CONSTITUTION AND REGULATIONS OF THE COMPANY.

CAPITAL.—MUTUAL ASSURANCE.

The "NEW EQUITABLE" embraces all the advantages of a strictly Mutual Office, with the addition of an ample subscribed paid-up capital, forming a bonâ fide security for its policy-holders.

POLICIES INDISPUTABLE.

The Policies of this Company being Indisputable, they become as readily negotiable, in monetary transactions, as any other description of personal property.

SPECIAL ASSURANCES.

All the different varieties of Life Contingencies may be provided against by Assurances in the New Equitable; and every accommodation is granted to the Assured for payment of premium.

INVALID LIVES

Are assured at rates adapted to the circumstances of each case. Every circumstance affecting the health impartially considered.

DIVISION AND APPROPRIATION OF PROFITS.

The whole of the Profits will be Equitably Divided amongst the holders of Policies issued on the participating scale.

MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS.

The Directors feel strongly that Medical Practitioners have not hitherto received that recognition, by Assurance Companies, which their professional knowledge, position, and valuable services entitled them to expect. They have determined, therefore, to frankly acknowledge and consult all duly qualified Medical Referees as the Medical Advisers of the Company, and uniformly transmit, with the Questions intended to be made the basis of every Official Medical Report, A CONSULTATION FEE OF TWO GUINEAS.

ANNUITIES AND ENDOWMENTS GRANTED.

Any further information may be had on applying personally, or by letter, to the Resident Director or Secretary.

CHIEF OFFICES—WEST STRAND, CHARING CROSS, LONDON.

TO PROVINCIAL MEDICAL AND SURGICAL PRACTITIONERS.

---

THE FOLLOWING ARE THE PRINCIPAL OBJECTS
TO WHICH THE ATTENTION OF THE PROVINCIAL
MEDICAL AND SURGICAL ASSOCIATION IS DIRECTED.

1st.—Collection of useful information, whether speculative or practical, through Original Essays, or Reports of Provincial Hospitals, Infirmarys, or Dispensaries, or of private practice.

2nd.—Increase of knowledge of the Medical Topography of England, through statistical, meteorological, geological, and botanical inquiries.

3rd.—Investigations of the modifications of Endemic and Epidemic Diseases, in different situations, and at various periods, so as to trace, so far as the present imperfect state of the art will permit, their connections with peculiarities of soil or climate, or with the localities, habits, and occupations of the people.

4th.—Advancement of Medico-Legal Science, through succinct reports of whatever cases may occur in Provincial Courts of Judicature.

5th.—Maintenance of the honour and respectability of the Profession, generally, in the Provinces by promoting friendly intercourse and free communication of its Members, and by establishing among them the harmony and good feeling which ought ever to characterise a liberal profession.

THE FOLLOWING ARE THE LAWS, AMONGST OTHERS, OF THE ASSOCIATION:—

PAYMENT OF SUBSCRIPTIONS, &c.

23rd.—Each Member of the Association to pay one guinea admission, and the same amount annually afterwards; the subscription to commence from the first of January each year, and to be considered as due, unless notice of its being withdrawn be given to the Secretary or Secretaries antecedently to the year for which it would be payable; for such subscription each member shall receive a copy of each publication* of the Association issued for the general use of the Members.

24th.—That those Members who have not an opportunity of paying their subscriptions to a Member of the Council resident in their district, are requested to pay it through the medium of their own bankers, to Messrs. Roberts and Co., London, for Messrs. Berwick and Co., Worcester, to the credit of the Association, or by a Post-office Order, sent to the President of the Council or the Secretary, which mode of remittance is specially pointed out, from being found the most convenient in conducting the business of the Society.

25th.—That all Papers and other communications be addressed to the Secretary or Secretaries, at Worcester, and forwarded carriage free.

* Seventeen Volumes of the "Transactions" have been published in 8vo., with numerous Plates, Wood-cuts, and Illustrations; and the Provincial Medical and Surgical Journal is forwarded every alternate week by post on the evening of publication.
