

When pain is severe enough to warrant an injection...

Even when a patient is in severe pain you may have reservations about injecting an opiate. You have to consider the drawbacks as well as the benefits. You may get the strong analgesia you do want, but you're likely to get side-effects you don't want. Nausea, vomiting, smooth muscle effects and respiratory depression, to say nothing of abuse liability and all the trouble of M.D.A. restrictions.

The alternative is Fortral injectable. With Fortral, the disadvantages are unlikely to be of the same degree as those of the opiates. And, of course, with Fortral, there are no M.D.A. restrictions. Fortral means not only relief from severe pain for your patient, but also relief from the disadvantages usually associated with the opiates.

FORTRAL INJECTION

potent analgesia - without all the disadvantages of the opiates

Fortral injection is supplied in ampoules of 1 & 2 ml containing 30 mg pentazocine base per ml as the lactate.

Fortral is a registered trade mark.

Mrs. Jackson's migraines, while frequent, do not follow an entirely predictable pattern. She dislikes the side-effects of ergotamine treatments: long-term prophylaxis would involve an unacceptable degree of over-medication. Is there an alternative?

2 PINK MIGRAVE, taken at the first warning, will often completely abort impending Migraine attacks. Residual symptoms, if any occur, can be controlled with Yellow Migrave. Like most patients, Mrs. Jackson will find such a regime preferable, because Migrave offers:

- Less medication than with long-term prophylactic treatments
- Economic dosage, taken only as attacks occur
- Proven effectiveness in 79% of attacks²
- Considerably less vomiting than with ergotamine¹
- Proven patient preference¹

The powerful one

Because DF 118 is a powerful analgesic it works well in small doses, leaves your patient alert and allows him to go about his everyday tasks normally, without the need for follow-ups until a repeat is necessary.

Transfer a chronic patient to DF 118 and notice how dramatically you reduce his analgesic intake. The effective dose, once established, will remain steady and any concomitant therapy is simpler for him to control.

Acute patients, too, benefit from DF 118 since the fully active oral route lessens the need for injections. For patients who cannot swallow tablets Elixir DF 118 offers an alternative form with greater flexibility of dosage.

Low dosage leads to low cost and the basic cost of 28 tablets (an average week's supply) is only 37 1/2p.

Each DF 118 tablet contains Dihydrocodeine tartrate BP 30mg.

Each 5ml Elixir DF 118 contains Dihydrocodeine tartrate BP 10mg.

DF 118 subdues the pain,
but not the patient.

Permanent Health Insurance is a contract that remains in force no matter how many claims you make or how long they last—it enables your income, and practice expenses to be maintained during periods of ill-health, when your regular income ceases or is considerably reduced.

There are a number of plans from which we can help you choose the contract most suited to your personal circumstances. The plan you select will run until you reach the age of 55, 60 or 65—whichever fits in with your personal pension arrangements.

You may choose a plan where the benefits remain constant throughout the term, as do the premiums payable; or for a slightly higher premium which also remains constant you can arrange for the benefit to be increased by 3% p.a. compound whilst claiming; this plan is specially attractive in the event of incapacity lasting for a long period of time.

Policies are available under which benefits automatically increase annually irrespective of whether a claim is being made or not, whilst premiums are only altered every five years. One plan attracts bonuses which are allocated in a similar way to with-profit Life Assurance policies—the bonuses being paid at the selected terminating age or earlier death.

You will be surprised how little it costs to enjoy the peace of mind that a Permanent Health Insurance can bring.

You insure your house, car and other possessions, yet none is so valuable as your earning power. Doesn't it make sense to insure that too?

The Medical Insurance Agency will in this—as in all matters—give an unbiased opinion and advise on the alternatives available. Please return the coupon below for further information.

TODAY'S TREATMENT

Faced with a succession of new drugs, doctors need authoritative advice on the selection of the most effective remedies for common disorders; and that is the aim of Today's Treatment. This first volume contains articles published in the BMJ in 1974-75 on disorders of the skin and blood and on psychiatric and neurological diseases. These simple clear accounts of assessment and management provide all the information needed for a rational choice of the best treatment for each individual patient.

