

Surgical hosiery provides venous support, but PAROVEN is a kind of 'physiological elastic stocking' for the capillaries.

"The most obvious effect of treatment with HR (Paroven) is the very constant relief of night cramps, with an improvement exceeding 90 per cent."

Brit J Clin Pract (1970) 23, 161

"The degree of relief in chronic aching pain in the legs was not so marked (compared with 90% improvement in night cramps and 70% improvement in heaviness of the legs), but still amounted to 54 per cent."

Brit J Clin Pract (1970) 23, 161

"Symptoms of heavy legs are improved in 70 per cent, and it was generally agreed that not only did legs feel lighter but the patients were more agile."

Brit J Clin Pract (1970) 23, 161

"The improved venous blood oxygenation and the reduced tissue oxygen extraction indicated better tissue perfusion with less blood oxygen having been taken from the increased capillary blood flow."

Brit med J (1971) 2, 138

Relief of symptoms in varicose disorders

Varicose veins, post-phlebitic syndrome, superficial thrombophlebitis, varicose ulcers, varicose eczema, ankle oedema, restless legs, paraesthesia, haemorrhoids.

Dosage Initial treatment: 4 capsules a day, preferably with meals. In most cases, at least four weeks treatment with PAROVEN is required before significant benefit is felt. At the point where the patient experiences benefit, the dosage may be adjusted to a maintenance level. Maintenance treatment: 1-2 capsules a day.

Side effects and Precautions In a few patients, slight gastro-intestinal disorders, flushes and headaches have been reported. These are usually overcome by taking the capsules with meals or by slight adjustment of dosage. There are no known contra-indications to PAROVEN; it is virtually non-toxic and has no teratogenic effects. In keeping with current teaching and practice its use during the first trimester should, however, be avoided.

Availability Capsules, each containing 250 mg of O-(β -hydroxyethyl)-rutosides (not less than 45% troxerutin) in bottles of 20 and 100 capsules.

VENTOLIN WORKS IN ASTHMA

"Salbutamol (Ventolin) produced something approaching the maximal reversal of airways obstruction that can be achieved by an adrenergic agent."

(Brit. J. Dis. Chest 1969, 63, 165)

Ventolin Inhaler is considered by many doctors to be the bronchodilator therapy of choice. Its action is highly selective and prolonged, thus making it suitable for continuous use. Alternatively its rapid action may be employed to relieve the acute attack of episodic asthma.

Ventolin Tablets 2mg and 4mg are for use whenever an oral bronchodilator is preferred.

Ventolin Syrup is fruit flavoured and readily accepted by asthmatic children.

Ventolin Spandets employ a unique sustained action formulation and are particularly valuable in asthmatics where nocturnal bronchospasm is a problem.

Ventolin Inhaler contains salbutamol BP. All the oral preparations of Ventolin contain salbutamol BP as sulphate.

This is what we call practising medicine.

A career in Naval medicine can be a rewarding experience. Opportunities to specialise abound. And perhaps above all else, there is an immense satisfaction to be gained from the wide variety of work you will be involved in.

At sea, for instance, you could be anywhere from the Mediterranean to the Pacific Ocean. Looking after the health and well being of the company of a modern warship.

And though you could spend as long as the first eighteen months of your five year Short Service Commission on board different ships, you need have no fear of losing contact with mainstream medicine. For no matter where you are, you will be kept informed of current medical opinion.

After this, the choice is yours. Post graduate medical training and a career in the clinical disciplines at one of our naval district general hospitals. Haslar or Plymouth, for instance, with their wide spectrum of clinical material drawn from naval personnel, their dependants and the local civilian population as well. There are also naval hospitals in Malta, Gibraltar and Mauritius, with opportunities for exchange appointments elsewhere.

Or you might prefer occupational medicine in our research orientated naval dockyards. Aviation medicine with its accent on rotary wing support of the Fleet. And for those with an administrative turn of mind, community medicine.

Royal Naval expertise in maritime medicine is recognised world wide and research into underwater medicine, nuclear medicine and the closed submarine environment is centred at the Institute of Naval Medicine at Alverstoke.

Naval general practice in well staffed and equipped medical centres extend as far afield as Hong Kong and Singapore. And new training schemes are now under way in the United Kingdom.

Should you be moved or sent abroad at any time, all expenses will be paid by us. We will help you with accommodation (at very reasonable rents) and provide allowances for the education of your children, if you have a family.

If you enter the Royal Navy immediately after registration you will be given the rank of Surgeon Lieutenant and a salary of £4,548, rising to £4,701 after four years.

