"This work is written in a perspicuous style, and abounds in practical information; we add our earnest recommendation to our readers, to procure and read through the two volumes, assuring them that they will be richly repaid for their trouble. A series of plates, illustrative of the various diseases, are given."—Dublin Journal of Medical Science.

"We consider it a very valuable addition to the existing books on diseases of the eye, and we believe that it will prove eminently useful."—Medico-Chirurgical Review, October, 1840.

WILLIAMS, M.D., F.R.S., Professor of the Practice of Medicine, University College, London. Fourth Edition, with much important new matter, Plates, 8vo, cloth, 10s. 6d.

"The fact that a fourth edition is called for is a very good argument in favour of any book. But this was not necessary in the case of Dr. Williams; it was well known to the profession as one of the best manuals of diseases of the chest we possess."—Dublin Medical Journal.

"Evidently written by a man thoroughly acquainted with his subject."—Lancet.

"We strongly recommend this work to the attention of auscultators."—Med. Chir. Review

"By far the most important addition to our literature on this subject," &c.—See Dr. Forbes's Preface to Trans. of Laennec.

"Laennec, Andral, and Williams, the best writers on auscultation."—Dr. Copland's Dict.

ON THE PHENOMENA OF SENSATION, as connected with the Mental, Physical, and Instinctive Faculties of Man. By JAMES JOHNSTONE, M.D., Physician to the General Hospital, Birmingham. 8vo, cloth, price 8s.

"This volume contains a good resumé of the labours of different physiologists; it exhibits careful and extensive reading, and a just and candid appreciation of the labours of other men. The student of the nervous system will derive benefit from the perusal of this work, which is very creditable to its author."—Dublin Journal of Medical Science.

MIDWIFERY ILLUSTRATED.

THE PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE of OBSTETRIC MEDICINE and SURGERY. By F. H. RAMSBOTHAM, M.D., Lecturer on Midwifery at the London Hospital.

This work is illustrated with 84 Plates, engraved on Steel, and 20 engravings on Wood. The letter-press is of good type, and printed on fine paper, forming one handsome thick 8vo volume, bound in cloth, price £1 2s.

The publisher refers to the unanimous testimony of the medical press in commendation of the scientific, literary, and practical value of the work, of the beauty and accuracy of the numerous illustrations, and of the unusually moderate price at which it is published.

ELEMENTS OF NATURAL PHILOSOPHY; being an Experimental Introduction to the Study of the Physical Sciences. By GOLDING BIRD, M.D., F.L.S., F.G.S., Lecturer on Natural Philosophy at Guy's Hospital. Illustrated with Two Hundred and Thirty Woodcuts, 8vo, cloth, 12s.

"By the appearance of Dr. Bird's work, the student has now all that he can desire in one neat, concise, and well-digested volume. The elements of natural philosophy are explained in very simple language, and illustrated by numerous woodcuts."—Medical Gazette.

"This work teaches us the elements of the entire circle of natural philosophy in the clearest and most perspicuous manner. Light, magnetism, dynamics, meteorology, electricity, &c., are set before us in such simple forms, and so forcible a way, that we cannot help understanding their laws, their operation, and the remarkable phenomena by which they are accompanied or signified. As a volume of useful and beautiful instruction for the young, and as a work of general value to both sexes, we cordially recommend it."—Literary Gazette.

FOURNET on AUSCULTATION, and on the Diagnosis, Curability, and Treatment of the First Stage of Consumption. Translated from the French, with Notes. By THOMAS BRADY, M.B., Professor of Medical Jurisprudence to the College of Physicians, and to the Dublin Law Institute; Physician to Cork-street Hospital, &c. Part the First; price 7s.

"M. Fournet has given a new character of precision to many phenomena already imperfectly known, added some new ones, and taken a more complete and philosophical view of the system of respiratory signs than any previous author. He has pointed out the route, in his diligent investigations of the two murmurs, to, we doubt not, numerous important additions to semiology; and taught us how much remains unexplored in this, as was hitherto supposed, almost exhausted field . . . . He has assuredly himself learned the means of detecting consumption earlier than his predecessors. Some cases of the affection diagnosed in the very incipient stage (and correctly, as the event proved), drew this admission from some of the members of the Academy of Medicine."—British and Foreign Quarterly Review.

On the First of January will be published, in One handsome Volume, 8vo, with 125 Illustrations on Wood

"This little work, divested as much as possible of technical and scientific phraseology, is intended for the use of travellers, and those humane characters who, residing at a distance from a duly qualified medical practitioner, devote a portion of their time to the relief and mitigation of the complicated misfortunes of disease and poverty among their poor neighbours. It is, however, earnestly recommended not to place too much confidence on books of domestic medicine, especially in such cases as are of a serious nature, but always to have recourse to the advice of an able physician as early as it can be obtained."—Extract from Preface.

CITRATE of IRON.—The most valuable and beautiful Preparation of Iron for medicinal use is the Citrate; it is superior to every other salt of that metal from possessing the following qualities:—1st, it is agreeable to the taste; 2nd, it never disagrees with the stomach, 3rd, is perfectly and immediately soluble in water, making a clear ruby-red solution; 4th, it is equally, if not more efficacious in every case where Iron is prescribed than any other preparation; 5th, it is compatible with volatile and fixed alkalies and their carbonates, hydriodate of potash, and most other substances which decompose other salts of Iron. From these properties it is presumed that it must, as soon as it is known, entirely supersede the unscientific forms in which this metal is usually given, as Steel Wine, the old Carbonate of Iron, Griffiths's Mixture, and the general salts which are so prone to decomposition—dose, five grains.