CEDO CEDOCARD CARD

ISOSORBIDE
DINITRATE

CEDOCARD is indicated for the prophylaxis and treatment of acute attacks of angina pectoris, and for the long-term management of coronary insufficiency.

Because of its method of manufacture, CEDOCARD has many important advantages over nitroglycerin and other preparations of isosorbide dinitrate.

* CEDOCARD, unlike nitroglycerin, is highly stable and does not lose its activity, even over extended periods.

* CEDOCARD is highly soluble with a correspondingly rapid onset of action which is both consistent and reliable.

* CEDOCARD has a prolonged duration of activity because it is only slowly metabolised by the liver.

In patients with congestive heart failure, there is evidence^{1 2 3} that the vasodilation achieved by CEDOCARD effectively reduces the left ventricular filling pressure (L.V.F.P.), permitting a more effective contraction of the heart in patients who have had an infarct.

For example, isosorbide dinitrate was given orally, at a dosage of 30mg, to 21 patients with myocardial infarction and with an L.V.F.P. of approximately 20mm Hg. A significant decrease of L.V.F.P. was recorded, lasting for 4 to 5 hours.⁴

CEDOCARD can be taken either orally or sublingually.

ORALLY For prophylaxis, CEDOCARD tablets may be taken orally, when a more prolonged protection is achieved.

The dosage should be 1 or 2 tablets (5-10mg), 3 to 4 times daily.

Activity commences after 15 to 20 minutes and lasts 4 to 6 hours.

SUBLINGUALLY For the treatment of acute attacks of angina pectoris, or before exercise likely to promote an anginal attack, CEDOCARD should be taken sublingually.

CEDOCARD tablets dissolve within 20 seconds to give immediate relief which lasts for up to 2 hours (unlike nitroglycerin which is only active for 20 to 30 minutes). Together, the advantages of CEDOCARD permit a dramatic reduction in number, duration and severity of anginal attacks.

Pocket Pack Each pack of CEDOCARD comes with its own pull-off pocket pack for maximum patient convenience. The pocket pack slips conveniently into pocket or handbag, allowing patients to carry CEDOCARD tablets at all times, for day-long control of angina.

SIDE-EFFECTS As with nitroglycerin and other nitrates, temporary vascular headache (typical nitrate headache) may occur during the first few days of therapy with CEDOCARD, especially when doses of 40mg or more are given. These headaches usually disappear by temporary reduction of the dose.

COMMERCIAL APPOINTMENTS

Vice President of Medical Affairs

Denmark

First class salary

This is an exceptional opportunity—for a young and vigorous physician with broadly-based experience in the pharmaceutical industry—to plan, install and develop an international medical affairs function.

Our client, Novo Industri A/S, is a medium-sized and highly successful company specialising in two main fields of activity—pharmaceuticals and biochemicals. Novo has worldwide sales in excess of £60 million and subsidiaries in 13 countries, and is currently embarking upon a substantial international expansion programme.

In the pharmaceutical field, the company is best known for its insulin preparations, of which it is the world's largest exporter. Apart from a major on-going commitment to research into the aetiology and treatment of diabetes, other fields of current research interest include endocrinology sensu lato, penicillin and cephalosporin antibiotics, cardiovascular agents, radioimmunologicals, and enzymes for medical use. Pharmaceutical R & D expenditure is presently running at some £3.5 million per year.

As part of its international expansion programme, Novo seeks a Vice President of Medical Affairs. This is an entirely new position, and the successful candidate will play a crucial role in directing the Company's worldwide medical activities, including clinical trials on both marketed products and new compounds under development, negotiation with drug registration authorities, and the provision of strategic marketing advice and support.

Novo has an unusually young and dynamic Corporate Management Board, and the new Vice President—ideally aged about 35 to 45—will need style, drive, enthusiasm and all-round standards of excellence to make his mark.

The post will be based at the Company's modern headquarters and research laboratories, located in a pleasant semi-rural area about 20 minutes drive from the centre of Copenhagen.

