

LATEST INFORMATION

In our last Information Service announcement we stated that Larodopa,* the Roche brand of L-Dopa, was only available on a limited basis. Our total supply was allocated to the Department of Health who nominated those Consultants who should receive supplies of Larodopa through Senior Administrative Medical Officers in each region.

We are now pleased to announce that Larodopa is available to all hospitals, and supplies can be obtained by your hospital pharmacist contacting Roche Hospital Sales at Welwyn Garden City. We are continuing to develop our production capacity as quickly as possible to increase Larodopa supplies even further.

We have now published the first two reviews in our Information Service series on the use of Larodopa in Parkinsonism. The series represents the very latest and most comprehensive information on clinical trials results available throughout the world, showing the effectiveness of Larodopa.

*Larodopa is the trade mark for Roche preparations containing L(-)- β (3,4-Dihydroxyphenyl)-alanine.

Roche Medical Information Service | Larodopa

For example in a trial¹ reported in February 1970 60 of the 77 patients showed benefit from Larodopa treatment.

If you have not received copies of the reviews and wish to see them, then please let us know.

This is just one function of the specially set up Roche Medical Information Service planned to expand the field of knowledge concerning the use of Larodopa in Parkinsonism and help doctors on the subject.

We shall continue to keep you up-to-date with all developments concerning the use of Larodopa and if you have any questions please phone the Roche Medical Information Service/Larodopa direct on 01 - 935 5566 or write to the address below.

CANDIDAL VAGINITIS

NON SPECIFIC VAGINITIS

Five years of clinical trials with Magmilor, involving more than 6,000 patients with vaginitis, have shown success rates of the order of 90 per cent. The Magmilor Treatment Pack—a single drug presented as tablets and pessaries—deals effectively with all three common types of infective vaginitis—giving maximum assurance of a quick response in a condition where it is often difficult to make a clinical distinction as to pathogenesis:

Trichomonal vaginitis The systemic action of Magmilor oral tablets attacks Trichomonas in the vaginal walls. The local action of the pessaries eliminates free-swimming Trichomonads from the vaginal lumen, giving quicker and more complete relief than can be obtained with systemic action alone.

Candidal vaginitis The local action of Magmilor pessaries eradicates candidal infection and, in cases of trichomonal infection, prevents the candidal overgrowth which may occur if a trichomonocide only is used.

Non-specific vaginitis Magmilor pessaries also provide coverage against the bacteria which are implicated in non-specific vaginal infections—including Streptococci and Coccobacilli.

No co-prescribing hazards By using only one drug, Magmilor eliminates the potential hazard of drug incompatibility associated with co-prescribing.

R MAGMILOR TREATMENT PACK Xsingle-drug coverage in vaginitis

Magmilor Treatment Pack consists of twenty-one oral tablets (each containing 200 mg nifuratel) and ten pessaries (each containing 250 mg nifuratel).

"It's that pain again when I pass water"

It's her third attack of acute cystitis in six months. A number of treatments were tried. This time Ceporex is being prescribed. The vast majority of urinary tract infections are caused by a few gram-negative bacilli, e.g. E. coli and Proteus mirabilis. Ceporex rapidly kills these organisms. The antibiotic is virtually completely absorbed when given orally and quickly achieves high serum concentrations allowing rapid diffusion into the affected tissues. And it is excreted into the urine in the active form. It has low toxicity, is well tolerated and can be considered in patients hypersensitive to the penicillins.

"And I've found Ceporex just as successful in pneumonia and otitis media"

Ceporex means successful treatment in respiratory and ear, nose and throat infections as well as in urinary infections. Clinical trials have demonstrated clinical success rates of over 80% in acute urinary tract infections, over 90% in pneumonia, and over 85% in ear, nose and throat infections.*

But that's not all. Ceporex is available in the widest possible variety of presentations to suit almost every patient-need.

The new 500 mg/5 ml syrup provides the high dosage treatment needed in more serious infections such as pyelonephritis or pneumonia. The 250 mg/5 ml syrup is suitable for more susceptible infections in adults and is particularly useful for otitis media in children.

Ceporex Tablets 250 mg and 500 mg are film-coated and the smallest cephalixin tablets available. They are easily identified by their engraved name and strength. As an alternative to tablets there are small, red and grey capsules in 250 mg and 500 mg strengths.

Dosage	25 to 40 mg/kg/day	40 to 60 mg/kg/day	60 to 100 mg/kg/day
Paediatric dosage	250 mg q.d.s.	500 mg q.d.s.	1 gram q.d.s. or t.d.s.
Adult dosage	Acute simple cystitis	Acute simple pyelonephritis	Chronic, recurrent or complicated pyelonephritis
Urinary Tract Infections	Acute pharyngitis, Acute tonsillitis	Acute sinusitis, Acute otitis media	Chronic sinusitis, Chronic otitis media
ENT Infections		Acute bronchitis	Pneumonia

Adverse reactions and precautions
A small proportion of patients receiving cephalixin may experience gastrointestinal disturbances such as nausea, vomiting, anorexia and general abdominal discomfort. As with all broad-spectrum antibiotics, superinfection can occur (mostly monilial) and sometimes presents as vulvo-vaginitis. Reversible neutropenia has occurred in a few patients, but is very rare. Generalised drug rashes – urticarial or maculopapular – are uncommon. When renal function is very markedly impaired, Ceporex will accumulate in the tissues unless the dosage is suitably reduced.