On the other hand, if you are older (up to the age of forty) and more experienced, we can offer you a number of opportunities in general practice and the specialities. And, depending on your post-registration experience, you could enter as a Surgeon Lieutenant Commander at a salary of £5,552, rising to £6,147 after five years.

Then, at the end of your five year Short Service Commission you could leave with a tax free gratuity of £3,000.

But if it is mutually agreeable, you could apply for a Full Career Commission or a 16 year pensionable commission. The choice is yours.

In the meantime if you would like further information, write giving details of your age and qualifications to Surgeon Commander L.C. Banks, R.N., (724BU14) Department of the Medical Director General (Naval), Empress State Building, Fulham, London SW6.

What on earth's a tub of margarine doing in this Medical Journal?

We know that there's a significant link between saturated fats, serum cholesterol levels and coronary heart disease in man.^{1,2.}

There are a number of guidelines for reducing the risk of coronary heart disease. One of the most important is the recommendation to reduce the amount of saturated fat intake in the diet.^{3.}

The American Heart Association,^{4.} the combined Medical Boards of Norway, Sweden and Finland,^{5.} and the National Heart Foundations of Australia and New Zealand,^{6,7.} all recommend the reduction of saturated fat intake and an increase in the level of polyunsaturated fatty acids.

Many doctors are recommending a modified fat diet for patients at risk from a heart attack. The change is made easier with Flora.

Flora is an accepted component of a lipid lowering diet.^{8,9.} The value of such a diet is indicated by the findings from three first generation clinical trials of primary prevention, which suggested that dietary modifications would reduce the incidence of coronary heart disease.^{10, 11, 12.}

Flora is higher in polyunsaturated fats than any other leading margarine, and is low in saturated fats*. In addition, Flora is a highly acceptable food and so patients will use it if recommended to do so.

Give good advice - recommend Flora.

At least 50% of Flora's fat content is linoleic essential fatty acid. Flora has a fat content of not less than 80% of the total product and is sold in half pound tubs.*

New product

Pulmadil is a unique new bronchodilator for inhalation. It comes from Riker. Seven years have been spent developing Pulmadil. Already over 20 publications have appeared.

Pulmadil Inhaler relieves the asthmatic attack very fast indeed. It is exceptionally selective.*

Pulmadil is rapidly removed from the blood, with a plasma half-life of under 5 minutes. Unlike long-acting agents it is metabolised by the body's enzyme C.O.M.T. So there is little if any chance of accumulation should overuse occur.

* Even at doses many times those recommended, cardiac effects have not been apparent.
Scandinavian Journal of Respiratory Diseases
(1972) 53: 304

Composition: Pulmadil Inhaler and Pulmadil Auto contain a suspension of riminorol hydrobromide 10 mg/ml, and deliver to the patient 0.2 mg in each dose. Indications: Pulmadil is indicated for the rapid relief of bronchospasm in bronchial asthma and chronic bronchitis. Dosages: One to three puffs should provide relief in most cases. This treatment dose should not be repeated in less than thirty minutes. No more than eight treatments should be taken in any 24 hour period. Pulmadil Inhaler and Pulmadil Auto should be administered to children only under the supervision of a responsible adult. Side-effects: No side-effects of any significance have been reported. Contra-indications: There are no known contra-indications. Use: Pulmadil should be administered with care to patients with thyrotoxicosis. Packings: Pulmadil Inhaler: Standard pack (300 dose vial plus adapter). "It is concluded that maintenance treatment of ulcerative colitis with sulphasalazine (salazopyrin) should be continued indefinitely unless contraindicated by side effects".¹

The results of the above controlled trial carried out at the Nuffield Department of Clinical Medicine, Radcliffe Infirmary, Oxford, are all the more welcome as earlier trials of cortisone² and prednisone³ at standard dosages have shown them to be totally ineffective in reducing the number of recurrences of ulcerative colitis.

"Fortunately, Sulphasalazine tablets, 0.5 grams, 4 times a day will prevent relapses in the majority of patients with colitis, and only a few patients cannot tolerate this relatively small dose, which can be continued indefinitely, since we do not know when, if ever, it can be safely stopped".⁴

"A striking difference in the relapse rate".

"The patients who received dummy tablets had more than four times the relapse rate of those receiving sulphasalazine".¹ (Salazopyrin).

How do you see Perennial Rhinitis?

This picture (by courtesy of Dr. Niels Mygind), taken with the aid of a scanning electron microscope at a magnification of $\times 4,500$, reveals the appearance of the nasal mucous membrane of a patient with perennial allergic rhinitis showing goblet cells with hypersecretion of mucus.

