

a complete change

MUCODYNE is a unique treatment for bronchitic mucus. This means easier expectoration; decrease in dyspnoea; improved ciliary transport; a more normal secretion which does not plug the bronchus, is less likely to damage lung tissue or act as a source of secondary infection.

Other treatments, mostly expectorants, "... are nauseants which, reflexly, increase the secretions within the respiratory tract"², thus forming more mucus. MUCODYNE avoids this vicious circle. It acts at biochemical and cellular levels to restrict sticky mucus formation, to convert tenacious sputum to a healthier secretion and to reduce hyperplasia of the respiratory mucosa. MUCODYNE literally changes bronchitic mucus. And your patients will feel the change.

In ASTHMA,
when Bronchodilators or Bronchodilators + Cromoglycate will not provide adequate control, Becotide Inhaler is the rational approach.

THE RATIONALE

When asthma can neither be prevented by sodium cromoglycate nor adequately relieved by a sympathomimetic bronchodilator, the most effective treatment is unquestionably a corticosteroid.

Until beclomethasone dipropionate inhaled steroid was made available (as Becotide Inhaler), corticosteroids could only be given in asthma by mouth or injection and unfortunately when administered by these routes on a long term basis, they depress the response of the hypothalamic-pituitary adrenal (HPA) axis to stress and may cause other well known undesirable side effects.

Thus the decision to prescribe steroids in asthma has posed a considerable dilemma for clinicians. Side effects have either been accepted as the inevitable consequence of efficacy or attempts have been made to minimise them by using a reduced dosage which has often led to inadequate control of the disease.

A NEW DIMENSION IN ASTHMA THERAPY

The acceptance and success to date of Becotide Inhaler has introduced a new dimension into asthma therapy. The benefits of effective control of the inflammatory processes in the lung can be achieved without causing potentially dangerous side effects, including adrenal suppression. The only adverse findings with Becotide Inhaler have been occasional hoarseness and candidiasis of the mouth and throat which responds to topical antifungal therapy without discontinuing treatment with the inhaler.

Thus patients with asthma may now be given the full benefit of steroid therapy without serious risk: for many, their whole lives can be transformed.

"For those who are poorly controlled on bronchodilators or DSCG, this treatment (Becotide Inhaler) can give complete or comparative freedom from airways obstruction without risk of adrenal suppression or other side effects."

(Brit. med. J., 1973, 3, 161.)

"These show very clearly the dramatic changes which took place on the introduction of aerosol therapy (Becotide Inhaler), but cannot illustrate the even more striking improvement which occurred in psychological adjustment to the disease and in athletic performance."

(Brit. med. J., 1973, 3, 161.)

THE CLINICAL EVIDENCE IS EXTENSIVE AND CONVINCING

Becotide Inhaler has been evaluated in many British Chest Units, at first in severe chronic asthmatic patients already maintained on systemic steroids and, as its efficacy has been established, increasingly in patients with only occasional or no previous treatment with steroids.

To date, no fewer than twenty published clinical trials confirm that Becotide Inhaler is an exceptionally effective means of controlling asthma without the risk of serious side effects.

The clinical management of a typical patient exhibiting a waning response to bronchodilators illustrating the introduction of inhaled steroid into the therapeutic regimen.

Symptoms: Putting your foot down when it comes to seeing a financial planning adviser even though you could benefit from his specialist knowledge of financial problems.

The Treatment

Doctors' financial problems are special and require special solutions. They need sound financial planning that takes account of these. The Medical Sickness Society exists only to serve the medical and dental professions and provides a range of services specially suited to doctors' needs.

A first priority with any doctor should be to protect his family's income whatever may happen to him, whether it is long term illness or his untimely death. Pension provision or improvement needs looking at. So do tax and estate duty alleviation as well as plans for investment and long-term saving.

The Medical Sickness Society has answers for them all. When you do business with us you can deal with a full time member of our advisory staff who can meet you half way because he knows your needs. An expert will be pleased to come and suggest the right plans for your own circumstances.

