A Physician's Tale.

"A story full of incidents of the most extraordinary character, told in a vigorous and animated style, in which the human heart is exhibited in every variety of aspect. The reader will rise from it no less instructed than entertained. From first to last the interest never flags for a moment."—John Bull.

"This story is well written. It has sufficient merit to render it a popular novel, the moral and instructive tendencies of which cannot be questioned."—Morning Herald.
