A name to conjure with.

'Largactil' has been a name to conjure with in psychiatric medicine for over sixteen years. An influence of such magnitude and long duration can be explained by examining this legendary name.

'Largactil' was so named because of its LARGe variety of ACTIons ; apart from being the first major tranquillizer, it acts in two other pharmacologically distinct ways – as a potentiator of central nervous depressants, including analgesics, narcotics and sedatives, and as an anti-emetic.

'Largactil' has achieved success in the fields of psychiatry, general medicine and anaesthetics in an ever-widening range of indications. These include major and minor psychoses ; as an adjuvant to E.C.T. ; drug withdrawal ; senile dementia ; the control of terminal pain and nausea and vomiting.

Alone, or as an adjuvant – are you making FULL use of 'Largactil' ?

Road Accidents and the Family Doctor

Road accidents are now acknowledged to be one of the major epidemics of our time. It has been estimated that many accident deaths could be saved by skilled treatment at the site of the accident, and recently doctors in Britain and abroad have been playing an increasingly active part in this. This booklet, which reprints a series of articles which appeared in the B.M.J., contains contributions on organization and medical equipment, the management of soft-tissue injuries, resuscitation, fractures of the spine, and extrication of persons trapped in a vehicle. The introduction is written by Mr. Norman Capener, Chairman of the Medical Commission on Accident Prevention.

Second World Conference

If you are professionally concerned or can contribute, you should be present at:

Imperial College, London
September 20-24, 1971

The conference will review progress since the New York meeting in 1967, stimulate the exchange of ideas, and examine the way forward. You will be given plenty of opportunities to take part in the discussions and contribute to the thinking on this major international public health problem.

The conference will cover the key areas of the problem, including: the facts about morbidity and mortality attributed to smoking, government and voluntary action, changing adult smoking behaviour, the economic and social consequences, and smoking as an international public health problem; the role of the health professions and of the mass media; the control of smoking among children and at places of work; the psycho-pharmacological aspects of habituation; smoking control clinics and less harmful ways of smoking; public education and community action.

There is no registration fee, but there is a limit to the number that can be accepted. If you intend to be there, please let us know now. Write to: Miss Sally Crossland, Conference Officer, 2nd World Conference on Smoking & Health, c/o Conference Services Limited, 43 Charles St., London W1X 7PB. Tel: 01-499 1101.

The conference is to be opened by Sir Keith Joseph. Taking part will be international authorities from Europe and North America including:

Lord Hill
Lord Platt
Lord Rosenheim
Professor Sir Richard Doll
Sir George Godber

and from the USA
Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond
Dr. Daniel Horn
Senator Frank E. Moss

"My whole face hurts"

Frank Adams has sinusitis. He gets it nearly every time he gets a cold. Over the years his doctor's prescribed a number of antibiotics without any great success. This time he's trying Ceporex.

In sinusitis "the choice of an antibiotic can be based on culture and sensitivity results obtained from nasal swabs or antral washings. When in doubt a broad-spectrum antibiotic should be administered, since mixed infections are often encountered".* Ceporex kills both gram-positive and gram-negative bacteria, that's why it's so suitable. It's also very effective against penicillin-resistant staphylococci and can be the logical alternative if penicillin hypersensitivity is suspected. Ceporex gives high serum levels within an hour of administration and penetrates fast to the tissues.

With Ceporex you have a broad-spectrum antibiotic that acts fast and is well tolerated. In sinusitis, it usually eradicates the bacterial infection, with the subsequent relief of both the congestion and pain. So make Ceporex your first choice.

"Ceporex seems to be a logical choice for bronchitis and pyelonephritis"

At the International Conference on Cephalosporins, 1970, Ceporex was found to be of great value in infections of the respiratory and urinary tracts. * Its broad spectrum and bactericidal activity against both gram-positive and gram-negative pathogens, coupled with its rapid absorption and excellent serum and tissue levels, make it a valuable new treatment for stubborn cases of bacterial infection.

from asthmatic attack

The unique mode of action of disodium cromoglycate offers the asthmatic patient outstanding benefits. A prophylactic treatment, it prevents the onset of asthmatic episodes – thus minimising long-term damage to lung tissue. Freedom from asthma attacks permits a happier, more normal life for the asthmatic patient.