Now from Beecham: an oral penicillin specifically for Urinary Tract Infections.

Urinary tract infections are rarely as simple as they seem. Patients with renal infection may present with no symptoms other than dysuria and frequency. And management is very often complicated by relapse and recurrence.

Now Beecham have introduced Uticillin, a powerful oral penicillin indicated specifically for the treatment of urinary tract infections such as cystitis and pyelonephritis. Uticillin will successfully treat 9 out of 10 patients first time, with a reduced risk of relapse. Uticillin has the inherent safety of penicillin. Unlike many urinary antibacterials, Uticillin can be prescribed both in pregnancy and when the possibility of pregnancy must be considered.

And the dosage is simple to remember—1 tablet three times a day.

Uticillin. The decisive answer to acute and chronic urinary tract infections.

Adult dosage: Simple urinary tract infections, 1 tablet (500 mg) t.i.d.

Complicated and recurrent urinary tract infections, 2 tablets (1g) t.i.d.

Contra-indication: Penicillin hypersensitivity.

Side-effects: As with other penicillins.

Precaution: In mild and moderate degrees of renal impairment the normal dosage recommendations should be followed. In patients with severe renal failure (creatinine clearance of 10 ml/min or less) carficillin is not recommended; in such patients urine levels may be insufficient for therapeutic efficacy.

A seasonal reminder from Bencard

A reminder, that is, that the hayfever season is closer than you think. Make it a Pollinex season.

Recent clinical trial work¹ showed that a single three-dose course of Pollinex is effective in the large majority of hayfever patients. It is considered that further benefits may ensue with each year's pre-seasonal Pollinex course.

Combining safety and efficacy, Pollinex contains twelve grass pollens chemically modified and adsorbed on a tyrosine base to allow slow and complete release of active material, ensuring maximum effectiveness and minimum risk of side effects.

Pollinex consists of only three injections presented in disposable syringes pre-filled for accuracy of dosage and ease of administration.