Even allowing for the high taxation rates and cost of living in Denmark, an exceptionally attractive remuneration package will be negotiated individually. Other benefits will of course include a car and the provision of tuition facilities in Danish at the company's expense.

If you meet our requirements, please write for additional information and an application form, or 'phone if you would like to discuss the position further. Please quote Reference NC 17.

Dr. A. E. F. Chandler, Talentmark Ltd,
King House, 11 Westbourne Grove,
London W2 4UA. Tel: 01-229 2266.

As further medical recruitment is planned shortly, we should also be pleased to hear from young internationally-minded physicians in the pharmaceutical industry whose experience does not yet equip them for such a senior appointment.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH

Medical Officer

NATIONAL COAL BOARD

South Midlands Area

A Medical Officer is required to act as Deputy to the Head of the Medical Department at Area Headquarters, near Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Leics.

The range of occupational hazards in the coal industry is wide. It is, therefore, the Board's firm policy progressively to improve the working environment. The Medical Officer's role in this work is a challenging one, calling for competence both in clinical and preventive medicine, while research is carried out in collaboration with the Institute of Occupational Medicine in Edinburgh, the industry's research centre for medical and allied problems.

Interested applicants should preferably be under 35 years of age, be fully registered practitioners in the U.K. and have had good all-round medical and surgical experience. It would be expected that after training the successful candidate would obtain the Diploma in Industrial Health or some higher qualification.

Salary on appointment is expected to be not less than £7000 but will depend on age and experience.

Please apply in writing to the

APPOINTMENTS

Applicants for medical appointments are advised to check whether the post advertised is included in the Important Notice and to scrutinize carefully the remuneration and terms of service offered. Any member who is in doubt about these terms in relation to B.M.A. agreements should consult the Secretary of the Association.

Advertisers are reminded that the Race Relations Board insists that no descriptive term implying racial, national, or ethnic characteristics may be used in any advertisement. Further, readers are advised not to apply for any appointment which discriminates between applicants on grounds of creed or unreasonably on grounds of sex.

HOSPITAL APPOINTMENTS

Applicants should state names, address, age, nationality, and qualifications, and enclose (unless otherwise specified) one copy of each of three recent testimonials, with a short statement of experience and appointments held. Applications should be sent at once if no closing date is given: Canvassing disqualifies (Statutory Instrument, 1974, No. 361).

All National Health Service hospital appointments are in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of Service of Hospital Medical Staff.

Further details concerning standards of residential accommodation, telephone charges, removal allowances, study leave and other matters should be obtained from the Hospital Secretary; or by B.M.A. members from the Secretary, British Medical Association.

In particular, they will find full details of facilities provided in most hospitals in the United Kingdom in the current edition of the Hospital Gazetteer. If such details are not included members are advised to consult the Secretary of the B.M.A.

Applicants requiring hospital married accommodation are strongly advised to obtain, prior to interview, clarification in writing from the employing authority as to whether such accommodation will be available on appointment.

Advertisements for post-registration house officers, senior house officers and registrars should state clearly whether the post is resident, i.e. compulsorily resident.

In all advertisements grade should be clearly indicated. Normally a consultant vacancy must be advertised as (a) part-time with the number of sessions clearly stated, or (b) whole-time with the option of maximum part-time.

In the view of the B.M.A. an advertiser should not insist on possession of English higher qualifications in preference to Scottish or Irish qualifications (or vice versa).

Resident Medical Officers

Australian Department of Health Darwin and Alice Springs

Darwin, principal city of the Northern Territory, is rapidly returning to pre-cyclone conditions and the public amenities and commercial activities have been restored. With the recovery of the city and the increasing population, currently in excess of 45,000, the services and standards within the Hospital are constantly being built up. Darwin Hospital is currently equipped with 285 beds and this is expected to rise to 400 beds when reconstruction is fully completed. There are specialist units in all the major disciplines.

A number of experienced doctors are still needed. The situation remains challenging and requires adaptable practitioners with a flexible approach.

