PROSYN

Proven 250mg
morning and night
prescription

Widened, England

Prescribing Information

Presentation: NAPROSYN (naproxen) is a non-steroidal anti-inflammatory agent, developed by Syntex Research. It is unrelated to salicylates or the corticosteroid hormones. It is presented as a yellow half-scored tablet containing 250 mg of naproxen, inscribed NAPROSYN on one side, and SYNTEX on the other.

Indications: NAPROSYN is indicated for the treatment of rheumatoid arthritis, osteoarthritis (degenerative arthritis) and ankylosing spondylitis.

NAPROSYN has been shown to have striking anti-inflammatory properties when tested in classical animal test systems. In addition, it has marked analgesic and anti-pyretic actions. It exhibits its anti-inflammatory effect even in adrenalectomised animals, indicating that its action is not mediated through the pituitary-adrenal axis. It inhibits prostaglandin synthetase, as do other non-steroidal anti-inflammatory agents. As with other agents, however, the exact mechanism of its anti-inflammatory action is not known.

Dosage and Administration: The recommended starting dose (and usual maintenance dose) of NAPROSYN is 250 mg twice daily, usually given with the morning meal and about 12 hours later. Dosage adjustment within the range of 375 mg to 750 mg daily, maintaining twice-daily administration, may be required for long-term maintenance.

As safety and efficacy studies in children are not yet complete, the product is currently not recommended for use in children under 16 years of age.

Contra-indications: There are no known absolute contra-indications.

Special Precautions and Warnings: NAPROSYN has been found to be well tolerated by patients exhibiting dyspepsia with other similar agents. Nonetheless, episodes of gastro-intestinal bleeding have been reported in patients with NAPROSYN therapy. NAPROSYN should be given under close supervision to patients with a history of gastro-intestinal disease.

Due to the high plasma protein binding of NAPROSYN, patients simultaneously receiving hydantoins, anti-coagulants or a highly protein-bound sulphonamide should be observed for signs of over-dosage.

Occasional skin rashes and angio-oedema have been reported. Patients who have exhibited aspirin hypersensitivity in the past (usually as the angio-oedema/asthma syndrome) may exhibit the same phenomenon on NAPROSYN. The following additional occurrences have been reported with NAPROSYN but a causal relationship to NAPROSYN has not been established: abdominal discomfort, epigastric distress, headache, inability to concentrate, insomnia, thrombocytopenia, tinnitus, vertigo.

Sporadic abnormalities in laboratory tests (e.g. liver function tests) have occurred in patients on NAPROSYN therapy but no definite trend was seen in any test indicating toxicity.

Mild peripheral oedema has been observed in a few patients receiving NAPROSYN. Although sodium retention has not been reported in metabolic studies, it is possible that patients with questionable or compromised cardiac function may be at greater risk when taking NAPROSYN.

Teratology studies in rats and rabbits, at dose levels equivalent on a human multiple basis to those which have produced foetal abnormality with certain other non-steroidal anti-inflammatory agents, e.g. aspirin, have not produced evidence of foetal damage with NAPROSYN. As with other drugs of this type, NAPROSYN produces delay in parturition in animals. The relevance of this finding to human patients is unknown. However, good medical practice indicates minimal drug usage in pregnancy, and use of this class of therapeutic agent requires cautious balancing of possible benefits against potential risks to the mother and foetus.

Overdosage: Should a patient ingest a large number of NAPROSYN tablets accidentally or purposefully, the stomach may be emptied and usual supportive measures employed. Animal studies indicate that the prompt administration of activated charcoal in adequate amounts would tend to reduce markedly the absorption of the drug.

Pharmaceutical Precautions: Protect from light.

Legal Category: To be supplied on prescription only.

Package Quantities: NAPROSYN is supplied in canisters of 250 tablets. (N.H.S. cost - 14p per day.)