Published clinical reports[1-22] confirm that with INTAL COMPOUND, the incidence and severity of acute attacks is considerably reduced – even in patients on conventional therapy such as bronchodilators, antihistamines and corticosteroids. Less time is lost from work or school, exercise tolerance is improved and a consistent clinical comment on disodium cromoglycate has been the total absence of serious side effects.

INTAL COMPOUND – supplied in SPINCAPS (each containing 20 mg disodium cromoglycate, and 0·1 mg Isoprenaline Sulphate BP in powder form, together with an inert carrier). For use in a special insufflator – SPINHALER.

The right-first-time antibiotic for infections in children

Penbritin is right because it is active against the causative organisms in Otitis Media. Its broad spectrum includes H. influenzae which commonly causes this infection in the under fives. This pathogen is insensitive to oral Penicillin V and G and only partially sensitive to the erythromycins. Penbritin destroys it.

Penbritin is right because its safety is well proven. This contrasts with recent publicity drawing attention to the problems of tooth staining and bone deposition which may follow tetracycline therapy.

Two palatable syrups, capsules, tablets and the new paediatric suspension enable you to prescribe Penbritin in the right form for any patient. Injectable Penbritin is also available if required. Following the recent price reduction the average daily cost of treating Otitis Media with Penbritin is just $8\frac{1}{2}$p.

Penbritin is right because it is well proven. Published references involving more than 600 patients with Otitis Media show an overall success rate of 84%. This figure confirms Penbritin as the right-first-time antibiotic.

Dosage:
Children under 10 years — 125 mg q.i.d. $\frac{1}{2}$ — 1 hour a.c.
Older children and adults — 250 mg q.i.d. $\frac{1}{2}$ — 1 hour a.c.
In severe infections these dosages may be increased.

Contra-indication: Penicillin hypersensitivity.

