and babies.

Out of hospital, mother finds Ostermilk Complete Formula, in its powder form, very quick and easy to prepare as it can be mixed in the bottle. She doesn't even have to add sugar. It really is complete.

We're sure that the increasing number of hospitals and mothers now using our new Ostermilk will lead to many more contented babies. And a great deal of satisfaction, too, among all those concerned with infant feeding and care.

APPOINTMENTS

Applicants for medical appointments are advised to check whether the post advertised is included in the Important Notice and to scrutinize carefully the remuneration and terms of service offered. Any member who is in doubt about these terms in relation to B.M.A. agreements should consult the Secretary of the Association.

Advertisers are reminded that the Race Relations Board insists that no descriptive term implying racial, national, or ethnic characteristics may be used in any advertisement. Further, readers are advised not to apply for any appointment which discriminates between applicants on grounds of creed or sex.

HOSPITAL APPOINTMENTS

Applicants should state names, address, age, nationality, and qualifications, and enclose (unless otherwise specified) one copy of each of three recent testimonials, with a short statement of experience and appointments held. Applications should be sent at once if no closing date is given: Canvassing disqualifies (Statutory Instrument, 1974, No. 361).

All National Health Service hospital appointments are in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of Service of Hospital Medical Staff.

Further details concerning standards of residential accommodation, telephone charges, removal allowances, study leave and other matters should be obtained from the Hospital Secretary; or by B.M.A. members from the Secretary, British Medical Association.

In particular, they will find full details of facilities provided in most hospitals in the United Kingdom in the current edition of the Hospital Gazetteer. If such details are not included members are advised to consult the Secretary of the B.M.A.

Applicants requiring hospital married accommodation are strongly advised to obtain, prior to interview, clarification in writing from the employing authority as to whether such accommodation will be available on appointment.

No advertisement may stipulate that a non-resident must live less than 10 miles from a hospital. Advertisements for post-registration house officers, senior house officers and registrars should state clearly whether the post is resident, i.e. compulsorily resident.

In all advertisements grade should be clearly indicated. Normally a consultant vacancy must be advertised as (a) part-time with the number of sessions clearly stated, or (b) whole-time with the option of maximum part-time.

In the view of the B.M.A., an advertiser should not insist on possession of English higher qualifications in preference to Scottish or Irish qualifications (or vice versa).

Scope in Zambia for a

Medical Officer General Duties and Anaesthetics

Roan Consolidated Mines Limited in Zambia has a vacancy at its Chibuluma Division for a Medical Officer whose responsibilities will include hospital out-patient sessions, clinic visits and some administration. He will also have medical in-patient responsibilities and will have one routine anaesthetic list per week and, on a rota basis, will share emergency anaesthetic call duties with usually one other medical officer. Previous hospital appointments should therefore include experience in anaesthetics.

A broad general experience in hospitals and general practices over several years would be an advantage, as the successful candidate will be expected to take charge of the medical unit in the absence of the Chief Medical Officer. The man appointed will be based at Kalulushi where the company provides a comprehensive health service for its employees and their dependants of Chibuluma Division. The curative medical services have an establishment of 4 doctors and consist of well-equipped hospital and 4 clinics in the area. The hospital has nearly 100 beds and is run by qualified nursing and para-medical staff.

A competitive salary will be negotiated depending on experience and qualifications for a three-year contract.

Additional benefits include ■ tax free settling-in allowance ■ tax free children's education and travel allowances ■ generous leave conditions and return passages paid every two years ■ free life assurance ■ car provided.