Further Information: In addition to the excellent therapeutic efficacy demonstrated by NAPROSYN in comparative clinical trials, good tolerance has been demonstrated, even in patients exhibiting multiple intolerance to other commonly used non-steroidal anti-inflammatory agents.

Product Licence Number PL/0286/0031B.

NAPROSYN is a registered trade mark.

10,000 causes of asthma.

This bed is alive. Crawling with Dermatophagoides pteronyssinus, the common house dust mite.

The mite is found "...almost everywhere that human beings live, but particularly where they sleep".

Brit. med. J., (1969), 2, 723. It has also been identified as "...the most common cause of allergic asthma in this country, particularly in children".

Brit. med. J., (1970), 2, 501. The house dust mite is an extremely potent allergen. In fact it has been calculated that the inhalation of mite material in an amount weighing less than one whole live mite would be capable of precipitating an allergic reaction.

The mite population lives on human skin scales. Each of us sheds about 5 g. of dander a week and 0.5 g.-1 g. of this accumulates in beds and bedding, an amount which can support up to 10,000 mites. For most people, this thriving subculture means little. But to the allergic asthmatic it could mean the difference between a dream and a nightmare.

It is now firmly established that house dust is one of the most important allergic causes of asthma and that the most important allergen of house dust is a minute insect called the house dust mite.

The Asthma Research Council

Avoidance is Impossible

In the home, it is virtually impossible to remove every trace of the mite: The ubiquitous creature exists in beds, carpets, curtains, cushions - anywhere that human beings and domestic dust come together. Even immaculate dwellings produce dust samples rich in live mites, their excreta and dead remains - all potent allergens. This is why the most effective way of controlling house dust mite sensitivity is immunisation.

Migen - for the prevention of Asthma

Migen is a new short course vaccine which immunises against the house dust mite. So it does not simply treat the symptoms of asthma - it prevents them. Immunisation against the powerful house dust mite allergen can raise the patient's overall level of tolerance. If he is multi-sensitive he may well find that he no longer reacts to contact with other allergens which have previously provoked attacks. And the stress caused by fear of attack is reduced.

Migen is the first short course treatment that gives you, the family doctor, real control over asthma.

Migen and Simplicity

There was a time when immunisation was both a complicated and lengthy business. Not so with Migen. Just six injections form a course of treatment for asthma and perennial rhinitis. With each syringe pre-filled to ensure easy administration and accurate dosage.

Migen and Safety

In Migen the active material is adsorbed on to tyrosine - a naturally occurring amino acid which is metabolised in the human body. The active material is therefore released slowly but completely for maximum effectiveness and minimum risk of adverse effects.

Diagnosis

Migen may usually be prescribed on the basis of a careful case history alone. A Diagnostic Aid has been devised to help identify, by case history, those patients who are most suitable for Migen treatment. If the diagnosis is still in doubt after the case study then the Migen Skin Test Kit may be used for confirmation. Both the Diagnostic Aid (which also includes notes for the guidance of patients) and the Skin Test Kit are available on request from Bencard.

Migen

Many products have been advocated for use in the treatment of asthma. Most have drawbacks that you and your patients suffer for the sake of some relief. Now Migen offers you an opportunity to treat the most common form of allergic asthma. From your surgery.

Migen  Bencard

Migen is a tyrosine adsorbed vaccine prepared from pure extract of Dermatophagoides pteronyssinus. Full information on Migen (regd.) is available on request from Bencard, Freeport, Brentford, TW8 9BE.

Corticosteroid and ACTH Treatment

Principles and Problems

A. B. MYLES and J. R. DALY

This book is a guide to the use of corticosteroids and ACTH in medicine, describing the principles underlying treatment with these compounds, as well as giving detailed information about their use in specific conditions. The effect of corticosteroids on pituitary-adrenal function is described in detail, as this is a source of particular anxiety and misunderstanding, and an account is given of the tests available for the investigation of pituitary-adrenal function. A special chapter deals with the ways in which ACTH therapy differs from that with corticosteroids, and its relative advantages and disadvantages are outlined.