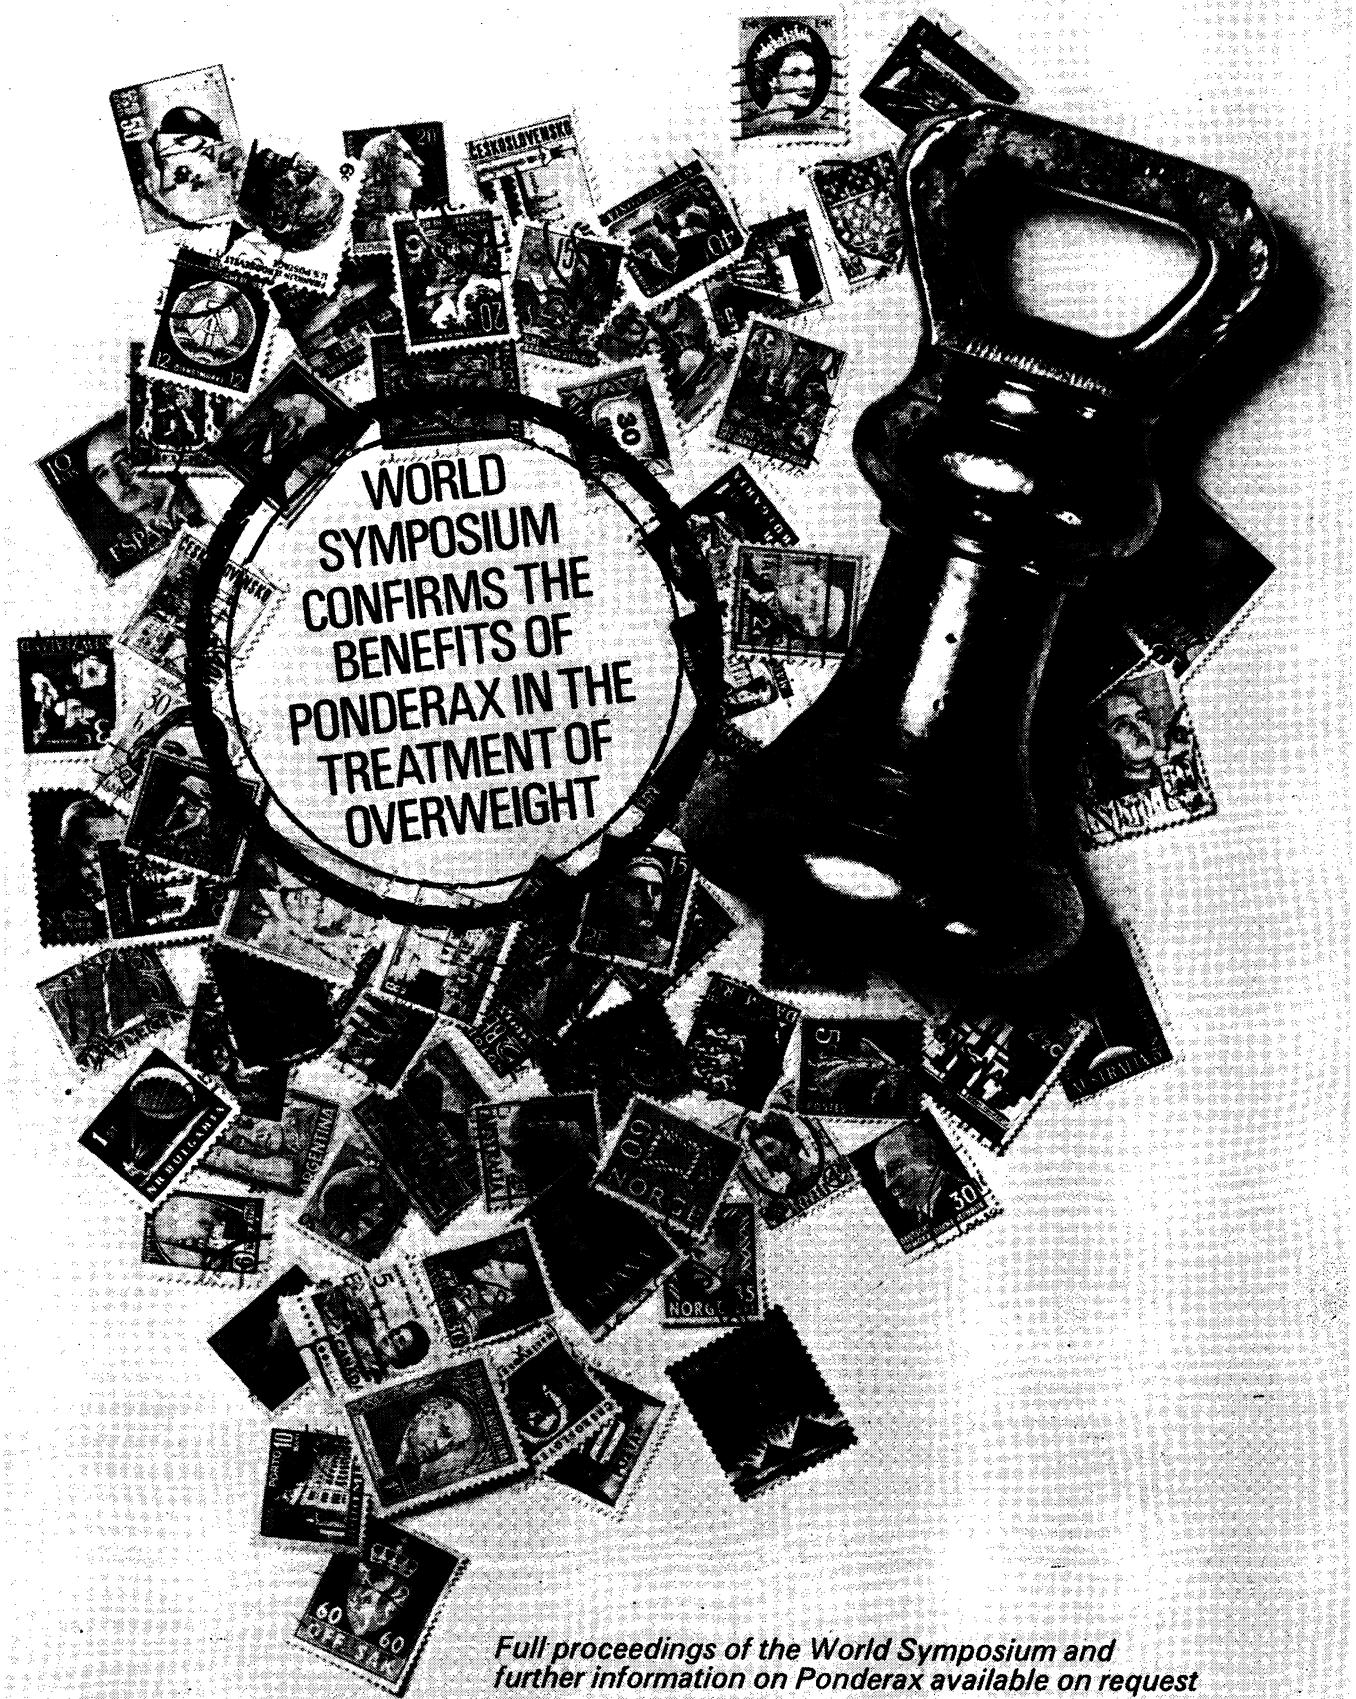

Side-effects: as with other penicillins.

Historical Aspects of Cerebral Anatomy

ALFRED MEYER

This book describes the development and knowledge of the structure of the central nervous system over a period of several centuries. It is not a complete history of neuroanatomy but discusses certain important regions of the brain of which the author has made a special study or which are in the foreground of contemporary research. Part I deals with the basal ganglia and the diencephalon; Part II with the 'olfactory' brain; Part III with the cerebral convolutions and fissures. Brief biographical details of many of the pioneers of cerebral anatomy have been included. This will be an important source book for all specialists in neuroanatomy.

Venous Thrombosis and Pulmonary Embolism

M. HUME, S. SEVITT AND D. P. THOMAS

This book is the first comprehensive survey of the subject for many years and the first of its kind in the English language. Interpreting anatomical, experimental and clinical data, the authors present the subject as a single disease—venous thromboembolism—with pulmonary embolism as its most important complication. Incidence, pathogenesis, clinical manifestations, diagnosis and management have been dealt with in a way that will acquaint the student with the fundamentals of the disease, the practitioner with current laboratory progress, and the research worker with the most compelling unsolved problems in clinical management.

The Genetics of Mental Disorders

ELIOT SLATER, C.B.E., AND VALERIE COWIE

The aim of this book is to give the reader a comprehensive grasp of the present range of knowledge and the standing of research in genetical work in psychiatry. It covers both mental disorders (schizophrenia, affective psychoses, deviations of personality and neurotic reactions, senile and pre-senile dementias, epilepsy) and mental deficiency (metabolic disorders, chromosome anomalies, etc.). Although written for the clinical psychiatrist this book will be found useful in the neighbouring territories of neurology, general medicine, and human genetics.

