● BMJ and printing industry dispute

This issue of the BMJ was caught on the printing press at the start of the recent industrial dispute in the printing industry. To facilitate its dispatch to readers now that the dispute has been settled the classified advertising pages and 20 pages of editorial text have been removed. The result is that the following editorial page numbers are missing, an omission that will be noted in the volume index when it is published: 996, 997, 998, 999; 1011; 1012; 1014, 1015, 1016, 1017, 1018, 1019, 1020; 1023; 1029, 1030, 1031, 1032, 1033, 1034.