What on earth's a tub of margarine doing in this Medical Journal?

We know that there's a significant link between saturated fats, serum cholesterol levels and coronary heart disease in man.^{1,2}

There are a number of guidelines for reducing the risk of coronary heart disease. One of the most important is the recommendation to reduce the amount of saturated fat intake in the diet.³

The American Heart Association,⁴ the combined Medical Boards of Norway, Sweden and Finland,⁵ and the National Heart Foundations of Australia and New Zealand,^{6,7} all recommend the reduction of saturated fat intake and an increase in the level of polyunsaturated fatty acids.

Many doctors are recommending a modified fat diet for patients at risk from a heart attack. The change is made easier with Flora.

Flora is an accepted component of a lipid lowering diet.^{8,9} The value of such a diet is indicated by the findings from three first generation clinical trials of primary prevention, which suggested that dietary modifications would reduce the incidence of coronary heart disease.^{10,11,12}

Flora is higher in polyunsaturated fats than any other leading margarine, and is low in saturated fats*. In addition, Flora is a highly acceptable food and so patients will use it if recommended to do so.

Give good advice - recommend Flora.

At least 50% of Flora's fat content is linoleic essential fatty acid. Flora has a fat content of not less than 80% of the total product and is sold in half pound tubs.*

Ostermilk Complete Formula for contented doctors, nurses and mothers.

Ostermilk Complete Formula, our new low solute milk food for hospital babies, has become the fastest growing baby food in the country.

Clinical trials have clearly shown that babies on this Ostermilk are more contented; they get more prolonged satisfaction between feeds, suffer less from regurgitation and severe wind and are less likely to have loose stools. Also, there is a considerable decrease in nappy rash.

Doctors have been quick to recognise the advantages of the new formula. The lower phosphorus content virtually eliminates the risk of hypocalcaemia and possible neonatal tetany. The low solute content reduces the chance of hypernatraemic dehydration. And the inclusion of carbohydrate as maltodextrin helps to overcome the problems of lactose intolerance.

Nurses, too, benefit from the new formula as it is available for hospital use in its ready-prepared form, Ostermilk Ready-to-Feed milk food for babies. This system provides individualized feeds in disposable glass bottles. So nursing staff spend less time with preparation and are more free to care for mothers and babies.

Out of hospital mother finds Ostermilk Complete Formula, in its powder form, very quick and easy to prepare as it can be mixed in the bottle. She doesn't even have to add sugar. It really is complete.

We're sure that the increasing number of hospitals and mothers now using our new Ostermilk will lead to many more contented babies. And a great deal of satisfaction, too, among all those concerned with infant feeding and care.

NEW from MSD Cardiovascular Research

For angina. For hypertension.

Merck Sharp & Dohme pleased to announce the introduction of Blocadren, the significant product of original research which provides practitioners with an efficient pharmacological method of decreasing the symptoms and signs of angina and hypertension. Blocadren is the most potent beta-blocker available.

Introducing a new beta-adrenergic blocking agent indicated

- for the long-term management of angina pectoris due to ischaemic heart disease
- for the treatment of essential hypertension

Blocadren.^{Trademark} One major product for

For the patient with angina—restricted by pain

A world-wide double-blind co-operative study was conducted by 29 investigators. Three hundred and seven patients completed the study.

Fewer anginal attacks

Patients receiving 'Blocadren' showed a drop from an average of 12 anginal attacks per week to under 4 attacks per week. Compared to placebo, twice as many patients on 'Blocadren' were free of anginal attacks (30% vs 13%).

Less severe anginal attacks

Investigators reported either no anginal episodes or only mild episodes in 67% of patients treated with 'Blocadren'.