Perennial Allergic Rhinitis is a prevalent disease problem causing much misery and inconvenience. Many patients fail to obtain adequate relief from vasoconstrictor drugs, antihistamines and sodium cromoglycate. Furthermore, side effects such as rebound congestion and drowsiness are often troublesome. Oral or parenteral corticosteroid preparations are the most effective treatments but, as in asthma, clinicians are reluctant to prescribe them over long periods because serious systemic side effects may occur, including adrenal suppression.

In contrast, Beconase Nasal Spray is a metered-dose aerosol which delivers into a specially designed nasal applicator beclomethasone dipropionate BP, a selective steroid which controls more effectively the inflammatory process at the allergic mucous membrane in dosages which do not cause systemic side effects.

In confusional states following acute febrile illness or surgery, alcoholic or drug-induced psychoses, and in peripheral neuritis associated with a malabsorption syndrome, patients should benefit from 2 days intensive intravenous administration of Parentrovite high potency B and C vitamins. After which, therapy can be continued by the intravenous or the intramuscular route for 5-7 days. This treatment rapidly assists a return to normal intracellular glucose metabolism, the consequence of which is a significant improvement in the patient's condition.

Parentrovite high potency injectable vitamins for initial therapy then Orovite follows on naturally from Parentrovite

As soon as the clinical situation allows, the patient can be switched to maintenance therapy with Orovite until full health is restored.

Herpid is 5% idoxuridine, an agent effective against DNA viruses, in dimethyl sulphoxide, a penetrating solvent.

Herpid, brushed on to the vesicles by the patient regularly for 4 days, rapidly reduces pain and resolves lesions.

Eradicates pain

Herpid halves the duration of pain (otherwise often severe and long lasting) in most zoster patients. In one series the median duration of pain was only 3 days.

Less postherpetic neuralgia

Herpid greatly reduces the incidence and severity of postherpetic neuralgia.

Resolves lesions quickly

Herpid cuts the average healing time of lesions by almost a third.

Herpid is most effective when used early in the course of the disease. So consider zoster in any patient presenting with unilateral root pain and prescribe Herpid.

Medical Adviser Overseas Aid Projects £9,400

This appointment, based in London, offers you as a registered medical practitioner the opportunity to become involved in the Ministry of Overseas Development's aid projects in the developing countries. Your particular responsibilities will cover West and Central Africa, the Carribean and South America, and you will visit these areas several times a year spending some 10 weeks away annually.

The range of health projects undertaken is wide and will often be on a major scale, such as advice on setting up and running health services in these countries, with the associated problems of training and organisation. Often, too, the Ministry's industrial and social development programmes will call for detailed consideration of health aspects, and will enable you to apply your expertise within a broad multi-disciplinary context. Assessment of research, particularly into tropical diseases, is also an integral part of the post, and will keep you in constant contact with professional and academic institutions.

Applicants should preferably have had wide and varied experience in medical administration and public health at home and overseas.

The salary for this appointment will be £9,400 with non-contributory pension scheme.

For full details and an application form (to be returned by 6th December 1974) write to the Civil Service Commission, Alencon Link, Basingstoke, Hants RG21 1JB, or telephone BASINGSTOKE 29222 ext. 500 (or, for 24 hour answering service, LONDON 01-839 1992). Please quote S/8789/3.

COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL MEDICAL AID SOCIETY

MEDICAL OFFICERS
(General Duties/Obstetrics)
(General Duties/Anaesthesia)
Sterling £7,680 +

The Society requires two Medical Officers to fill vacancies occurring within its medical department in the near future.

Our service provides full medical care for some 18,000 employees and dependants operating from two Group Practice Centres and two small hospitals with a total of 55 beds.

The medical staff includes specialists in Anaesthesia, Obstetrics and Gynaecology, General Surgery and part-time in Medicine and Radiology, together with six General Medical Practitioners.

The duties of Medical Officers include both In-patient and Out-patient responsibilities covering most facets of medicine and whilst not absolutely necessary we would prefer the one post to be filled by a Practitioner with added experience in Anaesthesia, and the other with added experience in Obstetrics. Experience in Paediatrics would be of extra advantage in both cases.

Kitwe and Ndola are commercial centres on the Copperbelt plateau in the Republic of Zambia which at 4,500 ft. enjoy a very healthy climate together with excellent social and sporting facilities. We as a Society endeavour to provide good working and living conditions for our staff in order to maintain as happy a medical team as possible.

Today you have a choice, because now there is Parfenac* (bufexamac), the safe and effective alternative to topical steroid therapy.
