The simplest, safest and most effective treatment for intestinal amoebiasis...

FURAMIDE

Furamide relieves the symptoms of amoebic-dysentery and other forms of intestinal amoebiasis within a few days, effecting a complete cure in ten days.

Furamide is particularly useful in the treatment of cyst-passers and is without doubt the drug of choice for mass treatment because of the absence of side-effects.

Furamide offers several distinct advantages over other forms of treatment:

- A cure rate of 80% or more in the acute condition and 90% to 100% in the chronic condition may be expected.
- The specific amoebicidal effect does not upset normal bacterial flora of the gut.
- Bed-rest is unnecessary unless the clinical condition of the patient warrants it.
- Hospitalisation is not normally necessary.
- No special dietary restrictions or enemas are necessary.
- The only side-effects which may occur are occasionally flatulence, which may normally be disregarded, and less frequently an urticarial rash may be observed.

JOE GREEN'S CHILDREN are 10, 7 and 2. Joe Green is an epileptic, and a few months ago he was declared redundant. Now he supports his family on £9. 14. 0. per week unemployment benefit and family allowance. In addition to rent and HP payments, the Greens pay £2 per week off Joe Green's fine for receiving. The Greens are trying. Trying very hard. They love their children, keep them clean, feed them properly. But it was nearly Christmas and there just wasn't any money left over for toys, or sweets, or Christmas dinner. When Joe Green rang the NSPCC he was desperately afraid we might try to separate him from his children. Like a lot of people, he had the wrong idea about what the NSPCC does.

Only a few hours after Joe Green rang Inspector B. the inspector arrived with a parcel of clothing, sweets and toys for the children, and a few days later had arranged for the Greens' income to be raised to the £12. 0. 0. to which they are really entitled.

Inspector B. and hundreds like him are on call round the clock to handle emergencies and crises of all kinds. Their work is made possible only by private donations and legacies. Please help.

MEGACLOR SYRUP

Of all the tetracycline syrups available today Megaclor is the most soluble, ensuring rapid and effective absorption. Its combination of high anti-bacterial activity (particularly against staphylococci, streptococci and pneumococci) with minimal risk of undesirable side reactions makes Megaclor the ideal broad-spectrum antibiotic for children. Moreover, the use of Megaclor reduces the incidence of deposition in developing bone and teeth.

the chance is, they will be neither logical nor beneficial. For instance, Ferrograd-Folic will hardly be one of them, despite the fact that she may vitally need the iron and folic acid it contains.

Today, the place of effective oral iron in the management of pregnancy is unquestioned. Not so widely appreciated is the fact that folic acid is also vital. One in three women have been shown to have disturbance of folate metabolism during pregnancy.¹⁻³ At worst, this may lead to megaloblastic anaemia,^{1,4} which is associated with obstetric abnormalities, among the more important of which are premature labour, prematurity and consequent higher neonatal death rate.^{5,6}

Throughout the second and third trimesters of pregnancy one Ferrograd-Folic tablet a day, taken on an empty stomach for best effect, will provide all the iron and folic acid needed to prevent the development of iron- and folate-deficiency states and thus avoid the inherent risks to the health and well-being of mother and child.

The first penicillin clinically effective against Pseudomonas pyocyanea

Beecham's have now added Pyopen to their range of injectable semi-synthetic penicillins. Not only is it effective against Ps. pyocyanea (Ps. aeruginosa), but it is also highly active against E. coli and Proteus spp. including many strains of Pr. vulgaris, Pr. morganii and Pr. rettgeri, insensitive to other antibiotics.

Being a penicillin, Pyopen can be given if necessary in high dosages without fear of toxicity.¹

Pyopen is remarkably free from toxic effects and can be administered in sufficient dosages to obtain concentrations in the serum which are inhibitory to typical strains of Ps. pyocyanea, and the drug is also excreted in high concentration in the urine.²

INDICATIONS AND DOSAGE

Urinary Tract Infections: Pyopen achieves high urinary levels, which, together with its bactericidal action against Ps. pyocyanea, Proteus spp. (including many strains resistant to other antibiotics), and E. coli, make it particularly suitable for the treatment of urinary tract infections.³

Dosage: 1 g. 6-hourly by intramuscular injection, for 5-10 days.

Infected Burns: Pyopen reduces or eliminates Ps. pyocyanea from burns, and prevents further invasion by this organism. It is recommended for prophylactic treatment of high-risk patients.⁴

Dosage: Prophylactic dosage: 1 g. 6-hourly by intramuscular injection, for five days.