Reduced intake of glyceryl trinitrate

Patients receiving 'Blocadren' showed a reduction from a pretreatment average weekly intake of glyceryl trinitrate from 10.6 tablets to 3.2 tablets at the completion of the study. Compared to placebo, twice as many patients on 'Blocadren' had no need for glyceryl trinitrate (39% 'Blocadren' vs 19% placebo).

Stress tolerance improved

Patients receiving 'Blocadren' required significantly more stress to produce an anginal attack than did the patients receiving placebo (Week 28; $p < 0.01$).

Remarkable overall response

Good to excellent response was reported in 71% of patients treated with 'Blocadren' compared to only 26% of patients on placebo.

two major problems.

For the patient with hypertension—an asymptomatic risk

The asymptomatic hypertensive patient is 'at risk' for two reasons—side effects of medication may cause him to discontinue therapy, and inadequate control may result in progressive organ damage. 'Blocadren' can help remedy both problems.

Effective in 4 out of 5 patients

Clinical effectiveness was confirmed in 80% of patients treated with 'Blocadren' in a world-wide double-blind co-operative hypertension study.

Significant reduction in diastolic pressure

The average of the co-operative study and five other studies showed that 4 out of 5 patients responded with a significant reduction in pressure (defined as a reduction of 10 mm Hg or more, or a drop to 90 mm Hg, in supine diastolic pressure).

Percentage of patients responding in individual studies ranged from 64 to 94%.

Used safely with thiazide

In another study, 'Blocadren' was safely administered to 24 patients concurrently with hydrochlorothiazide.

BLOCADREN
Timolol maleate/MSD Trademark

'Blocadren' is supplied as half-scored 10 mg tablets.
 NOTE: As with all beta-adrenergic blocking agents, there are important contra-indications to the use of 'Blocadren' particularly congestive heart failure, allergic rhinitis, bronchospasm, and asthma. Detailed information is available to physicians on request.

Some people take barbiturates because they can't face another day

Every year many thousands of people attempt to kill themselves with barbiturates. Some die. Most survive. But usually, only after intensive treatment, in hospital.

Virtually all of these patients could be transferred to Mogadon, which is much safer,¹ but just as effective in inducing sleep.² Moreover, it causes few of the barbiturates' many other problems.³⁻⁵

Patients may still try to kill themselves. But with Mogadon few, if any, would succeed and most would recover in less than 12 hours without treatment.¹

Mogadon: far safer, far better

These are senior appointments and the rewards will be commensurate with the responsibilities. Extensive help will be given with relocation expenses. The Laboratory is modern and well equipped and is situated in pleasant rural surroundings close to Alderley Edge, some 14 miles south of Manchester.

Orudis

right from the start in arthritis...
for two good reasons

Up to 90% respond to it
80% show no side-effects

That's the evidence of recent clinical studies in more than 5000 patients

More chance of a favourable response. Less chance of unwanted reactions. These are the things that count in deciding treatment for any patient - and the advantages that make 'Orudis' a logical choice in those with arthritis.

Recent clinical studies in more than 5000 arthritic patients¹ have shown that up to 9 out of 10 derive benefit with 'Orudis' in reduced pain and stiffness and increased mobility. Experience in these same patients has demonstrated that in 8 out of 10 cases 'Orudis' produces no side-effects whatever.

Fewer problems for you. A brighter outlook for your patient. A better prospect all round. This, on the evidence, is what 'Orudis' adds up to in arthritis. So doesn't it make sense, when you think about it, to use it from the very beginning?

And now a logical development—new for the control of nasal symptoms in allergic rhinitis

Beconase NASAL SPRAY

- Provides fully effective control of nasal symptoms
- Employs a convenient and accurate drug delivery system
- Is free from the risk of systemic steroid side effects
- Reduces or obviates the need for antihistamines or topical vasoconstrictors and can eliminate the burden of sedative side effects and rebound congestion
- Consequently improves the quality of life for the patient with seasonal or perennial allergic rhinitis

Allergic rhinitis whether seasonal or perennial is a prevalent disease problem affecting a large number of people. Current drug treatments in the form of oral antihistamines and topically applied vasoconstrictor solutions are often not fully effective or are associated with a high incidence of unwanted side effects notably drowsiness and rebound congestion.