Sociology in Medicine

M. W. SUSSER AND W. WATSON

The first edition of this book was concerned with the contrasting patterns of health and disease in peasant societies, particularly in Africa, with those found in industrialized societies. It also dealt with the contemporary family in the United Kingdom and the effects of the external and internal environment on individuals throughout the family-development cycle. Two new chapters and some new sections have been added which reflect the authors' extensive research in the United States. These deal with such matters as the theories and indices of social class, and the status roles, networks, and mobility of the community.

Samson Wright's Applied Physiology

REVISED BY CYRIL A. KEELE AND ERIC NEIL

The rapid advances in knowledge of the circulatory, respiratory and nervous systems has necessitated the rewriting of these chapters and the inclusion of many new illustrations. The chapter on the endocrine glands has been extensively revised and the remaining chapters brought completely up to date. The revisers have taken the opportunity of rearranging some sections into a more logical sequence; for instance, the kidney now has a chapter to itself; the chemical senses, taste, and pain now form part of the chapter on the special senses; body temperature and the cerebrospinal fluid are now incorporated in the chapter on the nervous system.

Iatrogenic Diseases

P. F. D'ARCY AND J. P. GRIFFIN

The incautious use of drugs, even within a therapeutic framework, can cause disease sometimes far worse than the original condition for which the drug was prescribed. The authors, both pharmacologists, one from the laboratory and the other from a clinical environment, have produced a book which assembles the multifarious drug-induced diseases. Modern drugs show increased complexity both in chemical structure and in biological activity; the object of this book is to draw to the attention of the prescriber the inherent danger of prolonged treatment with many of these drugs, and to point out that some drugs must be regarded as 2-edged weapons.