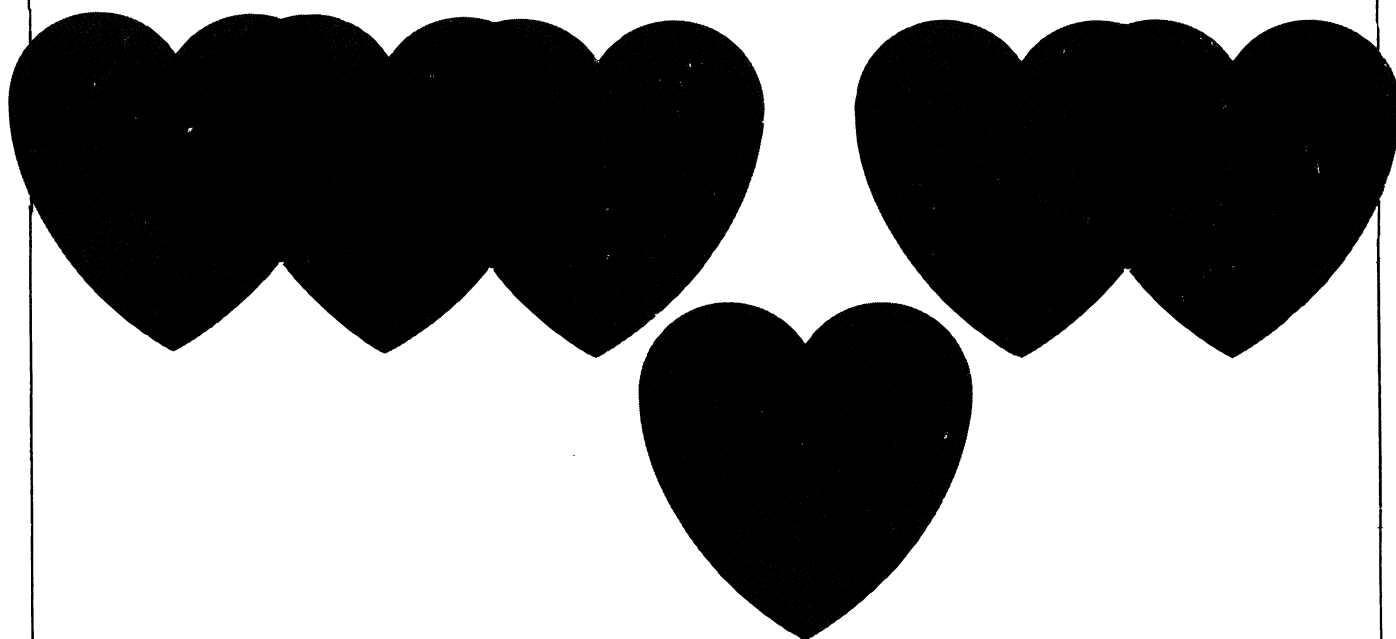

Give your hayfever patients a trouble-free year. Remind them about Pollinex treatment now. Ask for a supply of Patient Recall Cards from Bencard, and give your patients the best New Year gift they could receive.

Heart Attacks—can they be predicted?

"The conclusion seems inescapable that the occurrence of a cardiovascular catastrophe in the hypertensive patient constitutes a medical failure rather than the first indication for treatment. Apparent medical trivia such as asymptomatic hypertension when accompanied by hypercholesterolaemia, impaired glucose tolerance, the cigarette habit or ECG abnormalities are responsible for the bulk of cardiovascular mortality. We must learn to diagnose cardiovascular disease on its way to happening, to recognise the hallmarks of increased vulnerability and to synthesize them into a composite risk estimate, and also how to deal with the cardiovascular disease precursors effectively."¹

"With a casual blood test for cholesterol and sugar, blood pressure determination, cigarette history and ECG examination, it is possible to identify a tenth of the asymptomatic population from which 25% of the coronary heart disease, 40% of the occlusive peripheral arterial disease, and 50% of the strokes and congestive failure will evolve."¹

"The Tell-Tale Heart", the title of Edgar Allan Poe's story has a second meaning for the general practitioner. The patient at risk to heart disease will often reveal this unwittingly by "Tell-Tale" signs.

First suspicions may be aroused by tobacco stained fingers, obesity, dyspnoea, raised blood pressure or a family history of heart disease. Glucose intolerance or an ECG abnormality may show at closer examination. Furthermore, a raised serum cholesterol level may also be found¹

Each of the above factors significantly increases likelihood of C.H.D., the risk rising with the number of factors present.^{1,2}

A recent study proved the predictive use of these risk factors in a group of 5000 men. C.H.D. was twenty-nine times more common in the high risk group than in controls – smoking, raised cholesterol and raised blood pressure being the best predictors of C.H.D.²

Since medical opinion at present recommends reduction of these risk factors, moderation of smoking and eating habits may be advantageous. However, reduction of a major risk factor – raised serum cholesterol – is of prime importance and here therapy may be indicated with Secholex, a new palatable ion exchange gel. Taken alone, or with clofibrate, marked reductions in serum cholesterol are obtained.^{3,4,5}

¶ In the cases of our severely sick in-patients, which of course cannot be compared with milder cases of out-patient practice, we found with amoxycillin [Amoxil] a clearly longer relapse rate than with other preparations.³ (These included various tetracyclines, ampicillin, chloramphenicol and cephalosporin).

¶ Amoxycillin [Amoxil] was more effective than oxytetracycline when all the patients treated were considered together. Its superiority, however, was most marked in the case of the less severely affected patients, in whom the differences were highly significant.³

¶ The demonstration that amoxycillin [Amoxil] penetrates into bronchial secretions as efficiently when the mucosa is uninfamed as when it is inflamed, suggests that clearance of bacteria from the lower respiratory tract should be more easily accomplished with this drug than ampicillin. Further, there is the implication that organisms may be more readily cleared from the upper respiratory tract, which frequently acts as a reservoir of potential pathogens from which relapse of lower respiratory infection may stem.^{4,5}

Committee for Postgraduate Medical Education in Wales

Vocational Training for General Practice in Wales

Abergavenny (Gwent)	Rhyl (clwyd)
Bridgend (Mid-Glamorgan)	Swansea (West Glamorgan)
Cardiff 1 (South Glamorgan)	Wrexham (Clwyd)
Cardiff 2 (South Glamorgan)

(The Scheme for Gwynedd will be advertised separately).