Oral or parenteral corticosteroid preparations are the most effective treatments for allergic rhinitis but, as in asthma, clinicians are reluctant to prescribe them because of the serious systemic side effects that may occur.

Beclomethasone dipropionate administered by metered-dose aerosol is now known to be as effective in asthma as systemic corticosteroids without causing their side effects. Administered intranasally as Beconase Nasal Spray it has been shown to be extremely effective in the control of seasonal and perennial allergic rhinitis again without causing the systemic side effects commonly occurring with corticosteroids.

"The effect of a daily dose of 400 mcg beclomethasone dipropionate aerosol intranasally has been investigated in a double-blind cross-over trial in 29 patients with hay fever. The effect on nasal symptoms was so pronounced in 25 patients that further symptomatic treatment was unnecessary."

(Brit. med. J., 1973, 4, 464)

PRESCRIBING INFORMATION

Indications. Beconase is indicated for the prophylaxis and treatment of perennial and seasonal allergic rhinitis, including hay fever.

Dosage and Clinical Use. The recommended maximum dosage is one application into each nostril, four times daily. Not for use in children.

Beconase is only for intranasal use. Other treatment may sometimes be necessary to control eye symptoms.

The effect of Beconase is not immediate and this should be explained to the patient. Full therapeutic benefit requires regular therapy.

Side Effects. No major side effects attributable to Beconase have been reported but occasionally sneezing attacks have followed immediately after use of the aerosol.

Contra-Indications. There are no specific contra-indications to the use of Beconase.

Precautions. Infections of the nasal passages and paranasal sinuses should be appropriately treated but do not constitute a specific contra-indication to treatment with Beconase.

Care must be taken while transferring patients from systemic steroid treatment to Beconase if there is any reason to suppose that their adrenal function is impaired.

Unnecessary administration of drugs during the first trimester of pregnancy is undesirable.

Presentation. Beconase is a metered-dose aerosol which delivers 50 mcg of beclomethasone dipropionate BP per actuation into a specially designed nasal applicator. Each canister of Beconase provides 200 sprays.

Becotide Inhaler-

"a notable advance in the treatment of asthma"

PRACTITIONER, 1973, 211, 86.

AS EFFECTIVE IN ASTHMA AS ORAL STEROID THERAPY

"By exerting a selective, topical, anti-inflammatory effect on the bronchial mucous membrane, it (Becotide Inhaler) is able, as this trial shows, to control asthma as well as prednisolone given by mouth."

(Brit. med. J., 1972, 3, 314)

"In this unit over 100 asthmatics have been converted from systemic corticosteroid therapy to beclomethasone dipropionate by inhalation."

(Brit. med. J. 1973, 4, 49)

FREE FROM SYSTEMIC EFFECTS AND ADRENAL SUPPRESSION

"Effective control of asthma is achieved (with Becotide Inhaler) with no evidence of systemic absorption or steroid side effects."

(Brit. med. J. 1972, 1, 585)

"Basal plasma-hydrocortisone levels did not become low (with Becotide Inhaler) in any patient, and in those transferred from prednisolone the plasma-hydrocortisone rose to normal."

(Lancet, 1972, i, 1361)

A FULLER AND LESS RESTRICTED LIFE FOR THE ASTHMATIC PATIENT

"The absence of growth suppression and the effects of complete absence of asthma on the lives and exertional capabilities of these children have been dramatic, often allied with marked improvement in emotional status and confidence."

(Brit. med. J., 1973, 3, 161)

"Of the 31 steroid-dependent patients (transferred to Becotide Inhaler), 28 showed loss of weight and 10 of these lost their Cushingoid facies."