Severe Systemic Infections and Septicaemia: Pyopen's low toxicity allows large intramuscular or intravenous dosage to be used to achieve the necessary high blood levels.⁵

Dosage: 12-30 g. daily by intravenous injection or infusion. Higher blood levels can be achieved by simultaneous administration of probenecid.

Other indications: Dosage will depend on the site of infection and the sensitivity of the infecting organism.*

Paediatric Dosage: Dependent upon weight and age of child. A suitable daily dosage, depending upon site and organism involved, should lie between 100 and 300 mg. per kilogram body weight.*

Contra-indications: Penicillin allergy. N.B. Pyopen has no activity against penicillinase-producing staphylococci.

Side-effects: Some pain may be experienced at the site of injection, otherwise as for injectable penicillins.

Availability: Each vial contains 1 g. carbenicillin as the disodium salt for injection.

The brand of iron which provides a good haematinic response in iron-deficiency anaemia—a considerably reduced incidence of side effects and the least toxic form of iron

A double-blind comparison of Ferrodic with ferrous sulphate, both preparations containing 50 mg of ferrous iron + 12.5 mg ascorbic acid, in the treatment of iron-deficiency anaemia, showed that exactly equivalent haematinic effects were obtained with the two drugs. However, 'not only did Ferrodic cause side effects in a significantly smaller proportion of patients than ferrous sulphate, but the severity of such side-effects was also significantly less with Ferrodic.'

(Practitioner, 1967, 198, 848)

A very similar double-blind, clinical comparison of Ferrodic and ferrous sulphate has recently been published. The Author's purpose was to confirm the haematinic effectiveness and low incidence of side effects of Ferrodic, in view of its palatability and relative freedom from toxicity. The results again showed Ferrodic to have an equivalent haematinic effect to that of ferrous sulphate but 'side-effects occurred in a significantly higher proportion of subjects who received ferrous sulphate.'

(J. Therap. and Clin. Res., 1967, 1, 4)

FERRODIC TABLETS each contain ferrous iron (as ferrous carbonate) 50 mg and ascorbic acid 12.5 mg and are supplied in bottles of 100 tablets.

In the treatment of psoriasis, triacetoxyanthracene has been shown to exhibit the healing properties of dithranol while displaying none of the side effects of burning or staining the skin. It therefore may be used by the patient in his own home without the fear that any harm will result if it accidentally comes in contact with normal skin.

"Dithranol (trihydroxyanthracene) is one of the most effective drugs in the treatment of psoriasis. Unfortunately it has two disadvantages — it may irritate the skin and even cause blistering and it stains both the skin and the patient's under-clothes and bed linen. Within the last few months a modification of dithranol — 1,8,9-triacetoxyanthracene — has been developed which neither burns the skin nor stains clothes. It is now being marketed as Exolan paste"

Pharmaceutical Journal (1966) 2, 175

"Exolan is a recently developed synthetic derivation of dithranol. The active ingredient is preferentially liberated by hydrolysis on the surface of the psoriatic plaques. The molecule is so adapted that the staining and much of the irritant properties of dithranol are avoided with loss of only some of its potency . . . It may also be tolerated in cases where the psoriasis is too inflamed or acute for dithranol, or where staining makes it cosmetically unacceptable."

British Medical Journal (1966) 2, 993

"Patients known to be sensitive to dithranol were not treated with the new drug, but in one case such a patient was given triacetoxyanthracene without any adverse reaction occurring"

British Medical Journal (1967) 1, 682

"After three weeks treatment with triacetoxyanthracene paste there was an amazing clearance and he was able to roll up his sleeves for the first time for 25 years. After a further 3 weeks he was practically clear and better than he had been for 30 years."

British Journal of Dermatology (1967) 79, 491

Psoriasis case history. Male patient aged 72 years with widespread chronic psoriasis admitted to hospital 18th October, 1966. Exolan Cream prescribed for application twice daily. Psoriasis practically clear; patient discharged 1st November, 1966.

Exolan is the only specific treatment for Psoriasis which has been given an A.2. classification by the Standing Joint Committee on the Classification of Proprietary Preparations. (A.2.: "A preparation of a single therapeutically active drug which has been shown to the Committee's satisfaction to have an acceptable degree of efficacy in relation to its toxicity and therapeutic indications and which in the light of alternative available preparations can be recommended for use.") Exolan is entirely a product of British research.

summer-long protection against HAY FEVER with

D-VAC Pollens 3 dose course

regd.