All the Schemes are approved to meet the educational requirements for the M.R.C.G.P. and other postgraduate diplomas. In each case trainees will rotate through four six month appointments in Hospital posts and two periods of six months in a teaching General Practice. The exceptions to this plan are (i) Abergavenny; where one of the hospital posts is replaced by six months in Occupational and Community Medicine and (ii) The Cardiff 2 Scheme which is designed for candidates who have already completed some post registration appointments and this consists of only one year in hospital posts and one year in General Practice.

Those doctors who wish to obtain a trainee post in Wales, other than in a Vocational Scheme are also invited to inquire of the undersigned.

It is pointed out that occasionally an unexpected vacancy may occur in any of the Welsh Schemes in February of any year and inquiries from interested parties are always welcome.

Inquirers for further particulars should state clearly which of the Schemes are of interest to them. Candidates will be interviewed at each of the Centres for which they are short-listed.

Further particulars and application forms may be obtained from Dr. D. J. Llewellyn, Adviser in General Practice for Wales, Riversdale House, Bridgend, Glam. CF31 3NL. Application forms should be returned by 16th December, 1974; but late inquiries may receive sympathetic consideration. (H13122) 21

COMMERCIAL APPOINTMENTS

Clinical Pharmacologist
Registrar Grade

Studies in several fields of clinical pharmacology, in particular absorption from the gastro-intestinal tract, are centred in a new purpose-built six-bed unit at West Middlesex Hospital where this man, as Beecham Research Fellow, will become a key member of the small energetic medical team. There are excellent ancillary and laboratory facilities available both at the hospital and at the Beecham fundamental research unit near Dorking in Surrey.

Candidates need not have research experience but should already have gained the M.R.C.P. The job offers an intensive training in research methods in the human pharmacology of new drugs and an opportunity for the Fellow to pursue an original line of study.

UNIVERSITY OF DAR ES SALAAM Tanzania

Applications are invited for the following posts in the Faculty of Medicine:

PROFESSOR/SENIOR LECTURER/LECTURER/ASSISTANT LECTURER IN MICROBIOLOGY AND IMMUNOLOGY
Applicants should possess a sound academic background with a higher degree in Medical Microbiology and experience in Diagnostic Microbiology and Immunology or Virology. A medical qualification would be an advantage, but not a prerequisite. Teaching experience is essential. Principal duties include the teaching of Medical Microbiology and Immunology courses to undergraduates, postgraduate teaching, training of personnel and the running and further development of diagnostic microbiological/serological services for the teaching hospital. For appointees, there are good opportunities for original research on a wide range of relevant microbiological/immunological problems. One of the positions will be filled by a virologist.

SENIOR LECTURER/LECTURER IN RADIOLOGY
in the Department of Surgery
Applicants should have had postgraduate training in Radiology and preferably be holders of F.R.C.R. or D.M.R.D. or equivalent. Appointee will be responsible to the head of Surgery for teaching Radiology to undergraduates and postgraduates. He will also be eligible for appointment as Honorary Consultant Radiologist in Muhimbili Hospital and will take an active part in day-to-day diagnostic radiology. An interest in Radiotherapy will be an added advantage since there is also a Cobalt 60 unit at Muhimbili Hospital which is inadequately staffed. He will also assist the Consultant Radiologist in training radiographers and radiographic auxiliaries for the Ministry of Health. He will be expected to become involved in research, either individually or collectively with other members of the teaching staff.