Appointments may be arranged either full-time to the Casualty-General Outpatients Department where the work is general practice in type or rotation through terms in specialist disciplines with some Casualty rostering.

Alice Springs is a growing centre with a population in excess of 15,000 with all the facilities of comparable sized towns elsewhere in Australia. The new Hospital with 320 beds is reaching completion. Specialities at the Hospital include Surgery, Medicine, Psychiatry, Paediatrics, Obstetrics and Gynaecology, Radiology, E.N.T., Ophthalmology and Pathology. The work is interesting and varied and aboriginal patients make up about half the total number of cases seen.

Qualifications Doctors who are eligible for registration in the Northern Territory and in their second or following years after graduation may be considered.

Salary Within the range $A12244 - 17224. Commencing salary is determined by years of experience after graduation. At present exchange rate, £Stgl v $A1.41.

Conditions Air fares for the successful applicants and families are payable by the Department. Salary will be paid from the date of departure. Other conditions include payment of 'call-out', 'stand-by', District and Taxation Allowances; Long service and recreation leave.

Applicants must be Australian citizens or persons eligible for permanent residence in Australia.

What the papers say

Shortest Acting

"With doses up to 1 mg, the natriuresis was largely complete within 3 hrs."³
 "It (Burinex) has a short duration of action, being virtually complete in 3 hrs."⁴

Fast Acting

"The rapid absorption from the gastrointestinal tract is reflected in the brisk diuresis established within the hour."¹
 "Its (Burinex Injection) onset of action is within 10 min."²
 "Bumetanide is rapidly absorbed from the gut."³

Clinically Effective

"Fourteen patients showed a good diuretic response on bumetanide where previous treatment with frusemide had proved either unsatisfactory or too slow."⁵
 "An impressive diminution of the signs of pulmonary oedema was seen in most patients and in some the clearance of alveolar oedema was dramatic."⁶

"Based upon our experience with the use of bumetanide in several hundreds of patients and the detailed studies reported above, it may be concluded that this new diuretic agent is a very useful drug in the treatment of congestive cardiac failure."⁷

"Our study... confirms that bumetanide is a potent diuretic effective over a wide dose range and in a variety of clinical conditions."¹

Well tolerated

"Burinex was extremely well tolerated."¹²
 "Bumetanide was well tolerated by patients."¹
 "Overall, bumetanide showed itself to be a safe and effective diuretic when administered to severely ill patients in a busy hospital milieu."⁵

The correct amount of K

"It is known from short-term studies that 1 mg. of bumetanide increases the excretion of potassium by 10-15 mmol daily (Asbury et al, 1972; Olesen et al, 1973; Davies et al, 1974). Two tablets of the combined preparation Burinex K contain 1 mg. of bumetanide and 16 mmol of potassium."⁸

At the correct time

"35% of the potassium chloride is released by one hour, the rest being released over a period of six hours."⁴

The Morning OR Evening diuretic

"The rapid onset and short duration of action of loop diuretics are clearly desirable when a rapid diuresis is indicated, and when given in the evening to patients with chronic heart failure, the short duration of action can ensure a good nights sleep undisturbed by nocturia or breathlessness."⁹
 "The use of potent and short-acting diuretics such as bumetanide allow the Physician and patient scope to decide upon the most appropriate time for administration and so reduce major disruptions in the patient's daily routine."¹⁰
 "Patients who go out to work may find Burinex K given in the evening more socially acceptable."¹¹

Patients prefer Burinex K

"These results indicate that when long-term diuretic/potassium supplement therapy is required, Burinex K is a more acceptable regimen to the patients than one in which diuretic + Slow K are given separately."¹³
 "Patients showed a highly significant preference to take two tablets on one occasion (Burinex K) rather than two different types of tablet on three separate occasions (Lasix + K)."¹⁴

*Burinex is a trade mark

Rx ... But of course the decision is yours.

Burinex K*

Tablets contain 0.5 mg bumetanide with a slow release core of 573 mg (7.7mEq) of potassium chloride.