This new edition has been brought right up to date by the inclusion of many of the newer drugs listed by the British Pharmacopoeia Commission and is intended for medical students in their clinical years. It will also be found useful by young doctors faced with the problem of selecting the best drug to suit a particular purpose and who may be confused by the multiplicity of the drugs available. Additional material has been written on the following subjects: The Concept of Drug Receptors; Methods of Investigating Drug Action on the Central Nervous System; Drug Dependence; Lysergide and Cannabis Intoxication; The Testing of Local Anaesthetics; The Prostaglandins; Oral Contraceptives; Immunosuppressive Drugs; Contrast Media.

Circulation

B. FOLKOW AND ERIC NEIL

This comprehensive textbook of cardiovascular physiology, has been written with economy and wit. The authors' aim is to give an integrated account of normal cardiovascular function and thus regulation has been their main concern. The book is organized in many small chapters placing emphasis on functional units. The biophysical background is first presented, then the elements of cardiovascular physiology, then the integration of these elements, and finally the circulation in individual tissues. The last two chapters deal with the two major circulatory disorders, shock and hypertension.

Mother and Child Health

CICELY D. WILLIAMS, C.M.G., AND D. B. JELLIFFE

This book surveys the whole field of mother and child health in the developing countries. The aims and scope of maternal and child health services are described, together with the cultural, social, economic, and population problems involved and the ways of measuring the state of health of a population. Detailed guidance is given on what such services should provide for mothers, for young children, and for those of school age, on health education and the training of personnel to run the services, and finally on the establishment and organization of these services in such a way that they may be readily adapted to suit local conditions.

The Essentials of Perimetry

HOWARD REED AND S. M. DRANCE

During the eleven years since the first edition was published great strides have been made in ophthalmology. These advances are reflected in this new edition which has been carefully revised, many sections rewritten and new sections added. Also included is a new chapter on static perimetry. Many of the original illustrations of field defects found by the use of the tangent screen have been retained, but a number of new ones, obtained by the use of more sophisticated instruments, have been added. This book is of value to postgraduate students of ophthalmology and to physicians and neurologists seeking a simple statement of the principles of the subject.

The Traumatic Amnesias

W. RITCHIE RUSSELL, C.B.E.

The study of brain mechanisms has in recent years advanced rapidly as a result of several different approaches to the subject, including an analysis of the consequences of brain injury in man. The author has been closely concerned with the study of head injuries since 1930, and has here brought together many of his observations in the field, with comments on their significance. The various features and anomalies of the traumatic amnesias are discussed in relation to the possible physiological processes involved in memory and learning. The author's aim has been to present information from his own clinical sources in order to assist others working on the subject.

Diseases of the Joints

Arthritis and rheumatism are common complaints, even if patients are often vague about the exact meaning of the terms they use. In the last few years the diagnosis of joint disorders has become more exact, while the introduction of local and systemic steroid therapy and the powerful non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs has revolutionized treatment. In an attempt to bring doctors up to date in this field, the B.M.J. published in 1969 a series of short articles giving practical advice on the common disorders of the joints. The articles have now been revised by their authors and collected together to form this handbook on the management of arthritis.

ROYAL COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS OF LONDON
M.R.C.P. (U.K.) EXAMINATION

The next examination for Parts II and III of the M.R.C.P. (U.K.) Examination will start on Friday, 17th September, 1971.

Candidates are notified of two changes in the Examination:- 1. Candidates may opt to undertake the clinical examination only of Part II in either (a) general medicine or (b) paediatrics. 2. As from April 1970 Part III of the Examination was discontinued, but candidates who have already been admitted to Part III will be allowed to complete any outstanding attempts. Candidates holding the diploma of M.R.A.C.P. have hitherto been allowed exemption from Parts I and II on application to the Censors' Board, but have been required to take Part III. They may now apply to the Censors' Board for exemption from Part I and the written papers of Part II, but will be required to take the oral and clinical examinations of Part II.

Candidates must apply to the College for entry forms. The completed forms must reach the College (together with the necessary fee and supporting documentation) not later than first post on Friday, 20th August, 1971. The fee for entry to part II after success in Part I is £35. The fee for a second or third attempt at Part II is £30. The fee for Part III is £18. THE MIDDLESEX HOSPITAL MEDICAL SCHOOL
(University of London)

M.R.C. PATH.