D-VAC Pollens, Bencard emulsified 'depot' vaccine for 'classical' hay fever and pollen asthma, is the latest development in desensitising vaccines. The course of three carefully graded injections—fewer than for any other available—has been shown to be at least as effective as the much longer course with aqueous vaccine. Injection from a specially designed syringe ensures the controlled release of active emulsion through surrounding 'shield' emulsion. Local or systemic reactions are therefore rare provided that the recommended technique of administration is employed under antihistamine cover.

D-VAC Pollens is prepared from extracts of 12 varieties of common grass pollens (Bencard group B2), which are responsible for over 80% of cases of 'classical' hay fever and pollen asthma. Two alternative courses are available:

Primary Course: designed for patients who have not received pollen vaccine treatment in the last five years or whose seasonal symptoms are severe, and for children (aged 8-14 years).

Advanced Course: designed for patients aged 15 years and over who have had pollen vaccine treatment in the last five years and whose symptoms are not very severe.

(Patients suffering from atopic eczema should first be referred to an allergy clinic.)

The 3 injections are administered pre-seasonally at intervals of exactly 4 weeks, the first dose given in February or early March. Full technical details (administration, precautions, possible reactions, etc.) are supplied with each dose, or on request.

TO BE SURE

of obtaining D-VAC Pollens, it is advisable to prescribe and order before 31st December—quoting the course required (Primary or Advanced), the patient's name, and the date on which it is intended to administer the first dose: this date should fall between 12th February and 9th March, 1968.

Late orders will be met if possible up to 20th January, but in these cases first doses cannot be supplied for administration before 19th February.

The three doses of the course will be despatched separately at 4-week intervals to arrive in good time for administration, without need for further prescription or order.

(D-VAC Pollens is not available outside the U.K.)

Surprisingly little has been written about pain from the psychiatric and psychological viewpoints, although works have been published on its anatomical, physiological and neurological aspects. The authors of this book review the existing literature and from their own researches critically assess several available theories and offer their own unitary view of pain. The extensive bibliography to the literature covering all aspects of pain is an important feature.

Written by one of the country's leading virologists, this book was extremely well received when it first appeared three years ago, and for this new edition Sir Christopher Andrews has been assisted by Dr. H. G. Pereira. Subjects are discussed under the main groups: RNA viruses, DNA viruses and the unclassified. There is a full discussion of each virus, its properties, and relations with other viruses. Work in this field proceeds so rapidly that very considerable revision and rearrangement has been necessary. The carefully selected references to each chapter are those most helpful to the reader either because they afford the fullest account of the facts, or because they describe recent work not referred to elsewhere.

Spencer "Free Action" Support Brief for men

Spencer's revolutionary new concept of support in non-rubber, spandex elastic for back and abdomen.

Subtle in design to the degree of being mistaken for tailored, body-fitting underwear in the locker room, it actually provides powerful, functional support in elevating the viscera, thus relieving low back strain.

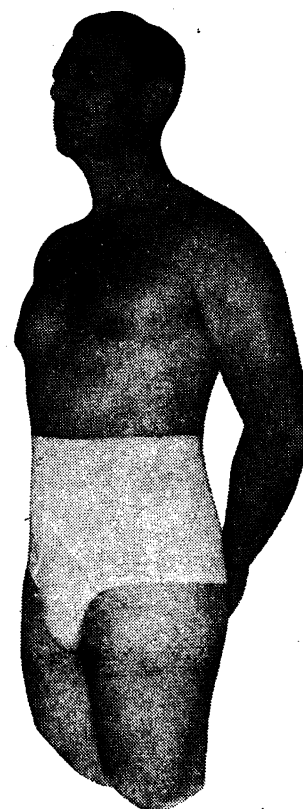

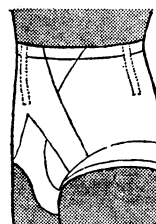

- ★ Front inner panels follow natural musculature.
- ★ Soft expansion areas at top edge and around legs allow motion and minimize bulging.
- ★ Comfortable, accommodating crotch section has easy access opening.

Patients have experienced relief from chronic low back pain while wearing the Support Brief.

We recommend this Brief for minor low back conditions and where it is considered beneficial to raise abdominal contents in aiding respiration, relieving ptosis, minimizing pooling of blood in lower abdomen, etc.

