

SELLERS' MISTURA BISMUTHI COMP.

A CONCENTRATED PREPARATION OF BISMUTH IN PERFECT SOLUTION, MISCIBLE WITH WATER, WITHOUT PRECIPITATION.

DOSE m xx TO 3 ss , WHICH IS EQUIVALENT TO A FULL DOSE OF THE TRISNITRATE.

As a Stomachic and Anti-dyspeptic this preparation of Bismuth is largely employed by the Medical Profession with almost unfailing success in cases of Dyspepsia, Pain after Food, Gastric Irritation with sickness, and in those troublesome cases arising from sedentary habits, so frequently met with in Medical Practice.

Being elegantly combined with Nux Vomica, Chloric Ether, Hydrocyanic Acid, and a minute quantity of Morphia, it is a most reliable remedy where there is lack of nervous energy, with loss of appetite or inability to assimilate the food.

The formula is given with each bottle, and its convenience and efficiency secure it a permanent place in every surgery where it is introduced.

The method and right of preparation is reserved by J. SELLERS, who originally introduced it at the suggestion of an eminent Medical Practitioner—and that only can be relied upon which bears his name upon the label—numbers of unprincipled imitations have been attempted.

From H. W. WILLIAMS, Esq., M.D., L.R.C.P., L.F.P.S., etc., 168, Fulham Road, London.

Dear Sir,—I have prescribed your MISTURA BISMUTHI COMP. for the last nine years, and have found it an efficacious and reliable remedy in cases of Gastric Irritation, more especially in Atonic Dyspepsia, as met with in literary persons and others whose occupation is sedentary. In doses of 10 or 15 minims, administered every four hours, it is extremely useful to control troublesome vomiting. It is a pity such a valuable remedy is not more generally known.

To J. Sellers, Esq.

I am, dear Sir, yours very truly,

H. W. WILLIAMS.
