JULY 23, 1932

To the OVERSEAS DELEGATES AND VISITORS TO THE CENTENARY MEETING

The Proprietors of ENO's "Fruit Salt" will deem it a privilege to send to any member of the Medical Profession, a copy of any or all of the following "Medical Reminders"—with a bottle of their preparation, if desired.

THE DOCTOR'S EMERGENCY REMINDER

summarises briefly a few points in connection with the treatment of poisoning and various other emergency cases. (90 pages.)

URGENT ABDOMINAL DIAGNOSTICS

summarises the salient facts which need to be borne in mind when faced with an abdominal emergency. (62 pages.)

THE DOCTOR'S POCKET REMEMBRANCER

summarises many of the points in the diagnosis of nervous diseases which often slip the memory. (56 pages.)

THE PRACTITIONER'S POCKET BOOK

gives in concise form much useful information on a wide variety of subjects of importance to doctors. (80 pages.)

Each "Reminder" is waistcoat-pocket size, bound limp morocco.