Contra-indication
Hypersensitivity to the cephalosporins.

Heart-risk people and polyunsaturates

Diet is related to coronary disease. It is not the only factor and the relationship is still far from clear, but already considerable concern has been expressed about the amount of animal fats most of us are eating.

So to be on the safe side, it is suggested that we limit our consumption of fats to no more than 40% of our calorie intake, and as far as possible make sure the fats are polyunsaturated.

This means all of us, not just the incipient heart case, and the younger we start the better.

Flora vegetable oil margarine was designed a few years ago to meet just this situation, and recently its polyunsaturate content—already high—was almost doubled. It tastes noticeably good, spreads easily, cooks well, and can be bought in almost any supermarket.

Everything you need to make Flora the kind of advice that people are likely to take.

New Flora vegetable oil margarine contains 50% of polyunsaturates (natural cis-cis linoleic), ratio of polyunsaturates to saturates 2:1.

Obesity

The case for continuing research

When there is already a great deal of very high quality published data on Ponderax (fenfluramine), and the glycoliptic activity in obesity, one may ask, 'Is there a need for further studies?'

Over the last ten years 128 publications have shown that Ponderax produces greater weight loss than previous drugs (up to 3.6 lbs. a week), rectifies defects in glucose and lipid metabolism, has a mild hypotensive action and does not stimulate the central nervous system.

However, the interest of Ponderax has extended into many fields and data already demonstrates that Ponderax has important activity in several disease areas. Currently, 203 experiments and trials are revealing that Ponderax, besides the valuable therapeutic properties in obesity, has other activities in diabetes, hypertension, anxiety and atheroma.

Our massive research programme is your safeguard to the continuing prescription of Ponderax for the basic treatment of the serious disease called obesity.

is it gout?

Gout does not always present in the classical manner, with an inflamed big toe. It can present as pain in almost any joint. Colicky pain due to urate stones is sometimes a precursor of gout.

In circumstances like these it is worth remembering gout and having the serum uric acid level checked.

If the diagnosis is gout, ZYLORIC* is there to provide effective prophylactic treatment. ZYLORIC provides the rational way of treating gout by controlling uric acid formation and so preventing the acute attacks and the degenerative changes associated with the history of the disease.

Propaderm relieves skin problems-usually within one week

Propaderm has been shown to be rapidly effective in the treatment of steroid-responsive skin conditions—even in cases which have failed to respond to other topical steroids. What is more, the wide range of Propaderm preparations enables you to choose a treatment to suit each individual case. It's not surprising that more and more doctors are making Propaderm their first choice. In a recent trial 94% of 252 patients with eczema or psoriasis showed significant improvement after treatment with Propaderm (cream, ointment and ointment with 3% aureomycin BP). Most patients (92.8%) responded in the first week of treatment.

"All three preparations which were tested were found to be superior to previous treatments. No side effects were reported".

PAROVEN[®] in varicose veins and post phlebitic syndrome

Recent clinical and double blind trials^{1 2} have confirmed that PAROVEN provides outstanding relief of symptoms due to chronic venous insufficiency or back pressure. Particularly good results were obtained in night cramps, heavy legs and chronic aching pain. Other symptoms which respond to long-term therapy with Paroven include:

superficial thrombophlebitis, varicose ulcers, varicose eczema, ankle oedema, restless legs, paraesthesia, haemorrhoids.

Dosage Initial treatment: 4 capsules a day, preferably with meals. Maintenance treatment: 1-2 capsules a day.

Side effects and Precautions In a few patients, slight gastro-intestinal disorders, flushes and headaches have been reported. These are usually overcome by taking the capsules with meals or by slight adjustment of dosage. There are no known contra-indications to Paroven; it is virtually non-toxic and has no teratogenic effects. In keeping with current teaching and practice its use during the first trimester should, however, be avoided.

Availability Capsules, each containing 250 mg of 0-(β hydroxyethyl) - rutosides (not less than 45% troxerutin), in bottles of 20 and 100 capsules.

Instantly visible contents, in a shatter-proof container, P.I.B.® provides immediate and sustained relief from bronchospasm, from precisely metered puffs. Isoprenaline content is low because P.I.B. fully utilises the pronounced enhancement of effect of this agent when it is used in combination with atropine methonitrate.