BRADILAN

the NEW Peripheral Vasodilator providing:

OPTIMUM VASODILATATION

'BRADILAN' is tetranicotinoylfructose, a new research development which provides effective, sustained vasodilatation by a direct action on the smooth muscle of peripheral arterial vessels.

SUSTAINED ACTIVITY

In the alkaline region of the alimentary tract, 'BRADILAN' (coated tablets of 250 mg. tetranicotinoylfructose) is gradually and evenly hydrolysed to nicotinic acid which is absorbed to provide a continuous adequate level of activity over several hours.

IMPROVED TOLERANCE

Despite the high activity level provided, eight published clinical trials on 'BRADILAN' stress the freedom, from nicotinic acid side effects (facial flushing, itching, headache, nausea), even at high dosage.

“IS THERE AN ALTERNATIVE?”

The N.H.S. is ailing. Must it stay that way?

Recently the B.M.J. has examined alternative ways of finding money and administering the service. What about a corporation? Or decentralization? Or a lottery? Or private insurance? These and other possibilities have been considered by experts in economics and related fields. All the articles have now been reprinted in booklet form, with a medical summing up by Sir Robert Aitken, Vice-chancellor of the University of Birmingham. Anyone with an interest in the National Health Service must read this book.

Ovulen , the most widely prescribed oral contraceptive in Britain today.

Doctor experience The physician finds Ovulen 1 mg. not only an effective contraceptive, but also one which is very well tolerated. More prescriptions are written for Ovulen 1 mg. than for any other oral contraceptive in Britain.

Clinical experience Ovulen 1 mg. was subjected to extensive clinical trials in 2,500 women before it was made commercially available. Today, more than 16,000 women have been involved in clinical trials for over 190,000 cycles of experience.

Patient experience The acceptability of Ovulen 1 mg. is, of course, an important reason for its wide usage. Today millions of women in Britain and overseas use this low dose oral contraceptive.

Company experience Searle's experience in oral contraception is well known. In the 14 years since Searle developed the first oral contraceptive, its products have been used by many millions of women. Ovulen 1 mg. is widely used in national family planning programmes throughout the world and in routine clinical practice.

“What has apparently received little publicity and certainly very much less than it deserves is the potential of the method (oral contraception) for the production of highly desirable and pleasant side-effects, such as the heartening degree of personal happiness that seems to come to the patient, presumably from the confidence in the future that the method affords. I have also been favourably impressed by how readily and effectively this sense of happiness and confidence extends to other members of the family, husband and existing children . . .”

Johnny went into hiding q.i.d. until the doctor prescribed 'Ilosone' Suspension

'Ilosone' excels in paediatric infections. But the flavour of the suspension (although important to Johnny) is only one of the reasons why it works so well. Against gram-positive cocci 'Ilosone' is much more active than, for example, the tetracyclines – and it will not discolour teeth or deposit in bone. Thus for infections such as tonsillitis, pharyngitis, pneumonia, otitis media and acute bronchitis – 'Ilosone' Suspension is a first-line treatment.

100 ml Suspension contains 125 mg* 'Ilosone' per 5 ml. 250 mg* and 125 mg* 'Pulvules' are also available.
Full information available on request.

These studies show why Pro-Banthine* reduces the pain of peptic ulcer

propantheline bromide

1 E.B., male, age 48. Normal antral contraction. Pyloric opening is not seen. It is difficult to differentiate a deep prepyloric contraction from a "pyloric fleurette" of true pylorus.

2 Same subject after 6 mg. of propantheline bromide intravenously; antral contractions ceased. The pyloric orifice remains open and is easily identified. Better visualisation of the antrum is also obtained.

These intra-gastric photographs were taken by the techniques of continuous cine-fibregastroscopy during the intravenous administration of Pro-Banthine, and demonstrate clearly its ability to inhibit gastric motor activity at a low dosage level. The ability of Pro-Banthine, whether given orally or parenterally, to reduce spasm, coupled with its superior activity in reducing gastric acid secretion, leading to rapid pain relief, is the reason for the widespread use of the compound in the treatment of peptic ulcer.

BIRMINGHAM REGIONAL HOSPITAL BOARD

PRINCIPAL ASSISTANT SENIOR MEDICAL OFFICER COMPUTER SERVICES

The Birmingham Regional Hospital Board require a Principal Assistant Senior Medical Officer with a particular interest in developing the medical application of computers and applying hospital activity analysis and other data to the allocation of hospital resources. The person appointed will be a member of the staff of the Senior Administrative Medical Officer of the Board and will be his representative on the Board's Management Services Group.