A postgraduate course in pathology will again be held during the session 1971/72 at The Middlesex Hospital Medical School. This course, which is organised in collaboration with other teaching hospitals in the North West Metropolitan Region, is intended for graduates who wish to present themselves for the Primary M.R.C. Path. examination. The course is held from September to July on Thursday afternoon from 2-5 p.m., and consists of 5 parts, namely: Immunology and Statistics, Microbiology, Chemical Pathology, Haematology, and Morbid Anatomy and Histology. The commencing dates are as follows: Immunology and Statistics: 9th September-21st October inclusive. Microbiology: 28th October-16th December inclusive. Chemical Pathology: 30th December-24th February inclusive. Haematology: 2nd March-20th April inclusive. Morbid Anatomy and Histology: 1st June-20th July inclusive. The course has been recommended by the British Postgraduate Medical Federation as suitable for junior hospital staff who may apply for study leave should they wish to attend. The fee for the entire course will be £17.00 or £3.50 for each section.

Applications to attend all or part of the course should be sent in writing to the Director of the Bland-Sutton Institute, The School of Pathology, Ridinghouse Street, London W1P 7LD by 20th August, 1971. Preference will be given to applicants working in the North West Metropolitan Region. (11227) 2

UNIVERSITY OF EXETER

POSTGRADUATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE

Full-time postgraduate course of 10 weeks duration will begin on 6th October, 1971. These courses are held 3 times a year starting in October, January and April. Each course includes instruction in general medicine, paediatrics, preventive medicine, pathology, psychiatry, orthopaedics and general surgery. The programme is planned so that students wishing to specialise in a particular clinical subject are given facilities to do so, while other students are taught in each of the main clinical departments. Unpaid clinical attachments can be arranged at the end of the course for students requiring a longer period of training, but these are normally reserved for students sponsored by some official body.

It is sometimes possible to accept general practitioners for 1 or 2 weeks of a course, and attendance for this period is recognised under Section 63 of the Health Services and Public Health Act 1968. These courses are also recognised under the special scheme for the re-training for general practice of doctors who have been out of the Health Service for at least 5 years.

The fee for this course will be £40 (£83 for students from outside the United Kingdom).

Further particulars and application fees for these courses are obtainable from the Director, The Postgraduate Medical Institute, The University, Exeter, Devonshire. (10608) 2

ROYAL GWENT HOSPITAL
Newport, Mon.
(432 beds)
(Recognised F.R.C.S.)

SENIOR HOUSE OFFICER
required either immediately or within a reasonable period. Resident or non-resident. House is available if required. The Department is in the charge of a full-time Consultant Surgeon, has five Senior House Officers and all emergency cases are admitted through the Department, which is responsible for initial resuscitation. The Department is equipped with apparatus for cardiac monitoring, positive pressure ventilation, as well as X-ray intensifiers and a Berman F.B. Locator. The hospital is the base hospital for the Group, and therefore has a large volume of acute cases in all specialties. It is being extensively re-developed by a major capital building programme. A new intensive care unit has recently been opened. There is a close connection with the teaching hospital at Cardiff, 10 miles to the west, and there is an extensive postgraduate education programme with a very good library. A Postgraduate Centre has recently been opened. The appointment gives ample opportunity to the holder to avail himself of these facilities. The successful candidate will be expected to be resident on the nights on ,hich he is on first call, which will on average be one night in five.

GOVERNMENTAL

Department of Employment

Medical Services Division

There are three vacancies for medical practitioners fully registered in the U.K. Postgraduate experience is essential, and an interest in occupational medicine, preventive medicine, pulmonary disease, or toxicology would be an advantage.

Medical Adviser (information)

This new and challenging appointment, based in London, will involve organising the mutual exchange of information (covering a broad range of occupational medicine) gathered from the Division's resources, the Medical Research Council, research institutes and universities, as well as from literature. There may be scope for limited clinical work.

Medical Adviser (2 posts)

The Advisers will undertake such medical investigations and formal surveys as may be required in order to give advice on the effect of working conditions on health, especially factory employees. Other duties may be connected with the placing of persons (including young persons) in employment and with those undergoing rehabilitation or receiving training. One post is likely to be in London.

STARTING SALARY (national): £2,832 at age 28, £4,304 at 40 or over on entry (possibly higher if at least 41). Scale maximum £4,875. Higher in London. Non-contributory pension. Promotion prospects to £6,120.