SENIOR LECTURER/LECTURER IN OPHTHALMOLOGY
in the Department of Surgery. Candidates must be medically qualified with a higher qualification such as D.O., D.O.M.S. or equivalent. Preference will be given to those with teaching and/or research experience. Appointees will be expected to teach undergraduates and undertake research and provide clinical ophthalmic service in the hospital, where they will be given honorary specialist status by the Ministry of Health.

SENIOR LECTURER/LECTURER IN EAR, NOSE AND THROAT (Otolaryngology)
in the Department of Surgery. Candidates must be medically qualified with F.R.C.S. or equivalent and in addition, possess a diploma such as D.L.O. or equivalent. Preference will be given to those with teaching and/or research experience. Appointee will be expected to teach undergraduates and postgraduates, undertake research, and provide clinical E.N.T. service in the hospital, where appointees will be given honorary specialist status by the Ministry of Health.

PROFESSOR IN SURGERY
Candidates must hold F.R.C.S. or equivalent with extensive teaching experience. Appointee will be responsible to the Head of the Department of Surgery for postgraduate and undergraduate teaching, and curriculum review for these schemes in conformity with the Faculty and Departmental objectives. He will also be required to undertake research and motivate junior members of the Department to do the same.

SENIOR LECTURER/LECTURER IN SURGERY
Candidates must hold F.R.C.S. or equivalent in General Surgery. Experience in teaching would be an advantage. Appointees will assist in the organisation and development of undergraduate teaching in an integrated medical curriculum and in training junior staff.

LECTURER IN BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCE (Psychology)
in the Division of Community Medicine. Candidates must hold a Ph.D. in Psychology with teaching experience at university level and professional experience or research in both Community and Clinical settings. This position primarily requires teaching general psychology to medical students as part of an integrated Behavioural Science programme. Additional teaching of postgraduate medical students, paramedical students etc. may be possible. Field work with medical students will be expected, as well as some participation in ongoing Behavioural Science projects and studies. Co-operative research opportunities exist in Medical Education, Community Health and a number of clinical areas.

PROFESSOR/ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR IN PHYSIOLOGY
Applicants should be medically qualified and/or have a doctorate in Physiology. Physiology is integrated with other disciplines and is mainly taught in the first two years of a five year programme.

PROFESSOR/SENIOR LECTURER/LECTURER IN OBSTETRICS AND GYNAECOLOGY
Candidates must have a higher qualification. M.R.C.O.G. or equivalent. Previous teaching experience is essential for the Professorship. Appointees will teach undergraduates and postgraduates, will undertake clinical responsibilities in the hospital and will help with the development of the Department.

Medical Adviser Overseas Aid Projects £9,400

This appointment, based in London, offers you as a registered medical practitioner the opportunity to become involved in the Ministry of Overseas Development's aid projects in the developing countries. Your particular responsibilities will cover West and Central Africa, the Caribbean and South America, and you will visit these areas several times a year spending some 10 weeks away annually.

The range of health projects undertaken is wide and will often be on a major scale, such as advice on setting up and running health services in these countries, with the associated problems of training and organisation. Often, too, the Ministry's industrial and social development programmes will call for detailed consideration of health aspects, and will enable you to apply your expertise within a broad multi-disciplinary context. Assessment of research, particularly into tropical diseases, is also an integral part of the post, and will keep you in constant contact with professional and academic institutions.

Applicants should preferably have had wide and varied experience in medical administration and public health at home and overseas.

The salary for this appointment will be £9,400 with non-contributory pension scheme.

For full details and an application form (to be returned by 6th December 1974) write to the Civil Service Commission, Alencon Link, Basingstoke, Hants RG21 1JB, or telephone BASINGSTOKE 29222 ext. 500 (or, for 24 hour answering service, LONDON 01-839 1992). Please quote S/8789/3.

Scope in Zambia for

Anaesthetist

This appointment with Roan Consolidated Mines in Zambia will appeal to a Doctor whose prime interest is anaesthetics. The practitioner appointed will spend 80% of his time giving anaesthetics in the two hospitals run by the company for their mine employees and dependants. The remaining 20% of his time will be taken up by relieving his colleagues in general medical duties.

