Journal of Public Health and Sanitary

TARTY REVIEW, including the TRANSACTIONS OF THE EPIDEMIOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF LONDON. Edited by B. W. RICHARDSON, M.D., Physician to the Royal Infirmary for Diseases of the Chest.

The January Number will contain the following Articles: Induction in Medicine.—Preservation of Food in Ancient and Modern Times.—Protective Power of Vaccination. By E. C. Seaton, M.D.—Nursery Government in its Sanitary Aspects. By T. H. Barker, M.D.—Diseases of Colliery Operatives. By W. J. Cox, Esq.—Notes on Poisons. By W. Pickells, M.D.—Sanitary Condition of Canterbury. By G. Rigden, Esq.—Reports of Epidemics in Towns and Districts.—Epitome of Sanitary Literature: and other Articles of interest.—The Transactions of the Epidemiological Society will contain an elaborate Report on the Cholera which visited Her Majesty's Black Sea Fleet in the Autumn of 1854; compiled from Official Returns. By B. G. Babington, M.D., F.R.S.

"This excellent periodical fully maintains its character as a sound instructor in sanitary matters..... To our readers we would say that, if they wish to be indoctrinated with correct views on that part of their duty—and an important part it is—which relates to the prevention of diseases, they cannot fail to gather sound instruction and common-sense ideas from 'The Journal of Public Health.'"—Association Medical Journal.

"We hope the profession will give its full support to this critical guardian of the national health."—Lancet.

"To all who hold with the motto which Dr. Richardson has stamped on his work, 'National health is national wealth,' we heartily recommend the work itself."—Medical Times and Gazette.

"Deserves a place in all medical and Scientific libraries."—Glasgow Medical Journal.

"The one true and reliable journal on sanitary matters."—Dublin Medical Press.

"There is a novelty and a freshness on every page."—Critic.

"The journal numbers among its contributors men of known scientific character and great practical knowledge."—Dublin Quarterly Medical Journal.

"We hail with no little gratification the establishment of a journal under the editorship of Dr. Richardson, devoted exclusively to these topics."—British and Foreign Medico-Chirurgical Review.

"Deserves a place in the library of every intelligent physician."—New York Journal of Medicine.

MR. BOURJEAUD, in submitting the above Four Engravings as illustrating the nature and special design of his apparatuses, most earnestly begs to call the attention of Professional Gentlemen to the gross and nefarious practices of unprincipled parties, who attempt to impose on the public by advertising their spurious apparatuses, accompanied with the closest imitations of his diagrams, and with the use even of the same words and plan of measurement, in order to obtain, by these fraudulent means, a portion of the patronage with which he has been especially honoured by the Profession. MR. BOURJEAUD wishes, therefore, to caution Medical Gentlemen against the dishonest proceedings of his imitators, and hopes they will not accept any of the appliances put forward under the name of Spiral Supporter, except the articles come from his own Establishment, No. 11, Davies Street, Berkeley Square (opposite Mivart's Hotel), London; and Rue des Beaux Arts, No. 17, Paris.