For further details write to Civil Service Commission, Alencon Link, Basingstoke, Hants, or telephone BASINGSTOKE 29222, Ext. 500 or LONDON 01-839 1696 (24-hour "Ansafone" service), for application form quoting S/7764/1. Closing date 10th August, 1971. (10832) 55

SERVICES

Are you in your Pre-Registration Year —or recently fully registered?

Before you commit yourself to your permanent pattern of life, consider what the Royal Air Force has to offer.

The chance to practise total medical care, as a GP

Your first job would probably be a Junior Medical Officer on a large RAF Station. There would be at least one other doctor. Between you, you would have a 'list' of 2000 to 3000 people—servicemen and their families. You would meet all the usual clinical problems of a GP—and get plenty of experience in pediatrics. As well as this, you would be actively involved in the practice of aviation medicine and gain experience in the preventive, occupational and social fields.

Conditions of work are extremely good. You would have a consulting room in a specially built Medical Centre—like a small hospital with its own treatment room, theatre and resuscitation room, and wards for a dozen or so short-stay patients. There is a full secretarial and nursing staff. Your clinical freedom would be absolute.

The chance to specialise, too

Because General Practice is so highly developed in the RAF, this does not mean you have no chance to specialise. The contrary is true. 47% of all RAF doctors are now working in specialist departments. On a 'full career' contract you have every opportunity to reach consultant status in your late or middle thirties—perhaps earlier.

The chance to study for higher qualifications

Any RAF doctor, whether specialist or GP (as long as he is not on the very shortest of contracts) can apply for six months study leave on full salary. On a permanent commission, he may have up to two years' external study leave.

The chance to travel

The RAF operates in many different conditions and climates. Abroad, the RAF doctor looks after RAF personnel and their families and, very often, the local population as well. Your gain in clinical experience would be marked.

The chance of a good social and family life

The RAF is a young community, with a full and active social life. There are facilities for almost every kind of sport and, which is most important, the time to enjoy your family while you are still a young man. Living conditions are excellent. If you are single you live in the Officers' Mess, which has all the amenities of a good hotel. If you are married, you will nearly always have a furnished house that goes with the job; rent for this is very modest; and it can save a large financial outlay at the beginning of your career.

General Practice? With a difference. At this RAF Clinic, in the busy town of Limassol, in Cyprus, almost all the patients are women and children (specially children). Staff is 7 doctors, each with his (or her) own panel of patients; and 5 dentists. There are 5 SRN Nurses, and 7 Health Visitors. Next door is the RAF's Child Guidance Clinic, with psychiatrist, educational psychologist and speech therapist.

A realistic pay scale

Pay is based on the average earnings of a civilian GP. Immediately after full registration, the present basic salary is £3395; after 5 years it rises to £4106; after 13 years to £5110. There are various other allowances; for instance, with children at boarding school the figures are £306 (net) for one child, £669 (net) for two children, £1104 (net) for three children. There are tax-free gratuities of £1500 after 3 years, or £3000 after 5 years. After service of 16 years or more there is a pension, payable for life, and a generous terminal grant.

For full information please write, giving your age, nationality, and date of full registration, to Group Captain J. G. Donald, MB, ChB, DTM&H, RAF, Ministry of Defence, 1-6 Tavistock Square (724JZ1), London, WC1H 9NL.

WELLINGTON HOSPITAL BOARD
Wellington, New Zealand

SPECIALISTS

Applications, closing at 9 a.m. on Friday 27th August, 1971, are invited for the following position: Whole-time or Visiting Orthopaedic Surgeon, Hutt Hospital.

Applicants must be registered in New Zealand as medical practitioners or possess qualifications entitling them to such registration. A higher qualification is essential.

The Hutt Hospital is twelve miles from the Board's base hospital at Wellington, and has 390 beds covering most major specialties. Preference will be given to a whole-time appointment, but a visiting appointment — with right to engage in private practice — may be negotiated if necessary.

Conditions of employment will be in accordance with the New Zealand Hospital Employment (Medical Officers') Regulations and the appointee must qualify for specialist status — that is, have been qualified for eight years with at least five years' experience in the specialty and hold a higher appropriate qualification.