The hospitals and clinics run by the company provide for about 50,000 local and 2,000 expatriate personnel in the town of Luanshya. The team of 11 practitioners includes a specialist surgeon, gynaecologist/obstetrician and an orthopaedist. Operating sessions are held five days a week. Members of the team work a rota system so that off-duty hours can be maximised for all. The hospitals have air-conditioned theatres, piped oxygen and Boyle-type anaesthetic machines. The medical staff is under the administrative control of a qualified Chief Medical Officer.

Employment will be on a renewable contract basis for three years. Salary will be negotiated depending on experience and qualifications. A Diploma in Anaesthetics is preferred.

Additional benefits include ■ generous leave conditions with return passages paid every two years ■ generous baggage allowance ■ tax free settling-in allowance ■ furnished accommodation at low rental ■ tax free children's education and travel allowances ■ free life assurance ■ car for professional use.

PFIZER INTRODUCES

Hypovase*
brand of prazosin hydrochloride

*Trade Mark

A NEW AGENT FOR THE TREATMENT OF HYPERTENSION

CONTROLS BLOOD PRESSURE SMOOTHLY

IN ALL GRADES OF BENIGN HYPERTENSION

WITH FEW DISTRESSING
HAEMODYNAMIC EFFECTS

THROUGH A UNIQUE
MODE OF ACTION

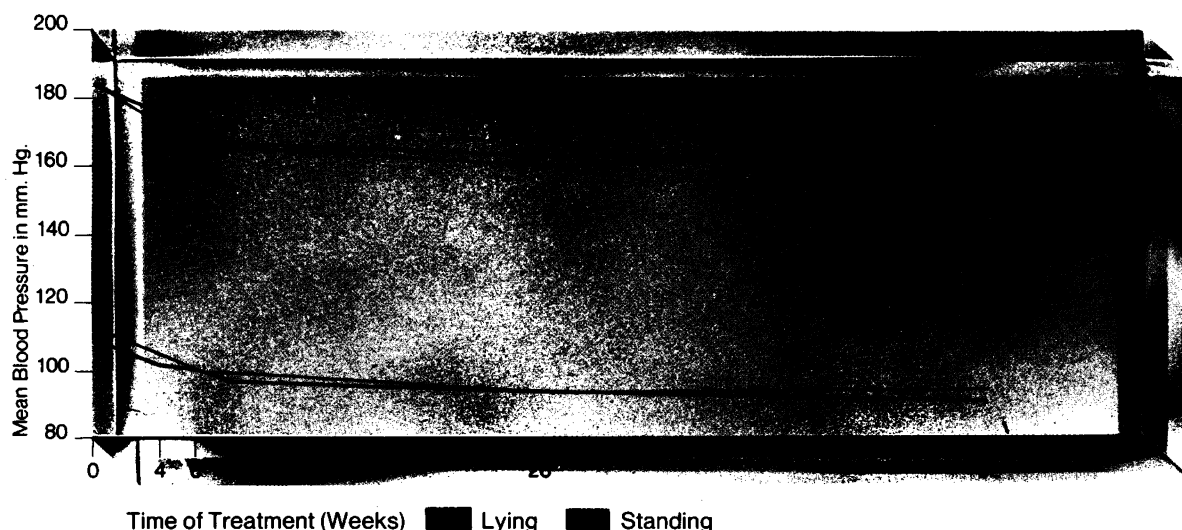

NEW Hypovase*

brand of prazosin hydrochloride *Trade Mark

SMOOTH, GRADUAL REDUCTION OF ELEVATED BLOOD PRESSURE . . .

lying or standing, with no abrupt falls in blood pressure even during the first few days of treatment. The onset of effect is smooth and gradual, reaching the maximum for a given dose in 2 to 8 weeks.

SMOOTH CONTROL MAINTAINED WITH NO DEVELOPMENT OF TOLERANCE¹

EFFECTIVE IN ALL GRADES OF BENIGN HYPERTENSION

Clinical studies involving more than 1,000 patients to date have amply confirmed the efficacy of Hypovase in benign hypertension of all degrees of severity. In refractory cases, the addition of a thiazide to the regimen often produces a satisfactory response.

