JOHN BACOT, Esq.

BENJAMIN PHILLIPS, Esq., F.R.S.

TREASURER.

JOHN PROPERT, Esq., 6, New Cavendish Street.

IT affords the Council much satisfaction to publish the THIRD LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS to the COLLEGE, and to acknowledge the cordial and efficient co-operation which has been afforded by those gentlemen, who, in acting as Honorary Local Secretaries, have so nobly assisted the Council in the success that has hitherto attended their labours; and as the Council confidently hope, with the continuance of this support, to be in a position in June next to lay the first stone of the College, they trust that other gentlemen will volunteer their services, and assist them to accomplish that desirable object.

The Council have the gratification to state that, through the munificence of a member of the Profession, a piece of land consisting of about eighteen acres, which will afford an eligible site for the College, is on the eve of being transferred to the Trustees, on the most advantageous terms.

The Laws for the Government of the College will be ready for circulation in a few days, a copy of which will be forwarded to each of the Honorary Local Secretaries.