Full-time salary will be within the scale $NZ8,153/10,979 per annum. Higher rates in the scale $11,549/13,588 may be approved by the Medical Officers' Salaries Grading Committee to reward special professional excellence or special responsibilities. (NZ$2,149 equals £1 sterling approximately.)

Transport assistance to New Zealand is available to a whole-time overseas appointee, his wife, and dependent children, in return for a guarantee of at least two years' service.

In the meantime she is assured of steady, sustained control of her raised blood pressure
But it's not just a question of convenience
Hygroton® Geigy is effective in lowering raised blood pressure and for many mild to moderate hypertensives it is the only hypotensive agent that they need

Hygroton® is available as white, scored compressed tablets containing 100 mg and as pale yellow, scored, compressed tablets containing 50 mg 3-(4-chloro-3-sulphamoylphenyl)-3-hydroxyisoindolin-1-one (Chlorthalidone B.P.).

Which patients benefit most from Floxapen?

Young patient aged 4 Sore throat, temperature 101·4; "Pharyngitis, may develop into quinsy."

Elderly patient aged 73 Deep seated infection of knee which had failed to respond to penicillin G and tetracycline.

Diabetic aged 29 Presents with infected wound on left foot. "Only seemed a scratch at first," she says. You notice extensive reddening around the area.

You can recognise in your practice the patients who will most benefit from Floxapen, Beecham's new penicillin.

Patients who need a more effective antibiotic, in whom the risks of infection are greatest or where the consequences of inadequate treatment are serious. The young and elderly, diabetics, asthmatics, patients suffering severe infection, patients on steroids or recently discharged from hospital and those with a history of treatment failure, will all benefit from Floxapen's extra margin of activity.

Floxapen's absorption is unique in that both oral and injectable preparations achieve similarly high blood levels at a simple dose of 250 mg q.i.d.

Floxapen offers the traditional penicillin advantages of low toxicity and bactericidal action against streptococci, pneumococci, and staphylococci.

Moreover it destroys staphylococci resistant to other penicillins, which present an increasing problem in General Practice.

Floxapen.
Simple to adminster, well absorbed, effective.

Indications: Infections due to Gram-positive organisms: upper and lower respiratory tract infections, skin and soft tissue infections and otitis media.

Dosage: Oral and Intramuscular:
Adults: 250 mg q.i.d.
Children: 2-10 years: half adult dose.
Under 2 years: quarter adult dose.
Oral doses should be taken one hour before meals.
In severe infections these dosages may be increased if required.

Availability: Syrup 125 mg/5 ml. Capsules (black/caramel) and Vials each containing 250 mg flucloxacillin.

Contra-indications: Penicillin hypersensitivity.
Subconjunctival injection.

Side-effects: As with other penicillins.

Further information is available on request.

Floxapen simplifies antibiotic treatment

Floxapen* (flucloxacillin) is a product of British research at Ventolin Syrup is an alternative to Ventolin Tablets for those cases where liquid therapy is preferred. Its pleasant strawberry flavour makes it especially suitable for children. Ventolin (salbutamol), whether given by mouth or aerosol, has three basic properties which, together, make it a real advance over existing bronchodilators:

- ☐ It is an effective bronchodilator
- ☐ It has a rapid and prolonged action
- ☐ It acts on the bronchioles without cardiovascular involvement

Presentation

VENTOLIN SYRUP, each 5ml containing salbutamol 2mg as sulphate in a strawberry flavoured base, is supplied in bottles of 150ml.

VENTOLIN INHALER is a metered aerosol, delivering 100mcg salbutamol per inhalation.

VENTOLIN TABLETS each contain salbutamol 2mg as sulphate. Supplied in containers of 100 and 500.

Full information is available on request. Ventolin is a Trade Mark.

Adagio cantabile ...e sostenuto

The diuretic you prescribe for patients needing long-term therapy should be gentle.

'Massive, rapid diuresis might produce considerable reductions in blood volume and blood pressure, which might be particularly dangerous in elderly patients.'*

Such a diuretic should be combined with a potassium supplement, but there is a risk of small bowel ulceration or obstruction when patients take preparations which release a large concentration of potassium ions in the small bowel.

CENTYL K reduces the risk by combining the highly effective diuretic, bendrofluazide BP (a Leo discovery) with a slow-release potassium chloride supplement to provide greater safety during long-term maintenance therapy.

conduct long-term diuresis with confidence

Centyl® K