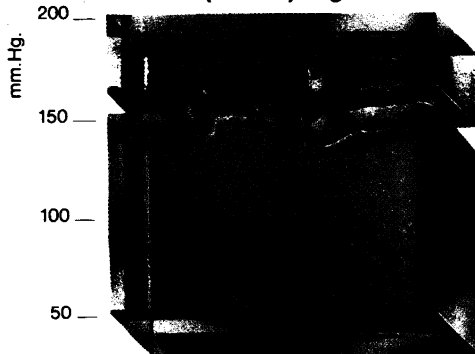

"The data cited show that...[Hypovase]...when given alone in divided doses...induces a decline of mean arterial blood pressure of more than 15 mm. Hg in about three-quarters of ambulatory patients with mild to gross severity of disease..."

J. Clin. Pharmacol. 1970, 10, 408

LOW INCIDENCE OF POSTURAL HYPOTENSION AND OTHER DISTRESSING HAEMODYNAMIC EFFECTS

IN DOGS, A NOTABLE ABSENCE OF ORTHOSTATIC CHANGES²

Tilt response: untreated (control) dog

(fig. 1)

Tilt response: after administration of Hypovase 0.1 mg/kg. iv.

(fig. 2)

The normal haemodynamic pattern elicited when an untreated (control) animal is abruptly tilted from the horizontal position (fig. 1.) is closely approximated by the pattern obtained following administration of Hypovase (fig. 2.)

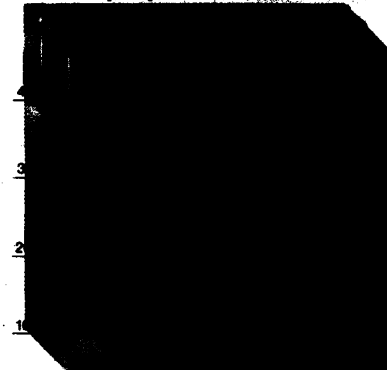

IN HUMANS, HYPOVASE APPEARS TO NORMALIZE SYSTEMIC CIRCULATION³

The following parameters were determined under increasing work loads.

No significant effect
on cardiac index

Significant reduction in elevated peripheral resistance.

— Before treatment
--- After treatment

No significant effect
on heart rate

Unlike many other antihypertensive agents, Hypovase appears to effect a normalization of the systemic circulation in benign essential hypertension. Orthostatic hypotension seldom occurs, cardiac output tends to improve with therapy, and adverse cardiovascular and renal changes are not a problem.

