"Mr. Lane makes out a clear case for early and almost immediate operation. To sum up: Mr. Lane has absolutely proved his contention, and rendered it quite clear, that early operation is the right course on every ground, developmental and otherwise; and, further, that delay in performing staphylo-rhaphy until the third to the sixth year is fraught with most harmful results, and should not be permitted."—British Medical Journal, Jan. 27th, 1906.