The Region covers the counties of Hereford, Salop, Warwick, Worcester, and Stafford, in which there are 26 hospital groups with 42,000 beds serving a population of over five million. There are very close links with the four Universities and numerous technical colleges contained within the Region, especially for educational and research programmes. The medical department contains a large statistical section and the Royal College of General Practitioners Research and Statistical Unit is housed within the main office building. Ten years' experience of data processing by computer has been acquired and major proposals within this field are being developed. Research into the use of computers in all aspects of hospital activity will be based on three modern installations: one in replacement of the present I.C.T. 1500 at Board headquarters; one on the Hospital Centre site at Stoke, and a smaller machine in the laboratory at Warwick.

The Board headquarters installation is concerned with furthering the development of an integrated statistical and financial system with as one of its objectives the provision of accurate information for the Board's Medical and Nursing Services. Subsequent developments envisage the provision of direct computer links with hospitals in Birmingham.

The computer installation based on the Hospital Centre site at Stoke is an ambitious research project concerned with developing medical application of computers as an integral part of the hospital management structure. This project could eventually embrace all aspects of medical care including the General Practitioner and Local Authority services.

The installation at Warwick is a laboratory-based computer and represents a further stage in the experiments being carried out by the Warwick laboratory automation working party.

In addition to the responsibilities described above, the officer appointed will be required to assist the Senior Administrative Medical Officer with the planning and development of hospital and specialist services, in which he will be supported by medical, administrative, and secretarial personnel.

Salary £2,985 × £120 (1)—£3,105 × £130 (5)—£3,755 per annum.

ASSISTANT SENIOR MEDICAL OFFICER

This post offers opportunities for pursuing an interest in the development of one or more aspects of hospital service administration. Facilities are available for promoting operational research, data processing, advanced management techniques, etc., in conjunction with the University departments in the region. Previous holders of the appointment have gained promotion. The successful candidate will be a member of one of the Board's planning teams, each of which are supported by administrative and secretarial personnel and are concerned with the administration and organization of the hospital and specialist services to a population of approximately 1½ million.

Salary £2,770 × £110 (6)—£3,430 per annum.

TRAINEE ADMINISTRATIVE MEDICAL OFFICER

This post offers comprehensive training in medical administration, under the expert guidance of the Board's senior advisers, in all branches of the National Health Service. The successful candidate will have a period of in-service training, including planning, epidemiology, operational research and data processing, with periods of secondment to the University of Birmingham, Board of Governors of the United Birmingham Hospitals, a major local health authority, and an Executive Council. Thereafter, the successful candidate will be considered for further secondment for an academic year to attend a course leading to a postgraduate diploma appropriate to the field of medical administration. On gaining the diploma, the candidate will be considered for advancement to the post of Assistant Senior Medical Officer.

Salary £2,105 at age 29 or less, rising to £2,335 at age 33 × £70 (3)—£2,770 per annum.

All posts superannuable.

BOARD
NOTICE TO MEDICAL AND DENTAL PRACTITIONERS

The National Drugs Advisory Board wishes to draw the attention of all practising doctors and dentists to its function in relation to the reporting and assessment of adverse reactions occurring as a result of the administration of any drug in Ireland.

An explanatory letter is being circulated to all doctors and dentists in Ireland asking for their assistance in reporting any adverse reactions to drugs which may occur during the course of their practices. Special business reply cards are being supplied for this purpose. The information received will be collated, recorded and assessed by the Board. If it appears that the incidence of side-effects to a particular drug warrants any precautions, the Board will inform all practitioners.

The Board earnestly requests the help of doctors and dentists in this endeavour, by which it is hoped that practitioners may receive an early warning if particular care must be exercised in the use of any drug, or indeed if its administration may be dangerous to patients under their care.

when a teaspoonful of Pholtex can give cough
relief for 8 to 10 hours

No need for frequent doses . . . no bulky bottle to carry around . . . a good night's sleep or a good day's work undisturbed by coughing . . . these are the advantages of Pholtex for your patient. Each 4 ml. teaspoonful of Pholtex contains Pholcodine B.P. 15 mg. and phenyltoloxamine 10 mg. as ion-exchange resin complexes in a pleasantly-flavoured thixotropic vehicle. Dosage is one teaspoonful two to three times daily—for children, half to full adult dosage according to age. Basic NHS cost: 2 fl. oz. 5/-; 20 fl. oz. 47/4. Additional information is available on request.