NEW Hypovase*

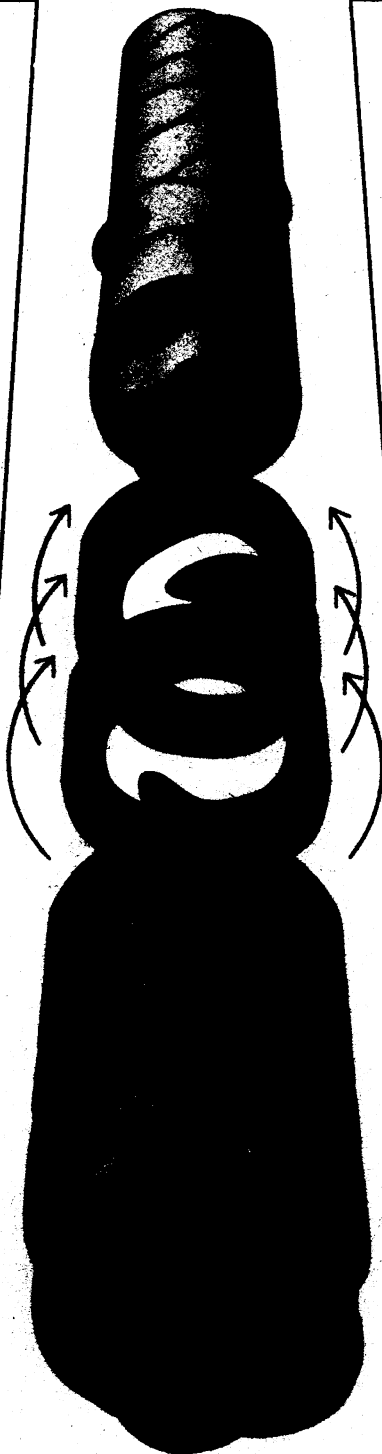

brand of prazosin hydrochloride *Trade Mark

UNIQUE MODE OF ACTION

Hypovase, unlike previous antihypertensive agents, produces a direct, specific relaxation of arteriolar smooth muscle to reduce elevated peripheral resistance - the major haemodynamic abnormality in essential hypertension. Because the effect is a specific action on the arterioles, there is no venous pooling...and no adverse effect on cardiac or renal mechanisms.

"In a group of 14 hypertensive patients a 10-week course of treatment with prazosin [Hypovase] 3 to 7.5 mg/day produced a significant reduction in mean blood pressure without serious side effects."

Brit. med. J., 1974, 2, 298-300

"Of 24 patients... only three showed little or no response and in many the blood pressure control has been very satisfactory. There was little postural effect and tolerance was not seen."

HYPOVASE CONTROLS HYPERTENSION SO SMOOTHLY
YOUR PATIENTS ARE HARDLY AWARE
IT'S WORKING

Gastritis

If antacids were the complete answer, would he return to your surgery so often?

Antacids deal with excess acid. But, in many cases, dyspepsia involves more than this.

Unpleasant symptoms such as dyspepsia, heartburn and gastritis can frequently be traced back to disturbed gastric motility. Recent research has shown that in many patients food is retained for too long in the stomach, gastric contents enter the oesophagus, and bile refluxes from the duodenum.¹

With Maxolon, you can resolve this underlying problem. Maxolon restores gastric motility to normal, so that symptoms of dyspepsia are prevented.

Prescribe Maxolon (tablets or syrup) for your dyspepsia patients. They—and you—will appreciate the difference.

Full information on Maxolon in gastroduodenal conditions is available on request.

DALMANE

A new and powerful treatment for insomnia

Getting to sleep

Clinical trials¹⁻³ have shown that Dalmane cuts the time taken to get to sleep by half: reducing it from an average of 36.2 to 13.9 minutes in one trial¹ and from 63.4 to 27 minutes in another.²

Staying asleep

Trials^{1,2,4} have shown that Dalmane patients enjoy a longer night's sleep with fewer nocturnal awakenings. Dalmane has increased the average night's sleep by 65 minutes⁵ and 93.3 minutes⁶ and in a third trial to an average of over 8 hours.¹

Patient preference

The low incidence of side-effects such as hangover with Dalmane is undoubtedly one reason why many patients prefer it.⁷ In one study⁸ Dalmane produced exactly the same incidence of hangover as placebo.

Safety

Dalmane, a non-barbiturate, has a high mean lethal dose in mice and rats,⁹ suggesting that overdosage would be unlikely to present undue problems of management or threat to life. Human toxicity studies¹⁰ in which healthy men were given large doses of Dalmane for some time confirmed that it is well tolerated.

Madopar is a combination of levodopa (Larodopa) and benserazide, a decarboxylase inhibitor developed by Roche, in the well-researched and documented ratio of 4:1. Trials in many centres confirm this ratio as the one best tolerated in clinical practice.

Benserazide inhibits the peripheral decarboxylation of levodopa with the result that therapeutic levels of dopamine in the brain are achieved with lower doses and a clinical response occurs within days.

Thus, the well-known benefits of levodopa are realised but with a dramatic reduction in both side-effects and the refractory period—aspects of levodopa therapy which up to now have posed problems for many Parkinsonian patients.

Madopar is the trade mark for pharmaceutical preparations containing levodopa and benserazide.

Larodopa is the trade mark for Roche pharmaceutical preparations containing levodopa.