This enhancement was clearly shown in a trial¹ which compared this mixture with both drugs when used alone. The authors stated: "The combined inhalation of isoprenaline and atropine methonitrate showed substantial advantages over the other drugs."

Otitis media can flare so quickly in practice

The child came home from school complaining of a sore throat. Perhaps the mother would have brought him round to your surgery in the morning. But he wakes in the night crying with pain in the left ear. You diagnose otitis media. You look for a treatment that is reliable and as rapid as possible.

You prescribe Broxil Syrup. Broxil is absorbed extremely quickly. It's pleasant to take. And easier for the mother to get him to complete the full course.

Broxil works. In practice patients do seem to get better quicker with Broxil. It has the excellent safety record of a well-tried penicillin.

For otitis media, other ENT, upper respiratory, skin and soft tissue infections, no other antibiotic treatment can match up to Broxil's record of safety and effectiveness over ten years of practice.

in bronchitis more effective than ampicillin or tetracycline

Compared with ampicillin

In a controlled single-blind trial involving 50 patients with chronic bronchitis SEPTRIN* was shown to be more effective than ampicillin, with reference to reduction of sputum volume and purulence.

Sputum volume reduction

There was a significantly greater reduction in mean sputum volume after treatment with SEPTRIN than after treatment with ampicillin.

Sputum purulence reduction

23 out of 24 cases with purulent sputum receiving SEPTRIN improved (using MRC sputum grading) as compared with 16 cases out of 22 cases with purulent sputum receiving ampicillin who improved in this respect. The success rate for SEPTRIN was significantly higher than for ampicillin.

Clinical improvement

Clinically, 24 out of 25 cases receiving SEPTRIN responded as compared with 19 out of 25 receiving ampicillin.

Compared with tetracycline

In a trial designed to compare the effect of SEPTRIN with that of tetracycline in the treatment of chronic bronchitis, it was found that a week's course with SEPTRIN was more beneficial than a week's course of tetracycline.

24 patients received SEPTRIN and 22 received tetracycline, and objective data was collected from the two groups at the beginning and at the end of treatment.

Sputum volume

The decrease in mean sputum volume after treatment, as a fraction of the initial measurements, was significantly larger for the SEPTRIN group.

Sputum purulence

Objective grading of reduction in purulence of the sputum showed better results with SEPTRIN than with tetracycline at the end of treatment.

UNIVERSITY OF EXETER Postgraduate Medical Institute

A full-time postgraduate course lasting 10 weeks will begin on October 7, 1970. These courses are held 3 times a year starting in October, January and April. Each course includes instruction in general medicine, paediatrics, preventive medicine, pathology, psychiatry, orthopaedics and general surgery. The programme is planned so that students wishing to specialise in a particular clinical subject are given facilities to do so, while other students are taught in each of the main clinical departments. Unpaid clinical attachments can be arranged at the end of the course for students requiring a longer period of training, but these are normally reserved for students sponsored by some official body.

It is sometimes possible to accept general practitioners for 1 or 2 weeks of a course, and attendance for this period is recognized under Section 63 of the Health Services and Public Health Act 1968. These courses are also recognized under the special scheme for the re-training for general practice of doctors who have been out of the Health Service for at least 5 years.

The fee for this course will be £40 (£83 for students from outside the United Kingdom). Further particulars and application forms for these courses are obtainable from the Director, The Postgraduate Medical Institute, The University, Exeter, Devonshire. (19377) 2

The beauty of Ferrograd C is its effectiveness

FC157

Too often, when iron deficiency is treated by simple iron salts alone, the return of the haemoglobin percentage to normal is regarded as sufficient. In fact, with this type of treatment, iron absorption tails off as 100% Hb is approached. And – body iron stores remain depleted.

With Ferrograd C, taken once daily before food from the start of treatment, not only is the haemoglobin percentage quickly returned to normal; absorption of iron is maintained so that body iron stores are replenished. Ferrograd C's high dose Vitamin C sees to that. It almost doubles the absorption of iron.* It provides total treatment.

Each tablet contains the exsiccated equivalent of 525 mg ferrous sulphate BP (\equiv 105 mg Fe) in a Gradumet® plus 500 mg Vitamin C as sodium ascorbate.

*Amer. J. clin. Nutr., (1967) 20 367.

Prevention is better than migraine

'Migraine does not destroy life but can destroy the joy, value and rewards of living.'¹

Dihydroergotamine-Sandoz is a new tablet formulation that makes migraine prophylaxis simpler and more practicable than ever before. Dihydroergotamine modifies the vasomotor activity; side-effects are rare and there has been no evidence of ergotism on prolonged administration. In one trial², Dihydroergotamine 2 mg. administered regularly 3 times a day was used to treat 80 patients with migraine. Improvement was recorded in 58 (72.5%); migraine disappeared in 32 patients and was greatly or partially reduced in the remaining 26.

Dihydroergotamine-Sandoz tablets

each tablet contains 1 mg. dihydroergotamine mesylate.
